

THE DURHAM CHRONICLE

W. IRWIN, Editor and Proprietor.

DURHAM, JULY 21, 1910.

Traverston.

Haying is on hot and hasty this week. It is turning out better than anticipated.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hudson, of Manitoba, are the guests of the former's sister, Mrs. J.J. Peart.

Zionites are arranging for their annual garden party this week, but the date is not yet fixed. It promises to be the biggest ever.

Mr. and Mrs. John Chard, of Markdale suburbs, were guests of Councillor McNally the first of the week.

Mrs. Piercey and little daughter, Eva, of Grand Rapids, are holidaying at the home of Mr. Wm. McNally, on the 6th.

Mrs. David McFarlane, Misses Jessie and Marjorie of Hamilton, left on Tuesday, after spending a week at the old Edwards home.

Miss Lou Reynolds, who spent her girlhood days at the Falls, but who has been nurse in the Arden Home for Aged Ladies, Detroit, for the past four years, is spending some time among old schoolmates and associates.

The brick walls of R. Martin's home are rising fast under the deft hands of Mr. Hector McLean and his co-workers from Priceville. The contract for the woodwork is let to Mr. Walter Middleton, and that is a guarantee of good workmanship.

Trustee Boards are beginning to wonder where all the teachers are gone that the Normal schools were to send out by the hundreds. The crowding of the curriculum with dead and foreign languages has a tendency to prolong the period of study, and lessen the knowledge of the subjects needed in practical life. There's trouble ahead.

Grey Co. Old Boy's and Girls' excursion on Saturday, brought quite a number to this vicinity. Among those of whom we heard were Miss Mary McNally, to Councillor McNally's, Misses Maggie and Lizzie Ryan, to Mr. James Ryan's; Mrs. John Delaney, to and Miss Nellie Dulan, of Toronto, and Mrs. A. Smith, and two sons Will and Tom, of Hamilton, to the home of Mr. E.W. Hunt.

The world's most successful medicine for bowel complaints is Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera, and Diarrhoea Remedy. It has relieved more pain and suffering, and saved more lives than any other medicine in use. Invaluable for children and adults. Sold by all dealers.

Priceville

Well, Mr. Editor, we thought we would jot down a few items from Priceville and surrounding country.

Mr. Norman McDougall spent Sunday with friends in Durham.

Miss Florence McKechnie, from Toronto, is spending her vacation at her home here.

Miss Louisa Watson, is home from Owen Sound, where she has been attending school.

Miss Maud Lavis, of Coburg, was the guest of Miss Florence McKechnie for the past week.

Mrs. Neil McDonald visited at Mrs. D. McKechnie's, and other friends, for the past two weeks.

Miss Jane Wright had the misfortune of breaking her arm last week, through defects of the old walks.

Mr. Moore is making very good progress with the sidewalks here. They intend laying the cement the first of this week.

The usual weekly union prayer meeting is to be held in the Methodist church on Wednesday at 8 o'clock. All invited to attend.

Crops in general are looking very good, and by recent reports we may expect fairly good crops throughout Ontario.

As we look around and see all the farmers with that glad smile, we can readily understand that the recent rains were very acceptable.

We hear that the recent storms have caused some damage through the surrounding country. Mr. Walkup's barn was struck on Friday night, and burned to the ground.

Rev. Mr. Matheson and family leave on their holidays this Tuesday morning. Rev. Mr. Thom, formerly of Flesherton, will have charge of the congregation for the following two Sabbaths, when we will have reunion services, conducted by Rev. Mr. Berry, of this place.

It is our sad duty to chronicle the death of one of the old residents of this village, in the person of Mr. Wm. Watson, at the age of 57 years, 9 months. The funeral service was held in the Methodist church, after which the remains were taken to their last resting place at Salem.

THE ORANGEMEN AT CHURCH

On Sunday morning July 11th the Orangemen in a body marched to the Presbyterian Church for public worship. Notwithstanding the welcome rain a large number of the order formed in the line of procession. Scarcely had the band ceased playing "Pull for the Shore" when the organ pealed forth the strains of "Onward Christian Soldiers" the martial spirit of which welcomed them to their places in church. The opening praise selection was Luther's Psalm, "God is our Refuge and our Strength." This was followed by "Sing to the Lord in joyful strains" "Ye Gates lift up your joyful heads on high" and "Nearer my God to Thee." The choir sang an inspiring anthem before the sermon and Mrs. A. W. H. Lauder gave a suitable solo at its close.

The subject for the day was from the words "If ye continue in my word then are ye my disciples indeed, and ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free." Dr. Farquharson in addressing the Order reminded them that the great mission they were to discharge was to secure the freedom that makes free. This was written in their constitution, emphasized in the circumstances that gave their order its birth and proclaimed in the character of the great leader whose name they bore. He briefly sketched the circumstances that in 1795 led to their organization and the mission they filled during that period of stress and strain. He recalled the work done by the Protestants of Ireland a century earlier in holding Londonderry, and their part in the final defeat of James at the battle of the Boyne. He reminded them that however important such services were the purpose of their continued existence was not to call to mind the defeat of their enemies but to realize fully the true spirit of loyalty and brotherhood for which they were linked together. Nowhere was that spirit better set forth than in the character of that William who had made the name of Orange the pledge of truth and honour to the world. The sphere of his activity was the Netherlands and the time of his struggles was, in round numbers a hundred years before the battle of the Boyne. His death took place three years before the defeat of the Armada, so that the Spain he wrestled with was the grim monster that awakened all the sense of pain and indignation that in that early day burned in the English bosom. The battle he waged was not for a creed or form of church government, but for the fundamental rights of humanity. During the early part of his struggles he was a devout Roman Catholic, and the later he joined the reformed church the passion that stirred his soul was not ill-will to Catholics but hatred of falsehood and oppression. He fought against the tyranny of the Inquisition and was one of the first of the great leaders who adopted the policy that Protestants and Catholics alike should have the right to worship God according to the dictates of their consciences. In this way he won the confidence of men of every creed, and so it came about that the William who fought at the Boyne had in his army not only the stalwart Protestants but also a number of Roman Catholics from the Netherlands who were among his most loyal supporters. Thus true freedom is based on truth, cemented with love and inspired by faith in the living God. If Orangemen are to be worthy of their name and the high mission committed to them they must show themselves to be men. The first William had followers who praised him and were ready to drink themselves drunk in his honor, but they were little strength to his cause. The men who triumph in this warfare must be sober and vigilant. They must speak the truth and honor it in their lives. We need men to-day who will study the Bible and teach its principles to their children. The churches look to the men of

WORLD'S DEBT TO CANADA

A Wonderful Achievement

Discovery of "Fruit-a-tives" has meant health for all

Canada's fame does not rest solely on her furs and wheat fields. Her rise in the esteem of the world is not due to her Cobalt mines. It is the work of her great men that has made her great. A graduate of McGill University has won lasting renown for his original researches in the realms of Physics.

Everyone knows that fruit is wholesome, when eaten judiciously. Physicians generally recognize the fact that fruit juices have a beneficial effect on the various organs of the body.

It remained for a Canadian physician to discover a process whereby the medicinal action of fruit could be so increased as to make the intensified juices a wonderful cure.

"Fruit-a-tives" is this combination of fruit juices and tonics. Since its introduction to the public, "Fruit-a-tives" has met with a success accorded to no other medicine in the world. The reason is plain. "Fruit-a-tives" is the one remedy that is actually made of fruit, and is the only remedy that naturally cures Constipation, Biliousness, Indigestion, Headaches, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Backache, Kidney and Skin Troubles. At all dealers at 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, or trial size, 25c., or from Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

Orange for help in the battle they are waging and need the presence of every man in all the fifty-two Sundays that are in the year after this one is past. It is men who are true men who love their fellows, men of largeness of mind and heart who are the hope of the church, the bond of loyalty in the nation, and the pledge of peace and goodwill. The preacher closed with the prayer that the Orange body might prove themselves worthy of the mission committed to them.
