THE MAN FROM BRODNEY'S

lets whistled gay accompaniments to the ceaseless song: "Allah is great! Allah is good!"
No man in the despised house of Taswell Skagga slept that night. The guard was doubled at all points open to attack. At 2 in the morning Deppingham, Browne and Chase came up from the walls for coffee and an hour's rest. They were wet and cold. They had heard Rasula's minions shouting derisively all night long: "Where is the warship? Where is the warship?"
"It will come. I am positive," said Chase, insistent in spite of his dejection. They drank their coffee in silence. He knew that the others, including the native who served them, were regarding him with the pity that one extends to the vainglorious braggart who goes down with flying colors.
He went out upon the west gallery and, utterly fagged, threw himself into an unexposed chair and stared through tired eyes into the inscrutable night that hid the sea from view—the faithless, moaning, jeering sea!

A shout arose to his lips, but he lacked the power to give it voice.
When he aroused himself with a start the gray, drizzly dawn was upon him. He had slept.
The next instant he was on his feet, clutching the stone balustrade with a grip of iron, his eyes starting from his head. A shout arose to his lips, but he lacked the power to give it voice. A faint smile grew in his face. His eyes were bright and full of triumph. After a full minute of preparation he made his way toward the breakfast room outwardly as calm as a May morning.
Browne and Deppingham were asleep in the chairs. He shook them vigorously. As they awoke he said in the coolest, most matter of fact way: "There's an American cruiser outside the harbor. Get up!"

BABY'S TERRIBLE ECZEMA.

Hand Tied to Prevent Scratching Five Doctors Failed to Relieve, but Zam-Buk Worked a Cure
Mrs. Chas. Levere, of Prescott, North Channel, Ont., tells how Zam-Buk cured her baby. She says:—"My baby's head and face was a complete mass of sores. The itching and irritation were fearful, and the little one's plights was so serious that at one time we feared her ears would be eaten off by the disease.
"We had to keep her hands tied for days to prevent her rubbing and scratching the sores. Doctor after doctor treated her in vain, until we had had five doctors. They all agreed it was a frightful case of eczema, but none of them did any permanent good.
"As a last resource we were advised to try Zam-Buk. The first box did so much good that we felt sure we were at last working in the right direction. We persevered with the treatment until we had used thirteen boxes, and at the end of that time I am glad to say Zam-Buk had effected a complete cure."
Mr. Holmes, of 30 Guise Street, Hamilton, is quite as eloquent in her praise. She says:—"Zam-Buk cured my boy of boils and eruptions when he was so bad that he had been unable to mix with other children. Zam-Buk is a wonderful preparation, and mothers throughout the land should always keep it handy."
For eczema, eruptions, rashes, tetter, itch, ringworm, and other similar skin diseases, Zam-Buk is without equal. It also cures cuts, burns, scalds, piles, abscesses, chronic sores, blood poisoning, etc. All druggists and stores at 50c. a box, or post free for price from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto. Refuse imitations.

Bleached flour sacks can be easily machine hemmed and make good dish towels. Also if hemmed stitched make nice table pieces for use under plates. They launder nicely and easily.

The things most in evidence in any home are the woodwork, furniture and floors. If these things look old, shabby, or out of date, the home can not be modern. Apply a coat of Wood-Lac its interesting, and fascinating and the expense is trifling. A. S. Hunter has a stock, and will gladly explain its merits.

Fall Millinery Opening! Friday and Saturday, Sept. 16 and 17

AND FOLLOWING DAYS

We cordially invite you to attend our Millinery display. We solicit a continuance of your consideration and assure you of our best efforts to please you in Millinery. We are now in a position to give you better values than ever before and have made strenuous efforts to make this season a banner one. A special invitation is extended to all out of town visitors to call and see our display, whether interested in Millinery or not. Hoping to greet you this fall.

For bowel complaints in children always give Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and castor oil. It is certain to effect a cure, and when reduced with water and sweetened is pleasant to take. No physician can prescribe a better remedy. For sale by Gun's Drug Store.

CRUELTY TO ANIMALS.

William Boyd, a cattle-shipper, brought a charge of cruelty to animals against the Canadian Pacific Company. He says that on last Thursday he despatched a car load of thirty cattle to Flesherton. The sixty odd miles took nearly forty-eight hours to accomplish, and all this time the cattle had no food and no drink. The cattle were exhausted by the neglect that on their arrival at Flesherton they were so weak they could do nothing but lie down. Constable Craig, the officer of the cattle yards, laid the complaint. The case stands adjourned for a week.—Toronto News.

As usually treated, a sprained ankle will disable a man for three or four weeks,
