Flesherton.

A pretty wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Lafayette Badgerow, 4th line Arcturion, on Wednesday afternoon June 22nd, when their daughter Sadie became the bride of Mr. Frederick Harold Graham of Eugenia. From the lawn about sixty-five guests witnessed the ceremony which was performed by Rev. H. E. Wellwood B. A. of Flesherton, and which took place on the verandah the bride party standing beneath an arch of evergreens decorated with snow balls and ferns. The bride who was unadorned and given away by her brother Mr. John Badgerow, of Toronto, was prettily gowned in white silk mull trimmed with medallions set with seed pearls. She wore a bridal veil with wreath of roses and lilies and carried a bouquet of carnations and fern tied with streamers of white silk ribbon. The bride's sister, Miss Florence Badgerow, of Toronto, and Miss Wilma Down of Hatherston, were pretty flower girls carrying bouquets of snow balls and yellow roses. Master Norman Sims, of Toronto, cousin of the bride, wearing a beaver, the ring being carried on a white satin cushion. Miss Ida Osborne of Maxwell, played the wedding march. After congratulations to the newly married couple a choice wedding breakfast was served on the lawn the table decorations being very pretty. The evening was afterwards very enjoyably spent with music and games. The bride's travelling suit was silver grey messaline silk with hat to match. After visiting friends at Thornbury and other points Mr. and Mrs. Graham will leave for their new home at Blind River. The wedding presents were numerous and valuable. The groom's gift to the bride was a mantle clock, to the flower girls each a gold brooch set with brilliants and to the ring bearer a gold chain and fob. Guests from a distance were present. Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Huggard, of Thornbury; Mr. and Mrs. W. Legate, Durham; Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Maxwell, of Chatham; and Mrs. F. C. Sims and son Norman of Toronto.

Under the auspices of the Methodist Ladies' Aid, Bengough the versatile artist and humorist, appeared in the town hall on Friday evening last and in his own inimitable manner entertained the audience delightfully for two hours with pure, clean amusement. Mr. Bengough's perfect mimicry in song and recital was highly pleasing and his pencil sketches of local characters were very taking, but withal there was also much in the course of his miscellaneous program that was instructive. Rev. Mr. Wellwood introduced the cartoonist, who opened the close recited and withal introduced the parson in his attitude of most earnest delivery of "Sound Doctrine." Dr. Murray appeared over a patient being relieved of a painful molar. Mr. Bunt was represented in funeral garb and Trustee Weber, driving His Majesty's mail, was exclaiming "Blander be blowed" and carried a banner inscribed "Rah! for our new school."

The Chosen Friends picnicked at Eugenia last week and had an enjoyable outing. The Presbyterian Sunday School will hold their annual picnic in Mr. Pickell's grove on Tuesday.

Rev. Findlay Matheson B. A. of Chatsworth, will conduct anniversary services, morning and evening in Chalmers' Church on Sunday next.

Sunday last being Patriotic Day throughout the Presbyterian Church in Canada Rev. Mr. Milligan's sermon was appropriate to the occasion. It was pointed out that among the thousands of every nationality coming annually to our land there were many possessing good qualities, but there were also many not without evil propensities which it was the duty of the church to help overcome. If we would prevent intemperance, Sabbath desecration, laxity of marriage relations and crimes of violence too common already among the foreigners the church must be active in spreading among them the gospel of love, purity and peace.

Blyth's Corners.

Another mile-stone has been reached in the history of our school section when on Friday last Miss A. Lawrence who has taught quite successfully for the past two and a half years severed her connection, her limit of three years having expired. She intends going out West to visit her elder sister and other relatives and to have a general frolic. During her sojourn around the Corners, Miss L. has made many friends by her genial manner and winsome ways and her removal will leave a vacancy hard to fill. At the close of the school on Friday, (occasioned by the Home-seeker's Excursion to the West on Tuesday) and on which she intends to go,) she was presented by the scholars with their little gifts showing the respect and esteem she occupied in their hearts as their teacher. And now the call comes for another teacher to hold up the banner in the old reverend looking stone school which no doubt, will appear in due time in the ad. column of the Chronicle. We give below a list of the names of all the teachers who have taught since the school was built in 1875. They are:--Mr. Scott, Mr. Bain, Mr. McFarlane, Mr. Kernahan, Miss Booth, Miss Cooper, Miss Edge, Miss Scott, Miss Blyth, Miss Fee, Miss Dawson, Miss Lawrence, Miss Flynn, Miss H. Lawrence.

Mrs. Wm. Hodlin, and daughter Annie of St. Jacobs are welcome visitors in and around the Corners.

Mr. Geo. Seim has the foundation of his large barn completed and is at present busy framing the timber, being himself a first class framer. We have no doubt but what it will be well done. The barn is 56x80 with a large straw shed and of the high post pattern which when completed will be the most up-to-date barn in this locality. This is saying a good deal for our locality has long been noted for its magnificent buildings.

A very interesting event took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Thompson, 2nd con. Normandy, on Wednesday last June 22nd, when their eldest daughter Olive Edna, was wedded to the man of her choice in the person of Mr. Geo. W. Stockley, of Toronto. The ceremony was performed in the presence of about two hundred invited guests by the Rev. Geo. Kendall under "the old apple tree," at the hour of five o'clock. The bride dressed in white silk and carrying a bouquet of white bridal roses looked charming, while the bridesmaid Miss Dinah Thompson looked equally bewitching dressed in pink silk and carrying a bouquet of pink roses. The groom was supported by his brother through the trying ordeal, and the melodious strains of the wedding march played by Miss Lottie Fee took their places under a dainty arch followed by the handsome bride leaning on the arm of her father and whom, we presume got the blame for giving her away. The vows being put and taken and sealed with a kiss, then followed a storm of hand shakes and good wishes after which the large company sat down on seats provided for the occasion and partook heartily of lunch. After that was over the evening was spent in a free for all sort of a way by music chat and dancing. Numerous and costly were the gifts bestowed on the bride showing the esteem in which she was held. The groom's gift to the bride was a handsome sewing machine. Besides the handsome and useful presents the bride was the recipient of over $100 in cash, which would be quite sufficient to tempt a fellow to ask "does a person win or lose by getting married and how much?" The happy couple spent a couple of days of their honeymoon at the old home at home and on Saturday left for their place of abode in Toronto followed by the good wishes of the bride's many friends for many bright and happy days of matrimonial bliss.

Tommy Wallace is generally taken as a temperate man, but really his actions looked a little shady when he hitched into another man's buggy and did not discover his mistake until he reached home, on the night of the above wedding. Being strictly honest Tommy returned the buggy in time for the other fellow to get home. We think we will let Tommy off for this once on suspended sentence.
