

THE DURHAM CHRONICLE

IRWIN, Editor and Proprietor. DURHAM, JULY 7, 1910.

HITS AND MISSES.

The sporting editor of this paper was unable to be present at the prize fight at Reno, as he couldn't get back in time for choir practice.

Jim Jeffries is a minister's son and Jack Johnson says his father was a colored parson. Both boys have conceded there's more money in the ring than in the pulpit.

The result of the prize fight at Reno shows that Jack Johnson was too much for Jim Jeffries, but it doesn't show the black race superior to the white.

It would be no surprise now to learn that Jim Jeffries is a Canadian. In the palmy days of Burns, he was an American, but when Johnson trimmed him, his birth place was traced to Hanover, Ontario, Canada.

Teething children have more or less diarrhoea, which can be controlled by giving Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera, and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Hampden.

Mrs. Samuel Allen, of Chesley, visited for a week with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Allan Gilmour.

Miss Grace Hunter, of Durham, spent Wednesday the guest of Misses Rebecca and Bessie Park.

Mrs. J.G. Collinson, of Dundas, visited for a couple of weeks with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Henry Byer.

Mr. Jas. L. Anderson, St. George, visited over Dominion Day at his home here.

School closed for the summer holidays last Wednesday, and Miss M. Halpenny, our teacher, left for her home in Dromore, the same day.

Mr. Jas. Mather held a very successful raising of two twelve foot sheds to his barn recently, and the young people of Hampden and vicinity spent a very pleasant evening together.

Messrs. John and Michael Burns have been confined to the house for the last three weeks with tonsillitis, and Mr. Michael has taken a relapse. His many friends hope to see him well again.

Mr. Thos. Derby lost an aged horse last week, which broke thru the planks of a well, and was dead before taken out.

That all signs of rain fail in time of drouth, was proven last Friday, when it failed to rain on the Hampden picnic. The day was an ideal one, and a large crowd gathered in Mr. Derby's grove. Dinner was served at two o'clock, after which a good program of songs, speeches, and recitations took place. A game of baseball between Hampden and the South Line of Bentinck, was played in the evening, and although it was very one sided after the sixth inning, there was much excitement. The Bentinck battery were two "non-professional" players from Normanby, and only for that fact the teams would have been more equally matched. At the end of the ninth inning, the score stood eight to thirty-eight, or some such ridiculous number, in favor of Bentinck. It was laughable to see the Bentinck boys chasing each other around the diamond, long after they had a safe score, and put one in mind of a merry-go-round. The Hampden boys were congratulated for keeping their side of the score in the units, and for fair playing. Good feelings existed throughout the game between the players, which is the only proper way for neighbors of a high order of intellect. The Hampden boys took conciliation in the thought that "it might have been worse," and the Bentinck boys went home as pleased looking as if they had trimmed Chicago.

The crops in this locality are suffering severely for want of rain, and unless it comes soon, the state of affairs will be serious. Wheat and oats are beginning to rust badly.

The next meeting of the Ladies' Institute for Normanby, will be held at the home of Mrs. Hugh Fulton here, the second Thursday in July. Miss Mary Little, and Etta Anderson gave an instrumental duet on the piano at the meeting in Ayton last Thursday afternoon.

GOLDEN WEDDING.

On the first of July, a very interesting event took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John McFadden, of this town, when their children and grandchildren and a few other immediate relatives assembled to celebrate the golden wedding of the venerable and highly esteemed couple.

Fifty years have passed since John McFadden and Nancy Bell were proclaimed man and wife, by the late Rev. Alex. Stewart, for many years a resident of this town, and the pioneer minister of this part of our fair Dominion.

The nuptial knot was tied at the home of the bride's parents, at lot 7, concession 3, S. D. R., Glenelg, but instead of the usual honeymoon trip of nowadays, the newly-wed couple and all their belongings were transferred by two yoke of oxen to lot 9, concession 22, Egremont, where they lived for forty years, till they moved to this town ten years ago.

The marital union resulted in an issue of one son and six daughters, Wm. John, on the homestead, Mrs. McChesney, of Owen Sound, Mrs. Wm. Ryan, of Durham, Mrs. John Bailey, of Bentinck, and Minnie Martha, and Vic., at home. All the family, together with twelve grandchildren, were present at the function, which consisted of an address and presentation, followed by a sumptuous dinner and a very interesting program of games, music, and short congratulatory addresses.

A very handsome china dinner set was given as a present by the children and grandchildren, while other relatives and friends contributed a purse of gold, and many other presents.

The address was read by Miss Nina McFadden, the eldest grandchild, and the presentation was made by two other grandchildren, Miss Ambrozie Bailey, and Miss Ella McFadden. The original bridesmaid, Mrs. John Whitmore, of Egremont, was present, but the groomsmen, Mr. Robt. Bell, died many years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. McFadden are much esteemed members of the Presbyterian church, and Mr. McFadden is an enthusiastic Orangeman, who notwithstanding his advanced years, will likely take part next Tuesday in the Orange demonstration.

Two brothers, Wm. and Thos. McFadden, who were present at the marriage, were guests at the golden wedding.

We congratulate the aged couple, whose good fortune it is to be spared for such a rare event, and hope they may yet enjoy many years of happiness together. The following is the address:

To our Father and Mother, and Grandfather and Grandmother,

We have gathered here to-day to mark an incident all important in your lives and ours, which occurred fifty years ago. This day is the fiftieth anniversary of your wedding, your golden wedding. For fifty years you have spent life together, amid great trials, and much happiness. At times surrounded by your children, only to see them one by one drift off to make their way in the world. It must be a great source of pleasure to you, as it is to us, to see this great re-union, which will indefinitely mark an epoch in the history of this branch of the McFadden family, and cannot help but draw us all closer and closer together.

We have gathered here in order to show our great love for you, and to endeavor to convince you of our appreciation of all you have done and suffered for us.

In order that this day may be recalled to you very often during the many more years we hope you will live together, amidst great happiness, we ask you to accept this small gift, and in accepting it, ask you to remember that it is a token of loyalty and sincere love from those whom you hold most dear in all this world.

—Your Children and Grandchildren.

HOW MANY REALIZE THE MARVELLOUS VALUE OF FRUIT IN CURING MANY DISEASES?

Wonderful Success of "Fruit-a-lives"—The Famous Fruit Medicine

Fruit juice consists of about 91% water, 8% of sweet matter, and only 1% of an intensely bitter substance. Careful experiments show that it is this bitter principle, which is the active or medicinal material of fruit juice.

Darkies' Corners.

The annual picnic in Mr. Thos. McGirr's grove came off as previously mentioned on Thursday last a fine day bringing out a large crowd. Footracing, swinging, and other amusements were enjoyed by all. However, it was the baseball match between Edge Hill and No. 9, in which the deepest interest was centred, and surely drew the attention of the largest portion of the crowd.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Hind, and Master Ader, of Waterloo, visited his mother over the holiday, and will remain for a couple of weeks. Miss Farquharson, and Miss Ireland attended the Young Peoples' Presbyterian meeting in Palmerston on Tuesday.
