Corner Concerns.

Crowded out last week.

Mr. John Barbour went to Manitoulin Island last Tuesday, to be present at the marriage of his niece, Miss Romley, to a Mr. Hopkins.

Amongst those who went on the Western excursion this Tuesday morning are Mr. S. Patterson, Mrs. Wm. Hunter, and Miss Renwick.

The St. Paul church people are putting a fancy wire fence around their grounds, also a gate with the name on it. The latter is a good example to the neighborhood, but the church is supposed to set an example.

We are very sorry to have to report the accident which occurred to Jack Vessie last Thursday, in breaking his leg. While working at Mr. Wm. Andrews' new house he fell from the scaffold of the second storey and may be laid up the most of the summer. Drs. Brad, and D. Jamieson attended him, and removed him to his home near Holstein on Saturday in their private car.

Quite a number from around here went to Edge Hill on Wednesday evening for the pleasure of seeing the Green Grove Eye-Openers lick the baseball team of that place, and enjoyed themselves to their heart's content.

Mr. Thos. Sirrs was married in North Dakota on May 24th. Although we have no particulars of the affair, it is an item of interest in this place, as he was born and grew to manhood here.

Many from this part will attend the Dromore picnic on Friday, as it is likely to even exceed the past two years, although they were pronounced O. K. by the 1000 and 1200 people respectively, who attended.

We have to thank Durham council for their move in getting better shipping accommodation for live stock. It is as necessary for a town depending on farm trade for its livelihood to help make a good market for their produce, and also help with easy and speedy means of shipping, as it is for a lakeside town depending principally on shipping to have elevators and other such accommodation that would far surpass officials has been up negotiating for suitable grounds, and the farmers were giving good encouragement to have a good delivering place prepared.

The McDonald gang are busy plastering a kitchen for Mr. R. Barbour.

The Meade and Allan families were over last Wednesday to the marriage of Miss Olive Thompson. Mr. Archie Allan is advertising in the Chronicle this week for the recovery of his gold watch and fob, lost between home and Varney. He believes the Chronicle is read by all good honest people, and some of those may have found it. He offers a reward.

THIS WEEK'S BUDGET.

Our picnic on the 25th was a great success. The day was an ideal one for such an event. The program was a good one, consisting of speeches by Rev. Mr. Hartley, Mr. Wm. Allan, and the chairman, Mr. Fred Irish. Singing and reciting by the school and choir, as well as a duet by Misses Mead and Sirrs, The Mead family, or a trio of them, sang sweetly. A pleasant event of the day was a presentation by the school children of a leather suit case to their departing teacher, Mr. Irish, accompanied by an address expressive of their regards for his pains, patience and perseverance. The presentation was made on behalf of the school by Misses Myrtle and Aggie Allan. After an excellent tea had been served, the crowd went to the field to see the Green Grove Eye-Openers play the Holstein baseball team. The game was an interesting one, even though the Eye-openers doubled the score, making it 8 to 4. Jas. Matthews is captain of the home team. Mr. Jas Sharp, of Holstein, umpired the game, and gave probably as good satisfaction as the ordinary run of Holstein men would.

Mrs. Jas. Mack visited her parents in Toronto the latter part of the week, returning Monday, accompanied by her mother and sister-in-law.

Mr. Frank Irwin gave good satisfaction as umpire of Edge Hill and No. 9 at the picnic on Thursday last.

Mrs. Jas. McMeeken is spending a week with her sister in Durham. Miss S. A. Scott has been en-

Alcohol to Children

Ask your doctor how often he prescribes an alcoholic stimulant for children. He will probably say, "Very, very rarely. Children do not need stimulating." Ask him how often he prescribes a tonic for them. He will probably answer, "Very, very frequently." Then ask him about Ayer's non-alcoholic Sarsaparilla as a tonic for the young. Follow his advice. He knows. J.C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

gaged to teach our school for the coming year. She comes highly spoken of.

NOW SOLD IN CANADA

In Less Than Three Years, Parisian S. Sage's Splendid Hair Tonic, is Sold All Over Canada

There is a reason for the phenomenal sale of Parisian Sage in Canada during the last three years. And the reason is plain to all. Parisian Sage does just what it is advertised to do.

Ask Macfarlane & Co. about it. They will tell you that they rigidly guarantee it to cure dandruff, stop falling hair or itching scalp in two weeks or money back.

There is no reason whatever why any man or woman should fail to take advantage of the above generous offer.

But one thing that has made Parisian Sage so famous is its peculiar power to turn the harsh, unattractive hair that many women possess into luxuriant and radiant hair in a short time. Women of refinement the country over are using it and it never disappoints.

Sold everywhere, and in Durham by Macfarlane & Co. for 50 cents a large bottle.

Getting Rid of a Jonah.

The little woman with the laundry blue and gangrenous green flowers on her hat all scrambled up into a wilton rug design got on the Euclid avenue car carrying a dog. It was one of those aristocratic, foolish looking dogs that couldn't overtake a Welsh rabbit.

"Got a permit for that dawg?" asked the conductor when he came around for the woman's fare. "Haven't? Then you'll have to get off the car." The woman got up, dog under one arm, as if to get off. But as she rose she snapped: "I'll not get off! So there!" Still, she walked to the rear platform, as if in contradiction of her own assertion. The conductor was ready to signal the motorman to stop.

But the woman had declared she wasn't going to get off, and she intended to keep her word. She poised the dog carefully in her palms, tossed him off into the street, at the same time bidding him "go home!"

Then she came back into the car and dropped languidly into her seat with a bored tilt to her face.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

His Reproof.

Somewhere in the pages of her "Book of Joys" Mrs. Lucy Fitch Perkins tells a delightful story of her New England clerical great-grandfather, who was a man of ingenuity and resources. She says:

He employed more than one device to secure wakefulness on the part of his weary congregation. Standing during the prayer was but one of many. My grandmother used to tell us with pride of an instance which occurred at a time when a new church edifice had been proposed and was under warm discussion. Great-grandfather thought this a worldly and unnecessary expense and emphasized his opinion by pausing in the midst of his sermon on a Sunday, saying impressively as he fixed the somnolent members of his congregation with a stern look: "You are talking about building a new church. It seems to me quite unnecessary since the sleepers in the old one are all sound!"

Resigned Pleasure.

"What," asked Mrs. Hammersley, "is your opinion of a woman who will pay a million dollars for the purpose of becoming the wife of a foreigner with a title?"

"I think," replied Mrs. Oldham, "she is very foolish. After one goes abroad to live one never can have the pleasure of going to Europe every summer and smuggling things in when one comes back home."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Rev. and Mrs. Bice, of London were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Kress from Saturday till over 12th. Mr. Bice assisted Rev. M. Hartley in Trinity church Sunday morning and evening. Needless say, both Trinity congregation, pleased to see them looking the picture of health, are also glad to know that Mr. Bice's new field of labor is thoroughly agreed to him.

The annual garden party under the auspices of the Presbyterian church was held on Thursday last. As usual a large crowd was present and, the evening being warm, the ice cream and lemonade booth did a flourishing business. A good program was also rendered during the evening, and the 31st Regimental Band enlivened the evening's proceedings with a program of good music.

The beautiful rain on Sunday had a long felt want, and the crops have been greatly improved in consequence. Things were beginning to look serious, and a few days more would have been disastrous to some of the farm products. The ground, however, was not so badly dried out as it would suppose, much moisture from the early spring rains being retained. Crops, generally, are good.

Mrs. Newton was given a happy evening, and what a glad surprise on Friday evening last, it being her last night of rehearsal with the choir, before leaving town. The members of the choir had planned a pleasant surprise by having a supper and practise, at which Mr. Bell made very able speech, testifying of Mrs. Newton's talent as a musician and of her great assistance to the church, and help in the services. The church, he also touchingly referred to the talent being cheerfully given to the sick and suffering in his own home. The passing away of his loved ones had brightened by her presence, she had ever been a comfort to them by the singing of beautiful hymns. He then asked her to accept a purse of money, presented by Miss MacKenzie, as a token of their esteem, and love. Mrs. Newton made a suitable reply, saying she took no credit to herself, her talent, God had given it to her in the gloryland, she wished to store it to Him, polished and brightened, by using it to the best of her ability for Him and dear service. She was thankful to be able to help them as a church and the church she loved so well, and her parting message was faithful, and do your very best. Thanking them most heartily for their thoughtfulness, she bid them a fond adieu. Mr. Wright, Mr. Search and Mr. Grant McCulloch also made fitting reference to Mrs. Newton's work, and their appreciation of it. The singing of "God With You Till We Meet Again" closed a very happy evening. The purse amounted to two dollars.
