A team of horses belonging to Mr. John Arnott, of Osprey, took fright in one of the sheds last week, and after upsetting the driver and rig, broke away, and had a lively run out of town before being captured. Only slight damage to harness and democrat was done.

Appropriate Thanksgiving services were held in the churches here on Sunday, which have taken the place of the former week day union service. Dr. Fred Murray of Toronto, assisted the Methodist choir and joined his brother in an excellently rendered duet in the evening. Mr. Spence, who ably filled the Presbyterian pulpit, will preach again next Sabbath.

Among the Thanksgiving holiday visitors were Dr. Fred Murray, of Toronto, at Dr. E. C. Murray's; Mr. G. B. Weldon, Toronto, at the Munshaw House; Mr. and Mrs. F.W. Heckling, at W. A. The residence of Mr. Henry Holman, 4th line, was the scene of a pleasant event Wednesday evening of last week, when about thirty of the members and friends of Dale-side Union Sunday school assembly and presented Mr. and Mrs. F.W. Nicholson, who will soon move from the community, with a hand some mantle clock, accompanied by an appropriate address, read by Miss Flossie Simmons. The presentation was made by Miss Maggie Simmons, and Miss Millie Fisher. Mr. and Mrs. Nicholson were genuinely surprised, but the former fittingly replied, expressing appreciation of the gift, and the kindly sentiments of the address. Mr. Nicholson, who has been superintendent of the Sunday school for fifteen years, and Mrs. Nicholson an efficient teacher, will be greatly missed in the school and neighborhood. Refreshments were served, and the evening was enjoyably spent with music, etc.

The Methodist Ladies' Aid held a social at the parsonage on Friday evening last, and notwithstanding the unfavorable weather there was a fairly good attendance. After refreshments, Mr. M. K. Richardson was called on to preside, and a pleasing program was rendered.

MURPHY-BENSON.

The residence of Mr. J.W. Benson 8th con., Armesia, was the scene of a happy event at 6.30 o'clock on Wednesday evening, Oct. 26th, when his daughter Ida became the bride of Mr. Samuel Murphy, of Singhampton, the ceremony being performed in the presence of over thirty guests, by Rev. H.E. Wellwood, B.D., of this place. After the wedding supper, the evening was enjoyably spent. The wedding presents were numerous and costly. Mr. and Mrs. Murphy will reside at Singhampton.

SHIER-BOYCE.

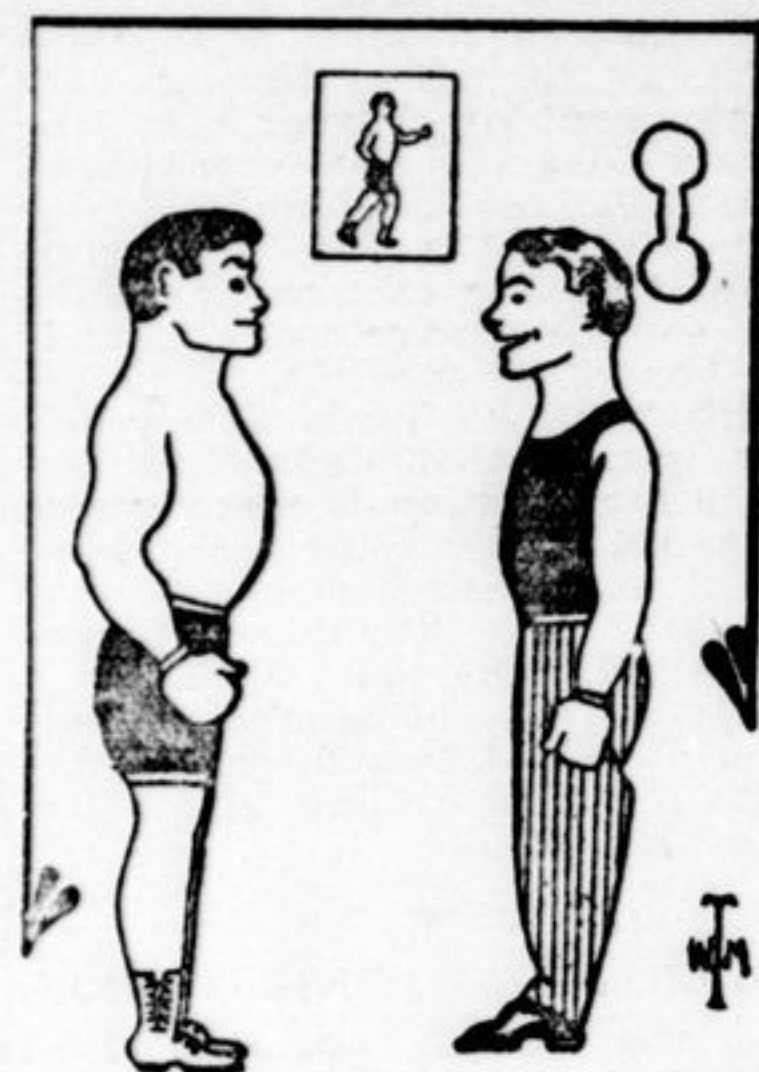

At the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Boyce, near Ceylon, an interesting event took place at 5 o'clock on Wednesday evening, Oct. 26th, when their daughter, Margaret Stella, was joined in wedlock with Mr. Samuel Herbert Shier, of Portlaw. The bride was given away by her father, and Rev. H.E. Wellwood, B.

D., conducted the marriage, in the presence of about forty guests. Miss M. Shier was bridesmaid, and Mr. Fred Wright was best man. After the ceremony, a sumptuous wedding supper was served. The young couple will reside near Portlaw. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful presents.

McTAVISH-CORNISH.

The Globe of Friday last reported the marriage of Mr. Chas. McTavish, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. McTavish, of this place, as follows: The marriage of Mr. Chas. E. McTavish to Miss Ethel Cornish, daughter of Mrs. H.M. Cornish, took place at the family residence, Palmerston avenue, on October 27th. The ceremony was conducted by the Rev. Dr. Cornish, uncle of the bride. The bride was given away by her cousin, Mr. R. A. Matheson. She wore a white satin gown, embroidered with pearls, tulle veil, and orange blossoms. She carried white roses, and wore the groom's gift, a diamond pin. Miss Mabel Cornish, her twin sister was bridesmaid. The Misses Hazel and Hilda Bertam, nieces of the bride, were flower girls. After the ceremony Mrs. Cornish held a reception, wearing black silk and lace. Dejeuner was served in the dining room. Later, Mr. and Mrs. McTavish left for Detroit, the bride travelling in a blue tailor made suit, with white beaver hat and willow plume. On their return, they will reside in Toronto, and will be at home after Nov. 15th.

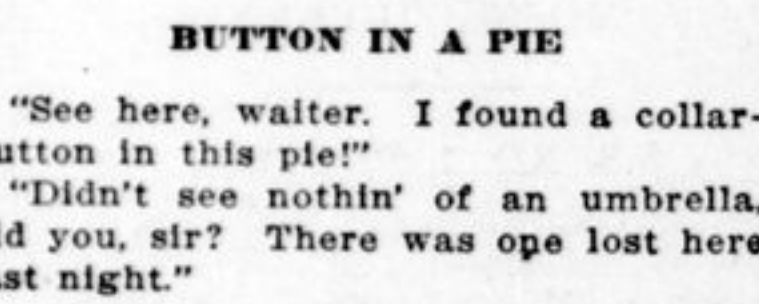

Practised at Home

The Professor—For a beginner you are good. Where did you get your preliminary training. Jones—It's this way. My wife believes in woman's suffrage, and I don't.

Mrs. Jinks—And how is that pretty young widow? Is she reconciled to her loss yet? Mrs. Binks—Well, she ain't exactly reconciled yet, but they say she has the man picked out.

"See here, waiter. I found a collar-button in this pie!" "Didn't see nothin' of an umbrella, did you, sir? There was one lost here last night."

"I tell you I won't have this room," protested the old lady to the boy in buttons who was conducting her. "I ain't a-goin' to pay my good money for a pigsty with a measly little foidin' bed in it. If you think that jest because I'm from the country."

Profoundly disgusted, the boy cut her short. "Get in, mum. Get in," he ordered. "This ain't yer room! This is the elevator."

SAVED FROM THE KNIFE

Appendicitis Cured By "Fruit-a-tives"

NEWBURGH, ONT., Feb. 12th, 1910.

"Just about a year ago, our daughter Ella (fourteen years), was taken with terrible pains in the right side. The pain was so severe that we had to carry her to bed. We at once put her under the care of a first-class doctor, who pronounced it a case of Appendicitis and advised an operation.

We took her to a hospital in Kingston where she was again examined by an eminent specialist. He said she had Appendicitis and must be operated on at once if we wanted to save her life. As we had taken her to Kingston to have this done we were ready but our daughter was afraid and cried and begged so pitifully, that we postponed it for that day. Luckily for us and for her an uncle came in with some "Fruit-a-tives" and insisted on Ella taking them. Good results were apparent almost from the first dose, and the continuous treatment cured her.

"Fruit-a-tives" saved our daughter from the surgeon's knife and to-day she is enjoying the best of health."

J. W. FOX, (Father). LILLIAN FOX, (Mother).

Words cannot express the gratitude of Mr. and Mrs. Fox. And Miss Ella will always remember "Fruit-a-tives"—the discovery of an eminent physician, and the only medicine in the world made of fruit. 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, or trial box, 25c. At dealers, or sent, postpaid, on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

HAMPDEN.

Miss Bella Holmes, of the Conservatory of Music, Toronto, and Miss Ethel Milne, Toronto, spent the last of the week at the manse.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Kinnell, of Dundalk, were in town Saturday on their way to spend Thanksgiving day with Mr. and Mrs. David Leith of Normanby.

Chief Carson is attending the High Court in Walkerton as a witness in the case of Pettigrew vs Grand Trunk Railway Co., action resulting from accidental death of the late Mr. Pettigrew.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Park drove over to Priceville recently to see their relative, Miss Mather, who was injured on the railroad crossing.

Mr. Jas. L. Anderson, of the Merchants Bank, St. George, is home on a two weeks' vacation.

Mrs. Henry Byers is visiting for two weeks at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Lyons, in Toronto. Messes Hattie Byers, Grace Henderson and Gertrude Corbett are learning the millinery and dress-making in Durham.

Messrs. Wm. Sharp and James Mather drove over to Priceville recently to visit relations.

Mr. R.H. McKay, of Walkerton, was through this neighborhood on business recently.

Mr. Landals Marshall is cementing his stables, and will have an up-to-date barn when finished.

As an account of the death and burial of the late Robt. Muir appeared in last week's Chronicle, it is unnecessary for us to say further than to join with Hampden in extending our sympathy to the bereaved relatives.

The lecture illustrated by lime-light views given by Rev. Thos. Wilson, of Walkerton, in the Presbyterian church here, on Friday night, Oct. 21st, proved very interesting and instructive, and although the weather was very unfavorable there was a fair sized audience.
