Varney.

A good number from Varney attended the Knox garden party on Tuesday night of last week, and enjoyed themselves very much.

Miss Jennie Allen, from Toronto, came home on Saturday night, July 31st, to be present at our picnic. We were all glad to see her again.

The Varney picnic is a thing of the past again. It was held on Monday, August 1st, in Blyth's bush, and was a grand success.

A very severe thunder storm passed over this locality on Wednesday evening, and about half past five, lightning struck Mr. F. Ball's house, coming down the chimney, tearing the plaster off, and knocking the pictures off the wall.

When she saw her husband lying on the floor, as she thought, dead. She ran out and called for the neighbors; then she thought she would try some cold water, and after bathing and rubbing for nearly half an hour, he came too, but he was very badly shocked.

Mrs. T. Cowan and baby, and Frankie Burnett, from your town, and Miss Pauline Cowan and Miss Florence Wilson, from London, visited on Friday at the former's aunt's, Mrs. J. W. Blyth. The latter two remained over night and attended the garden party at Mr. James Tucker's.

Mrs. Grant, sr., who has been so very sick with pneumonia, is, we are glad to say, getting better. Mrs. G. is an old lady of 82 years, and a disease of the above kind is very hard on an old person.

The garden party held at the home of Mr. James Tucker on Friday night last was well attended from our burg, and all were well pleased that they had gone.

The Womens' Institute of the Durham branch met at the home of Mrs. R. J. Allen on Thursday last, and there was a goodly number present. They had a very pleasant and profitable time.

Mrs. Robinson, and daughter, Dorothy, from Toronto, visited for the week or so with the former's brothers, R. J. and Nelson Eden. Mrs. R. was formerly Miss Hattie Eden.

Rev. Mr. Deller conducted his first sacramental service in Varney on Sunday last. His subject for next Sunday will be "The Fatherhood of God," and on the following Sunday he will conduct a flower children's service, when the church will be decorated for the occasion, and the children take part.

Cam. Lauder, from Hanover, came home on Saturday, and spent Sunday at the parental home.

Miss May Pollock has been spending a few weeks' holidays with her parents here.
