ADVERTISING PAYS.

Last week a young lady lost a valuable locket and chain. A traveling troupe of medicine vendors and wonder workers held forth in town. While one of the company was hypnotized, it was given out that she would answer any question that might be asked. The young lady who lost the locket was present, and asked where she might find it. The man answered that a man from Southampton had picked it up. She went home with him. This hardly satisfied the loss of the locket, which was inserted a lost ad in the Times. On Thursday the locket was returned to the Times office by a Port Elgin Lady.—Times

One fact is better than ten hearsays. Ask Doctor Burgess, Supt. Hospital for Insane, Montreal, his opinion of "The D.&L. Mental Thol Plaster. The genuine made only by Davis & Lawrence Co.

NATIONAL NICKNAMES.

An Italian resident writes, asking why the slang word "Dago," should be used with reference to persons of his race. Frankly speaking, we do not know why Italians should be referred to as "Dagoes," or why Chinese should be called "Chinks," or negroes "niggers," Englishmen "cockneys," and "Sparrows," or Irishmen "Micks," or Mexicans "greasers." — Hamilton Spectator.

A LIGHT FOR EVERY HOUSE.

In connection with the new 24-hour service of the Hydro-Electric Commission in Guelph, it is suggested that the light and heat committee consider a plan to remove all the street lights now in operation in the city, and place an electric light in front of every house in the city instead. It is under the system of lighting is in operation in the town of Orillia, and works splendidly.—Mt. Forest Confederate.

A NARROW ESCAPE.

Some of the men on the C. P. R. section gang at Cataract, had a narrow escape from electrocution at Kelly's crossing, on the 2nd line, west Caledon, last Saturday. The Railway Commission, it appears, requires all wires crossing a railway track to be at least 25 feet above the rails. The men threw a measuring tape, containing a strand of steel, over the Cataract Electric Co.'s transmission line to ascertain if it was the required height above the track. Sectionman Kelly caught the wire and got a shock that rendered him unconscious. Foreman Knight fared similarly, and the two men would probably have been killed, only for the presence of mind of a man named Cox, who grabbed a pickaxe, and released them by breaking the tape. Their hands were badly burned.—Erin Advocate.

If taken in time, "The D. & L." Emulsion will surely cure the most serious affections of the lungs. That "run-down" condition, the after effects of a heavy cold, is quickly counteracted.

SAUGREEN VALLEY.

Miss Vina McNab, who has been visiting her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. T. Harrison, of Egremont, has come back to our burg, hale and hearty.

Miss Bessie Davis is engaged leaving dress-making in town. Mr. Adam Anderson, of the 4th line, has taken Mr. David McAuliffe's farm on shares for the coming season.

Mr. Geo. Arnett was engaged working on the Saugreen bridge. Mr. Jas. P. McGilvray, accompanied by Miss Mary Binnie, spent an evening last week at Mr. Donald McFarlane's.

Mr. Geo. Binnie left Monday last for Scotland, where he will act as Immigration Agent for the Dominion Government.

Miss Annie McGillivray, of this burg, who left about two months ago for Toronto, has been taken seriously ill. We hope for her recovery.

The town of Gal is protesting against the running of the Grand Valley Railway cars within the limits of the corporation on Sundays, contrary to their agreement, and trouble is likely to come out of the affair. The Lord's Day Alliance has taken up the matter.

VICKERS.

Mr. and Mrs. W.G. McCulloch and family spent Sunday last with relatives in Glenelg.

Mr. Frank Vickers, of Renfrew, visited his parents recently. Mr. Grat. Wise, we are pleased to say, is better again, and able to do a little work.

Quite a lot of sickness in the neighborhood. Mr. and Mrs. John Torry have returned to their home in Southampton.

Mr. Alex. Aljoe, of Glenelg, was the guest of Mr. D. Donnelly Sunday. Married.—On December 7th, 1910, at the residence of the bride's parents, Rev. A.D. and Mrs. McDonald, Miss Elsie Jean to Mr. James Wesley Hunt, Edmonton, youngest son of the late Wm. Hunt.

Mr. Thos. Kennedy was in Walkerton one day last week.

"I had been troubled with constipation for two years, and tried all of the best physicians in Bristol, Tenn., and they could do nothing for me," writes Thos. E. Williams, Middleboro, Ky. "Two packages of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets cured me." For sale by Gun's Drug Store.

TRAVERTON.

Mr. T.E. Blair had two big piles of logs that he thought would keep the sawing machine two solid days, but Mr. Wm. Ritchie converted them into wood in less than a day and a half.

Mrs. J.J. Peart, and Master Ora left on Tuesday to visit the home of her brother-in-law, Mr. H. Metcalfe, at Hanover.

Miss Jessie Peters leaves on Friday of this week for Bramford, where she purposes to remain for the winter. She and her sibs have had a strenuous summer's work, owing to the building of the fine new home.

The old home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Cook was enlivened by the presence of a jolly group from the south, on Thursday evening of last week. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lawrence, Mr. and Mrs. James Matthews, and Mr. and Mrs. W.J. McFadden comprised the party.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Jack left for Brantford on Monday, and after spending a couple of days with Mr. and Mrs. Sam Jack, will come back to Guelph to take in the Pat Stock show.

Messrs. Pat and Jimmy Ryan are at the old home at present, having dissolved partnership with their uncle, Mr. Jas. Kelly, of the Revere House, Markdale. There is a report of them about to go into business in Kincardine.

Mrs. Hoeg, of near Butte, Montana, has been spending some weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Anderson. Her husband will join her here for the Christmas season. This ten years since Mrs. Hoeg went West, and she looks younger than when she went away.

The best sleighing of the season is now on, and many are taking advantage of it after dark, as well as during the day time. Results later on.

One of the most commendable things for the living to do is to keep the resting places of their departed kindred neat and trim, and the marble or granite monument vertical, and the lines legible. We noticed the thoughtfulness of Mr. Geo. Lamb in this respect. The family plot in Zion had become somewhat out of repair, and he had it fixed, the names had become somewhat blurred, and he engaged Mr. Alex. Smith, of Thornbury, to re-letter them. 'Twas an act of thoughtfulness, and worthy of imitation. By the way, Mr. Lamb is a shrewd in business as he is thoughtful. His real estate deal in Durham this autumn bids fair to be one of the most paying investments made in the old town for many a long day.

Though municipal matters seem very quiet, we predict a lively contest for the township's chairs of office, ere election day is over.

Mr. and Mrs. James McClocklin and family, of Ceylon, were guests at the old McClocklin home the first of the week.

A GREAT RAILWAY SYSTEM.

Hardly a town, village or city in Ontario that does not receive daily benefit from the operation of the Grand Trunk Railway System, and considering the network of branch line connections, it is wonderful with what regularity trains are run. Not only is a good service provided between all points in Ontario, but this line also reaches nearly all the important cities of Michigan, viz: Flint, Saginaw, Bay City, Lansing, Battle Creek, Jackson, Grand Rapids and Muskegon, South Bend, Ind., and the second city in America, Chicago, Ill., the gateway to the North-west, West and South, bringing Ontario in close connection. On the East, the Grand Trunk connects Ontario with Montreal, Quebec, the Maritime Provinces and Boston, Mass.

With a double track line all the way from Chicago to Montreal, and also to Niagara Falls, connecting with Lehigh Valley for New York, the Grand Trunk reaches out in all directions for your patronage, and well deserves it, for its vestibule coaches, parlor and dining cars, and modern Pullmans give the service desired.

Consult your nearest Grand Trunk agent for information regarding your next trip.
