Swinton Park.

Mrs. John Aldcorn was the guest of Howick friends for a fortnight. Miss Ethel Campbell returned to Toronto after spending her holidays with her parents here.

Miss Margaret Knox left for Ottawa Friday morning. Miss Knox will attend the Normal School there.

Rev. Mr. Matheson was a welcome caller in our burg Wednesday.

Mr. Geo. Watson has been somewhat indisposed for the last week or so. We hope to hear of his speedy recovery.

Mrs. Brown, British Columbia, left for her home on Thursday last after visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hannam, and other friends in the vicinity.

Miss Thompson is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Black.

Sunday was Children's Day in St. Andrew's church. The service was taken by Rev. Mr. Matheson, and Mr. Moore, from Priceville. The church was nicely decorated for the occasion.

Willie Aldcorn, who has been un- the doctor's care for the past few days, is improving nicely.

Darkies' Corners.

Crowded out last week. Mr. Fred Ritchie, of Arthur, spent a few days last week at the parental home.

Mr. Walter Ball, of Mt. Forest, spent over Sunday the guest of the Staples family.

On Wednesday night of last week, while Mr. Clifford Howell was wheeling toward town, he had the misfortune to get thrown from his bicycle and receive a nasty gash in the back of his head, which required medical attention. Cliff, accompanied by John Weir, was apparently traveling at pretty high speed along Lambton street, and turned off to the side of the road a short distance east of Thos. McGirr's residence, to pass a buggy, driven by Allan Bell, of town, and in doing so, must have struck a stone, and lost his balance, resulting as above. Dr. Brad Jamieson was hurried to the scene in his automobile, and conveyed the injured boy to his office, where, with the aid of Dr. Hutton, the wound was dressed, and the patient taken to the home of Mr. Thos. Ritchie, Edge Hill, where he has been employed for some time past. The wheel was damaged and the back forks badly bent. However, we are pleased to know that "Cliff" is doing nicely, and will soon be all right again.

Mrs. John Hewitt, accompanied by Mrs. Geo. Ryan, sr., of town, spent a week or so, the guest of the former's sister, Mrs. Eliza Hazelgrove, and other friends, in London, Ont.

Miss Bella Grierson, of Aberdeen, who has been in the employ of Mr. Wm. Smith for a considerable length of time, returned to her home recently. We have reason to believe that her departure from the Corners is preparatory to some happy event. Her place is being filled by her sister, Miss Lizzie Grierson.

Messrs. Herbert Dunsmore and R.J. Hewitt made a business trip to Hanover one day last week.

We had the pleasure of attending the I.O.F. concert in the town hall on Friday night last, and enjoyed ourselves to the limit. The talented employed was of the highest class and was not at all stingy in rendering score selections, each number on the program being endorsed with the echo. A full house listened with interest. The Independent Order of Foresters are to be congratulated on the grand program they put up.

Miss Nellie Collier called on friends in this burg one day recently.

We wish to offer our hearty congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. T.C. Ritchie, whose marriage took place on Tuesday, Sept. 20th. The happy young couple will reside in Markdale.

It is not the quantity of food taken but the amount digested and assimilated that gives strength and vitality to the system. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets invigorate the stomach and enable them to perform their functions naturally. For sale at Gun's Drug Store.

HE REAPED WHAT HE SOWED. Harken to the story of Gilford Copeland and his pocket book. Mr. Copeland is a farmer on the Base Line, Base Line Township, and is a son of John Copeland, of St. Marys. While plowing the other day, he dropped his wallet, containing $29.50. As he looked over the field, plowed with a sulkey plow, the possibility of finding that purse seemed worse than that of finding the proverbial needle in the haystack. After sitting on the plow handles for three full minutes of hard thinking, Mr. Copeland sprang up and unhitched his team, re-hitching them to a single furrow plow, he commenced to undo his forenoon's work. He cramped after that plow diligently and faithfully for fourteen rounds of a 40-rod field, and finally his reward presented itself in the shape of the much looked for wallet, padded to the gills with bills. This has exemplified the old saying, "A man shall reap what he hath sown."—Flesherton Advance.

As usually treated, a sprained ankle will disable a man for three or four weeks, but by applying Chamberlain's Liniment freely as soon as the injury is received, and observing the directions with each bottle, a cure can be effected in from two to four days. For sale by Gun's Drug Store.

Biyth's Corners.

Well, Mr. Editor, we have become somewhat sidetracked lately, but in justice to ourselves, we might say that a budget was written a fortnight ago, but we failed to get it posted, and, of course, like the heavenly manna, it won't keep long.

Most of the farmers around this locality have finished their fall wheat seeding. Not in a long time have we seen so much wheat being so late put in, and, coupled with the cool and somewhat dry weather, it has a poor chance to get much of a top on before the winter sets in. We presume it is the excellent price being paid for wheat the past couple of years that is drawing the farmers out.

Arbitrators have been appointed for Friday next, to try and settle a dispute arising out of the draining of one farm, or farms, the overflow of water from the same having flowed for all time in the past onto another lot, where it sinks rapidly away, causing the neighbor to delay to the owner. We are sincerely hoping that a settlement can be arranged, but would not be altogether surprised if it should end up in a "free fight or a footrace."

Mr. Donald McIlvride had a few of his neighbors last week helping him to draw tile from Carlsruhe, about 7000 in number, varying in size from six inch to three, and finished drawing on Saturday last. A hard, laborious job it was on horses.

Mrs. Wm. Cameron, formerly Miss Janet Moffatt, of Rainy River, was a welcome visitor with her mother, and brother Robert, and other old acquaintances for a couple of weeks, and returned home again last week. It is nineteen years since she last saw old Nonny, and needless to say, she felt somewhat like a pilgrim in a strange land.

We attended the anniversary service in the Varney Methodist church on Sunday last, and had the pleasure, and we hope the profit of listening to, we will venture to say, one of the most soul stirring sermons ever delivered in that church. Rev. Mr. Little is a most intensely effective preacher, and was listened to throughout with rapt attention, many in the crowded house being visibly affected at times by his earnest and loving appeal to a greater degree of humility, conservation and devotion in the service of the Master.

THIS WEEK'S BUDGET. The arbitrators appointed to settle the dispute regarding the draining of some low-lying lands into our neighbor's field, where it has always flowed, to which we referred to briefly in our last week's budget, met on Friday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, and after a few hours of friendly reasoning, a mutual agreement was arranged, which we are sure, will be satisfactory to all concerned, which is as follows:

Messrs. Andrew Stewart, John Sharp and Geo. Seim, dig the top half of ditch. D. McIlvride digs the bottom three feet, and the reeve, Mr. Schenk, representing the county, pays for the tile. The difficulty arising out of the dispute at one time, seemed to be a hard nut to crack, and the friendly way in which it was settled speaks well for the Christian spirit they each and all manifested.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Thos Reay was buried in Maplewood cemetery last week.

Threshing and corn stooking is the order of the day principally, in and around the Corners.

The trustees of our school are experiencing some little trouble caused by the holder of a third class certificate applying for the vacancy without first applying through the inspector for a permit.

Mr. Wm. Allan, sr., Supt. of Knox church Sunday school, and principal elder in the same, leaves about October 1st to take charge of a mission station near Chatham. Having a personal acquaintance all our life with Mr. Allan, and that from a child he has known the scriptures, the selection is a good one, and while we deeply regret to lose him from our midst, we are sure he will be instrumental in the Master's hand of doing much good in his new field of labor.

A MUSICAL DECISION.

Orangeville has a musical critic, and one who has shown his originality by judging the excellence of a band by the distance its tone carries. He may be rural, but he is no roorbach. It seems he came to the Canadian National Exhibition chiefly to hear the Grenadier Guards' Band. With a Torontonian, he stood listening to the intermezzo from Mascagni's "Cavalleria Rusticana," in which certain parts are played pianissimo.

Turning to the urbane, he remarked, "Say, they ain't playin' that right." "Not right," his companion replied, "why, that's one of the greatest bands on earth." "It may be great," retorted the rural music critic, "but you can hear the Orangeville band three times as far."—Toronto World.

UP FOR MANSLAUGHTER.

The parents and friends of the late Miss Margaret Murray, of Detroit, who shortly after the Reunion at Lucknow, lost her life through taking tartar emetic in mistake for Rochelle salts, have appealed to the Attorney General's department to have Mr. Armstrong, the Lucknow druggist in whose store the fatal medicine was sold, prosecuted on a charge of criminal negligence. The preliminary trial was held at Dunnagannon a week ago, before Magistrate Bailie and Roberts. After the evidence was all in, the magistrates decided to reserve judgment. They have since decided to send Mr. Armstrong up for trial on a charge of manslaughter.

It will be remembered that Miss Murray, after attending the Reunion, decided to remain for a visit with an uncle living about five miles out of Lucknow, while her father and sister returned to Detroit. On a Monday she bought at Mr. Armstrong's drug store, what she supposed was Rochelle salts. She took a quantity of the medicine on Tuesday morning and died from the effect. Wednesday afternoon, August 17th, at an inquest held later it was discovered that instead of getting the medicine asked for, she had been given tartar emetic, a deadly poison. It was amply proved that this was an error on the part of the clerk who had put the medicine on the shelves. He had put the poison in a jar in which salts had been kept, and the two substances, looking somewhat alike, the mistake was not discovered.—Teeswater News.
