BLYTH'S CORNERS.

Since we wrote our last budget we have been very sick, and under the doctor's care for a couple of days with acute inflammation of the liver. When we went to consult the doctor at Holstein, the fever was only 104, and needless to say, we were glad to take to bed, but thanks to a kind Providence, we are up and around again, and are almost wholly recovered. These little afflictions are not by any means the worst thing that can overtake a fellow. They teach him, as nothing else can, what a feeble structure the human body is.

The lovely weather of the past two weeks has been put to good advantage by the farmers in this locality in getting the potatoes and other roots harvested, both of which, generally speaking, are a bumper crop.

The annual Sunday school entertainment held in Knox church, Normanby, was a great success. The night being favorable, at least to get there, an unusually large crowd assembled and enjoyed a very spicy program of songs, recitations, by the children, and speeches by the three Rev. gentlemen present, Rev. Mr. Kendall, Rev. Mr. Saver, German Methodist minister of Aytou, and Rev. Mr. Deller, Methodist minister of Varney. The Aytou Methodist choir were in attendance and greatly pleased the large audience by their excellent rendering of the various selections, while their pastor, Mr. Saver, kept the audience in convulsions of laughter by his ready wit and ability. Rev. Mr. Deller made a few complimentary remarks, and was greatly applauded on his rendering of a mouth organ selection. Miss Robson gave a fine recitation, and Miss Meade, who is a sweet singer, is always appreciated, gave a fine solo, or two, and was ably accompanied on the organ by E. S. No. 1's popular and efficient teacher, Miss Farrell. The recitations by the scholars were well given, and altogether, a most enjoyable time was spent. The managing committee are to be congratulated on the taste they displayed in importing fresh talent from various sources. It certainly was a happy move, and was greatly appreciated.

Miss Ida Hoeftin left on Wednesday last for Toronto, where she intends to remain for the winter.

OWEN SOUND.

Harry and Arthur Reid, two brothers, who came from Toronto about two months ago, were convicted of robbing Wm. Nichol of a small sum of money. Arthur had previously been sentenced four times, and Henry eight times on assaults and robberies.

The Radial Railway line from Guelph may be a Eve subject of discussion before long. Guelph is taking stock to the extent of $85,000. It is coming north to Elora, Fergus and Arthur within a couple of years, and it aims at coming through Mt. Forest to Owen Sound.

While passing up Lake Huron, the steamer Huronic, saw floating wreckage from the New York, founded on its way to Owen S. Chairs, planks, bedding and other wreckage of all kinds, was floating on the water.

Timothy Mitchell, who was fined for obstructing the license inspector, or lost his appeal to the higher court. Mitchell, some time ago, pressed a button when Inspector Beckett appeared, and was fined $100. His appeal against the decision was dismissed by Mr. Justice Latchford, who was satisfied that there was a breach of the law.

In the police court Monday several fines of $2 and costs and upward were imposed on citizens who were proved "drunk and disorderly."

Mrs. James Armstrong died on Tuesday last at her home on Alpha Street. She was 45 years of age, and death was the result of tubercular trouble.

Mr. Johnston, Mr. Shaw's father-in-law, with whom Mr. Shaw was living, had his leg broken, and sustained other injuries by being thrown from a wagon a few months ago. Next, Mr. Shaw injured his back at the chair factory, and blood poisoning developed, and the case was critical for a time. Last week, Mr. Shaw's young son died from diphtheria.

Percy Collard, the ten-year-old son of Mr. John Collard, was struck in the eye with an apple, and may lose his sight.

RHEUMATISM CURED

Zam-Buk Will Give You Relief.

When you have any deep-seated pain in the joints, the back, the wrists or elsewhere, place a liberal supply of Zam-Buk on the fingers or on the palm of the hand and rub it in. The penetrating power of this "emero-cation balm" is very great. It kills pain and removes stiffness. Mrs. Frances Wyatt, of 25 Guy Avenue, Montreal, says: "I have found Zam-Buk most soothing and valuable in a very bad case of rheumatism, and also for stiffness of joints and muscles. I suffered long and acutely from rheumatism, and tried one liniment after another in vain. I also took medicines internally, but it remained for Zam-Buk to effect a cure. I began applying this balm whenever I felt the aches and pains of rheumatism coming on, or felt any of the stiffness. The result was truly wonderful. Zam-Buk seemed to penetrate to the very seat of the pains, driving them completely out, and I am now quite cured."

So many of the ordinary embro-cations and liniments are imperfectly prepared and not sufficiently refined to penetrate even the skin—much less the underlying muscles. Zam-Buk is totally different. Zam-Buk is so refined and its essences and juices are so concentrated, that when rubbed into the muscles for rheumatism, sciatica, sprain, etc., its effect is very quickly felt.

If rubbed onto the chest, and between the shoulders in cases of bad cold on the chest, Zam-Buk will give relief. Apart from its use as an embro-cation, Zam-Buk will be found a cure for all ordinary forms of skin disease and injury. It cures eczema, rashes, ringworm, cold sores, ulcers, abscesses, chapped hands, piles, varicose veins, cuts, burns, bruises, etc. All druggists and stores at 50c., or post free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price. Refuse harmful imitations.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Henderson also attended the Harvest Home. This neighborhood was shocked when it was spread about that Mabel Young was dead, had died very suddenly. She was almost fourteen years of age. Great sympathy is felt for the parents in their sudden bereavement.

DARKIES CORNERS.

Born.—To Mr. and Mrs. David Davis, a daughter. Mother and babe doing well. Congratulations. Since our last report went in, Mrs. Adam Watson has taken a change for the worse, and has been bedfast since Tuesday of last week. We regret very much to say that she is seriously ill, but hope that through a kind Providence she may yet be granted a complete recovery.

Married.—On Wednesday, Oct. 19th, at the Methodist church, Durham, by Rev. Mr. Wright, Mr. Bert. Hanforth to Miss Kate McNally, of Lambton St. They left after the ceremony for their home in Toronto. We extend our hearty congratulations to the happy couple.

Mr. Jas. Wilson is making preparations to put in a Bell telephone in his residence, and has made arrangements with the town electric and maintain a line to the corporation limits. Mr. Wilson to erect the line from there to his dwelling. He has some of the poles already on the ground, and the holes are nearly all dug. Mr. Wilson will no doubt find it convenient, and is to be congratulated on his new venture, as it may prove to be the first step towards a rural telephone system.

We are in receipt of a clipping from the Bracebridge Gazette, giving a full account of the boiler explosion in Muskoka, by which a brother of Mrs. Wm. Noble lost his life, and his father and other brother were seriously injured. We are pleased to know that the injured ones are doing nicely. The following is the account: "On Friday October 7th, Mr. August Brieze and his two sons Otto and Frederick were busy in their mill at Frederick House. Everything was working smoothly. The boilers had been inspected only a few days before and pronounced all right. Fred was lacing a belt, when he heard his brother Otto go down and open the furnace door. A terrific explosion immediately followed by which all three were terribly injured. Otto was found forty feet away with arms and legs broken and other terrible wounds. The unfortunate man only lived two hours. Mr. August Brieze was blown through the fly-wheel, and very badly injured, but with fair chance of recovery. He is in a hospital. Fred was brought down to Ullswater on Saturday. The body of Otto was brought down to Ullswater and buried on Sunday. The funeral was the largest ever seen in that part of Muskoka. It was hard to realize this vigorous young man of 23 years could be so suddenly cut down.

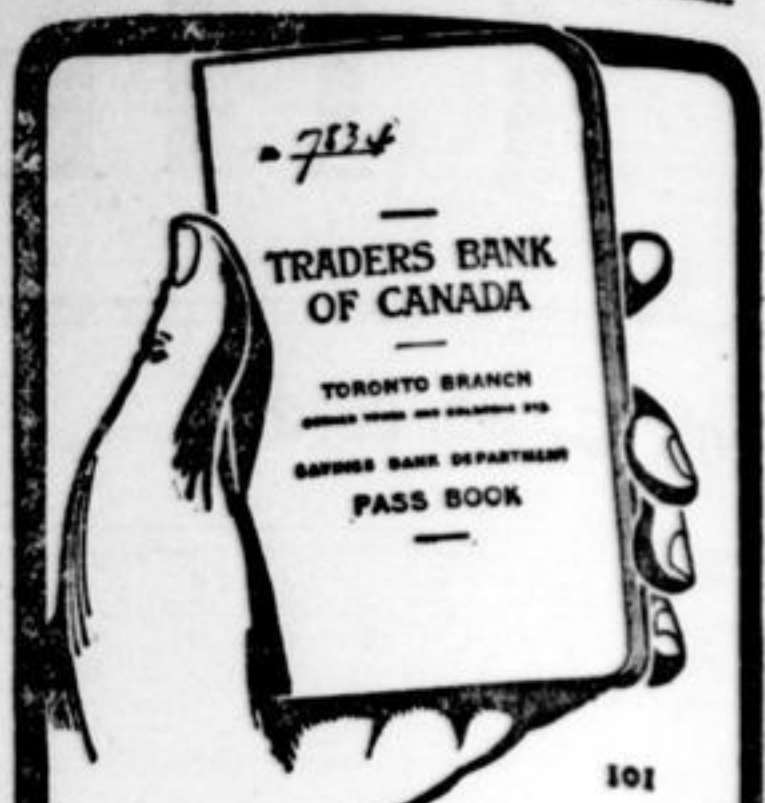

The bereaved family are among the best known and highly respected in Muskoka. For many years they operated a mill at Ullswater where they built up a splendid business. They were all men of ability and integrity. Yet misfortune more than their share seems to have come to them. One son, who had assumed almost the chief management, died a few years ago. Some time afterwards their mill was burned, causing a great loss. When about to rebuild their firm was blown up, the author of this dastardly act having probably fired the mill. They then turned their attention to the Temiscaming district where the sons had already located farms. They erected the present mill at Frederick House, on the T. & N. O., and were very busy supplying building material for that neighborhood.

In Bracebridge, where the family are well known, the calamity caused intense sorrow. A correspondent writes in part: "Yesterday was a day of mourning for the whole district, where our dead friend was so well and favorably known, bright and strong in his early manhood, with a bright future before him in his new home, a true friend and comrade, always light hearted. We mourn his loss, and extend to the bereaved friends the heartfelt sympathy of the community. Homes were deserted yesterday that people might pay their last respects to the dead, and show their sympathy to his parents and friends. The brethren of Three Mile Lake L.O.L. attended in a body, and assisted in the funeral service. The I.O.F. were also well represented, the young man being a member of both Lodges. With the casket draped with the Union Jack, and almost covered by floral offerings, it was borne on a funeral car to the Ullswater church, where the last sad rites of both church and lodge were performed by Rev. Mr. Frost and his brethren of the Orange Lodge.

Words are poor things, at best, to express the feelings, but the presence of so many speak more truly of the respect and sympathy felt and extended to the bereaved family. A number from Bracebridge, Utterson, Windermere, and other points were present.
