The Junior hockeyists of Mount Forest, played the juniors here Monday last. The locals won the score of 3 to 1, in possibly the best junior game ever played here. The return match takes place next Monday night at Mount Forest.

Durham's Northern League team goes to Walkerton this Thursday evening for their first championship hockey match this year. A special train will leave Durham at 10 o'clock, and a good evening's riding is guaranteed. Every body should go and help them win. The return fare from Durham is $1.00 for children, 50c.

We don't make false statements intentionally, but we are glad to say that our reference last week to the death of Mr. John Morrison of Dornoch, was not true. We were misled by a false rumor, and if we have jarred the feelings of any of his friends, we regret having done so. Though very ill from pneumonia, hopes of his recovery are entertained.

The pie social and entertainment in Hutton Hill school on Friday evening was quite a success. A lengthy program, together with the sale of about twenty boxes, and their subsequent disposal, formed the chief part of the evening's amusement. The school was well filled, and the order good for a pie social. Mr. Robt. Brigham discharged the duty of auctioneer very efficiently, and dragged an average of a dollar and a half from the box buyers. One box sold for about two dollars and a half, and a number of others ran pretty well up to the two dollar mark.

The Durham branch of the Women's Institute, will hold their annual meeting on January 6th, in the town hall, when the delegates, Mrs. Woelard, of Toronto, will be present, and will speak on "Poultry Raising as a business for women." Every lady in town and country are cordially invited to attend, and are promised a fine address. Mrs. Woelard was very much appreciated last year. The Farm Institute and the Women's Institute will hold a combined meeting in the evening, when Mrs. Woelard will give another address. The meeting in the afternoon will commence at two o'clock.

The town clergy wish you all a happy New Year, and invite you to part with them in a series of union meetings, to be held in several churches, evening by evening, from Tuesday, the 3rd, to Friday, the 6th of January, 1911.
