VARNEY.

Miss Elda McLaughlin spent a few days at Thanksgiving time with her grandmother at Saugeen Junction.

Miss Annie Petty, of Durham, visited last week at her uncle's, Mr. H. Wilkinson's, Annie was formerly a resident of our burg, and we were pleased to see her again.

Miss Farrell, teacher in S.S. No. 1 Normandy, spent Thanksgiving holidays at her parental home in Kenilworth.

Miss Robson, teacher, spent the Thanksgiving holidays at her parental home in Glenelg.

Rev. Mr. DeLor ate his Thanksgiving dinner in Georgetown, and remained over until Thursday. On Wednesday he conducted a wedding ceremony.

Mrs. Everit Hoy, Niagara, visited during the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. McAlister, and with her mother-in-law, Mrs. Jas. Hoy, and other friends.

R. J. Allen returned home from the West looking hale and hearty, and as if one of the North-west blizzards had struck him, as he had lost his mustache. Dick is not badly struck on the West, and thinks that it can't compare with Varney, and of course he's right.

Norman Kerr, our millman, ate his Thanksgiving dinner at his parental home in Normandy.

Max Allen, from Toronto, took advantage of the reduced rates and came home to see his mother, brothers and sisters, and other friends around the village. He returned the next day, as work was rushing.

Wilbert Eva, and Winnie Blyth spent a very pleasant evening at the home of Mr. Jas. McLaughlin last week.

Rev. Mr. DeLor took a trip to Mt. Forest on business last Friday. Cam. Lauder, of Hanover, was home again Sunday, and he and Eva Blyth visited at the home of Mr. Jas. Brown, near McWilliams.

The young people of our village conducted themselves quite respectably on Halloween. They are a pretty civil lot around Varney, anyway.

The Pinkerton family, who have been living in Varney for the past few years, moved to Durham on Tuesday of last week. We wish them success in their new home.

Miss Eleanor Leeson, of Mt. Forest, visited her brother, Geo. M. Leeson for a few days lately. We were pleased to see one of our old neighbors again.

The members of the Varney choir are busy practicing dialogues, etc. for their social on the 15th.

The severe snow storm of last Sunday morning made us have a very slim turnout at our L. O. L. church parade. We were of the opinion that the Orangemen would not let a little thing like that stop them from turning out on the 12th of July.

Miss Maud Burnett, of Durham, spent from Saturday till Monday with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. J.W. Blyth.

We are sorry to hear that Mrs. Jas. Hoy is quite sick, but we sincerely hope that she will soon be well again.

SACKETT'S CORNERS.

We have one foot of the beautiful snow in this part now, and we hear the merry jingle of the sleigh bells again.

There is considerable sickness at present. Mr. Hugh Atchison and Mrs. Malcolm McCannell being indisposed.

Mr. and Mrs. James Howitt, and baby Irene, of Toronto, visited the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Sackett. They return to the city this week.

Rev. Mr. Matheson, of Priceville, held a cottage prayer meeting at Geo. Sackett's recently, which was well attended and much enjoyed by all present.

We are informed that Swinton Park intends building a new church. We trust it will be a success, as it is much required.

Little Willie Lane, of this place, is on the sick list at present. We trust that under the skilful care of Dr. Sneath, of Dromore, he will soon recover.

Miss May Ernest, of this place, is at present engaged working at Mt. Forest.

The poor rabbits have been made considerably less of late. Wm. Sackett, and his son-in-law, J. Howitt, of Toronto, having bagged quite a number.

We are informed that Mr. Conrad Schmidt, of New England, has rented his farm to John Hill, of Boothville. Mr. Schmidt intends working at his trade of carpenter and carriage making.

There is little danger from a cold or from an attack of the grip except when followed by pneumonia, and this never happens when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is used.

in tea must be distinctive, pleasing and unvarying to merit continuous use. The flavor of Red Rose Tea is all its own; and it never fails to win and hold approval because it never fails in quality. Try it.

Another instalment of snow fell on Saturday night, 6th inst., to the depth of eight or ten inches, and quite fast, but we are looking for a couple of weeks' poughing weather; yet, whether we will be privileged to realize our expectations or not.

Hunters are out with their guns daily, and game is getting somewhat scarce.

The wintry looking weather reminds us that wood is needed in more abundance than when the thermometer was 80 or 90 above zero.

The funeral of Mrs. McGilivray, of Glenelg Centre, took place to the cemetery in this town on Sunday last, and considering the inclemency of the day, it was very well attended.

Miss Mather, who met with such an unfortunate accident lately by coming in contact with the train, is improving nicely, and considered now on the safe side of getting better.

The trustees of Top Cliff school, secured for 1911 W.L. Dixon as their teacher, although the section regrets that the young man, D. McKinnon, who taught since the holidays, had to resign on account of not having the necessary qualifications.

Barn raising is something unusual at this season of the year, yet Duncan Sinclair, of the north line had a barn raising for two days last week, and if this weather continues he may look for having it ready for the crop of 1911.

Halwoeen passed off quietly and civilly in this locality, as all the boys are composed of a sensible disposition, and estimate their life and character above committing such low, mean and unmanly pranks.

Messrs. Hector and Donald McKinnon, teachers, spent Thanksgiving with their aunt, Mrs. Walker, of Toronto.

Robt. Fisher, south line, Glenelg, spent Thanksgiving with his uncle, Mr. Chas. Fisher, of Listowel.

Miss Hutton, sister of Dr. Hutton Durham, is nurse for Miss Mather during her illness.

Otto Konold's sale ran high a week ago. D. McPhail, Auctioneer, Miss Minnie McIntyre, south line, left a few days ago for Toronto where she intends to spend the winter.

Snow still continues coming down, and on this Monday morning it looks as if we would have a large supply of it before it stops.

We hear the Harris family is getting better after their severe spell of sickness, and the death of one son, Harry, at the age of 26 years, a couple of weeks ago.

Our business men are preparing for winter needs by laying in all kinds of stuff for coming demands.

Chas. Armstrong, son of hotel-keeper Armstrong, has a tinshop for repairs of all kinds of tins, and make new ones, if required, in the shop lately occupied by shoemaker Patton.

Josephine Sutton, a six-year-old girl of 41 Front Street, Toronto, was playing with matches on Sunday afternoon, when she set fire to her clothing, and was severely burned.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as the best thing I know of, and safest remedy for coughs, colds and bronchitis, writes Mrs. L.B. Arnold, of Denver, Colo. We have used it repeatedly and it has never failed to give relief.

TRAVERSTON.

This big snowstorm is an unexpected and unwelcome visitation to most of the farmers around.

Mr. John Moffat returned to his home in Norfolk Co., last week, after spending three weeks with his sister, Mrs. Robt. Hastie.

Mr. and Mrs. L.T. Spencer were guests at our cottage for a few days recently. Life is a Jonah to bring snowstorms.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Greenwood drove down on Saturday evening to visit Mr. and Mrs. W.J. McFadden at Wilder's Lake.

Mr. Arch. McNab, and his bride, and his sister, Miss Katie, arrived home on Saturday from Man. and Sask., where they have been visiting relatives since June.

T. E. Blair had a bee on Friday last, hauling stones for his big barn foundation.

W.L. Falkingham sold a 2-year-old colt recently for $190. 'Twas a good one.

Councilor McNally graded 120 rods of his lane on Saturday, and 'twill be in shape for an auto race next spring.

Ward 4 always enjoys a visit from John Ellison, jr., but isn't so favorably impressed with the tax sheets he presents.

Many of the ratepayers of the township are getting anxious for the completion of the bridge at the Darkies Corner, and consider it would have been a much superior job if it had been erected earlier in the season.

We had the pleasure of attending the concert of the Edge Hill Sunday school on Friday evening last, and congratulate the members on its success. They are a bright crowd.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets do not sicken or gripe, and may be taken with perfect safety by the most delicate woman.

Mr. Alex. Hopkins had the misfortune of having one of his cattle killed by the train last week.

Misses Maud Cuff and Alice Donnelly spent Thanksgiving with friends in Toronto.

We are sorry to hear that Mrs. Armstrong sr. is rather under the weather lately, but hope to hear of her usual good health soon.

Miss Dollie Hopkins, Mt. Forest, spent the holidays with her mother here.

Messrs. Alex. Hopkins and Thos. Lawrence, spent a pleasant time with friends at Proton Station recently.

Mr. Jesse Wise, Vickers, spent Sunday evening with friends in this vicinity.

A very happy event took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Noble at four o'clock, Tuesday, November 1st, when their eldest daughter, Sadie Senach, was united here at hand in the holy bonds of matrimony, to Mr. John A. McGirr, Glenelg.

The bride entered, leaning on her father's arm, while the Wedding March was being sweetly played by her aunt, Mrs. Wm. Noble. Rev. Mr. Hartley, Durham, solemnly and solemnly tied the nuptial knot.

The bride looked charming in a dress of white crepe de chene, trimmed with Valenciennes lace and silk braid. She carried in her hand a bridal bouquet of white carnations and maiden fair fern.

After the hearty congratulations of all present, the guests, about seventy in number, repaired to the dining room, where a dainty dejeuner was heartily partaken of. The remainder of the evening was merrily spent in music, songs, and games of various kinds.

The bride was the recipient of numerous costly and useful gifts from the groom's friends, being a handsome gold signet bracelet. Among others, was a cheque from her father; and four rocking chairs, foretelling the comfort Mrs. McGirr intends in future to take.

The bride's travelling suit was of pearl green cloth, and picture hat to match.

Guests from a distance were Mrs. John Murray, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. John Sinclair, and Miss Mary Dixon, Dromore; Miss Amy Edge, Warton; Misses Winnie and Mary Binnie, Bussan.

Although Mrs. McGirr's winning presence will be greatly missed in our community, we hope she will not forget the old friends while mingling with the new. One and all join in wishing them a happy, prosperous matrimonial voyage.
