ore of

THE DURHAM CHRONICLE

VOL. 43-NO. 2281.

DURHAM, ONT., THURSDAY, DECEMER 29, 1910.

$1.00 PER YEAR

We Wish Everybody a Happy and Prosperous New Year

NEWS AROUND TOWN

Farmers' feed boilers for sale at the foundry.

Saws gummed and skates sharpened at the foundry.

Lettuce, celery, and green onions, at the greenhouse.

Mr. Jas. Darling is starting drug business in Vancouver, B.C.

The school will re-open on Wednesday, January 4th, 1911, By order of the School Board.

Dr. Archibald Hunter, son of The time given for payment of to be opened shortly. Mr. Sam'l Putherbough is to be postmaster. The bean guessing contest will the evening on "The Great Choice. issue in January, 1911. Don't forget that Sternall is continuing the tinsmithing and , ducted by Sternall & Glass at the Public Library will be firs. measuring about 5 feet, eight inchgiven out on Saturday night. The es long, and weighing about 160

The Junior hockeyists of Mount Forest, played the juniors here on Monday last. The locals won by the score of 3 to 1, in possibly the best junior game ever played here. The return match takes Durham's Northern League team that knew understood that the latgoes to Walkerton this Thursday ter part of the statement referevening for their first champion- red not only to the kindly enquirship hockey match this year. A les of so many, but also to the rein Hutton Hill school on Friday tion for the bountiful gift, and for A the pledge it gives of love and lengthy program, together with affection. the sale of about twenty boxes, and their subsequent disposal, ormed the chief part of the evening's amusement. The school was MODEL SCHOOL EXAMINATIONS declared elected for the East. well filled, and the order good for discharged the duty of auctioneer having taken Honors. average of a dollar apiece from the box buyers. One box fold for about two dollars and a alf, and a number of others ran retty well up to the two dollar

The Durham branch of the Woms Institute, will hold their annumeeting on January 6th, in the wn hall, when the delegate, Mrs. elard, of Toronto, will be presand will speak on "Poultry ising as a business for women." ery lady in town and country fordially invited to attend, and are promised a fine address Mrs. Woelard was very much preciated last year. The Farm-Institute and the Women's stitute will hold a combined ting in the evening, when Mrs. elard will give another address. meeting in the afternoon will mence at two o'clock.

own clergy wish you all a w Year, and invite you with them in a series meetings, to be held in several churches, evening by ng, from Tuesday, the 3rd, to the 6th of January, 1911. meeting places for the differvenings will be as follows: w, in Trinits church; Wedin the Baptist church, iday, in the Presbyterian The subjects to be considwill be "The Fatherhood o." by Dr. Farquharson; "The stian Church," by Rev. R. W ght: "Missions." by Rev. N ausland: and "The Home," by W. H Hartley. The hour of ce will be on every evening lock. An offering will be ented at each of the services pport of the Children's Aid ty for the County of Grey. and bring your friends with Fred A. Lewis, piano tuner, ex-1142tf pects to be in Durham in January.

Custom sawing and grain chopping, at the Durham Foundry. tf A song service will be held in the Baptist church on Sunday evening next.

To rent.-Two houses on George Street, with all modern conveniences.-Mrs. J. W. Crawford, 128tf

For sale.-A good set of heavy Custom sawing has commenced at the Durham foundry. Now is the time to being in your logs.

sleighs, or will exchange for a set of one horse sleighs. Apply to Robt. G. Hewitt, Durham.

Mr. A. S Hunter, is starting a accounts due Sternall & Glass exmedical practice in Vancouver, B.C. pired on the 21st inst. If you have not attended to the matter, kindly A new post office, Bentinck, is do so at once, and oblige.

Mr. David Allen purchased the urday evening, Dec. 31st. All who Mockler property. He occupies pay their subscriptions before that the upstairs as a dwelling, and time, up to the end of 1911, will have the privilege of four guesses In the Methodist church next es. Quite a number have already Sunday morning, the sermon will deposited their guesses. The rebe on "Some New Thing," and in sults will be published the first

A Long Island man has raised a plumbing business, formerly con- lemon measuring eighteen inches in circumference, and weighing 29 ounces. Nothing. A mere noth-The new books recently received ing. New Brunswick grew one list will be published in next lbs. They call it William Pugsley. -Toronto News. That's nothing, Wanted .- A good smart boy, to that knocks the Bill Pugsley into learn printing. Must have a fair a cocked hat, but he is timorous public school education. A good over his Little opponent to the chance for the right kind of a mayoralty.

here. The return match takes son's welfare. "And now," he said, "I return, and your love and kindness fills my heart." Those special train will leave Durham at ceipt of a letter on Saturday, addressed to Dr. and Mrs. Farquading is guaranteed. Everybody should go and help them win. The greetings of the congregation, and return fare from Durham is $1.00. a bright and prosperous New Year and a sweet re-union before many We don't make false statements days. This expression of sympa-The pie social and entertainment pecially to thank their congrega-

The names are arranged in order ly. of merit, those followed by an "H"

Mary Edge, ... H ... Edge Hill.

Janet Fletcher, ... H ... Ceylon,

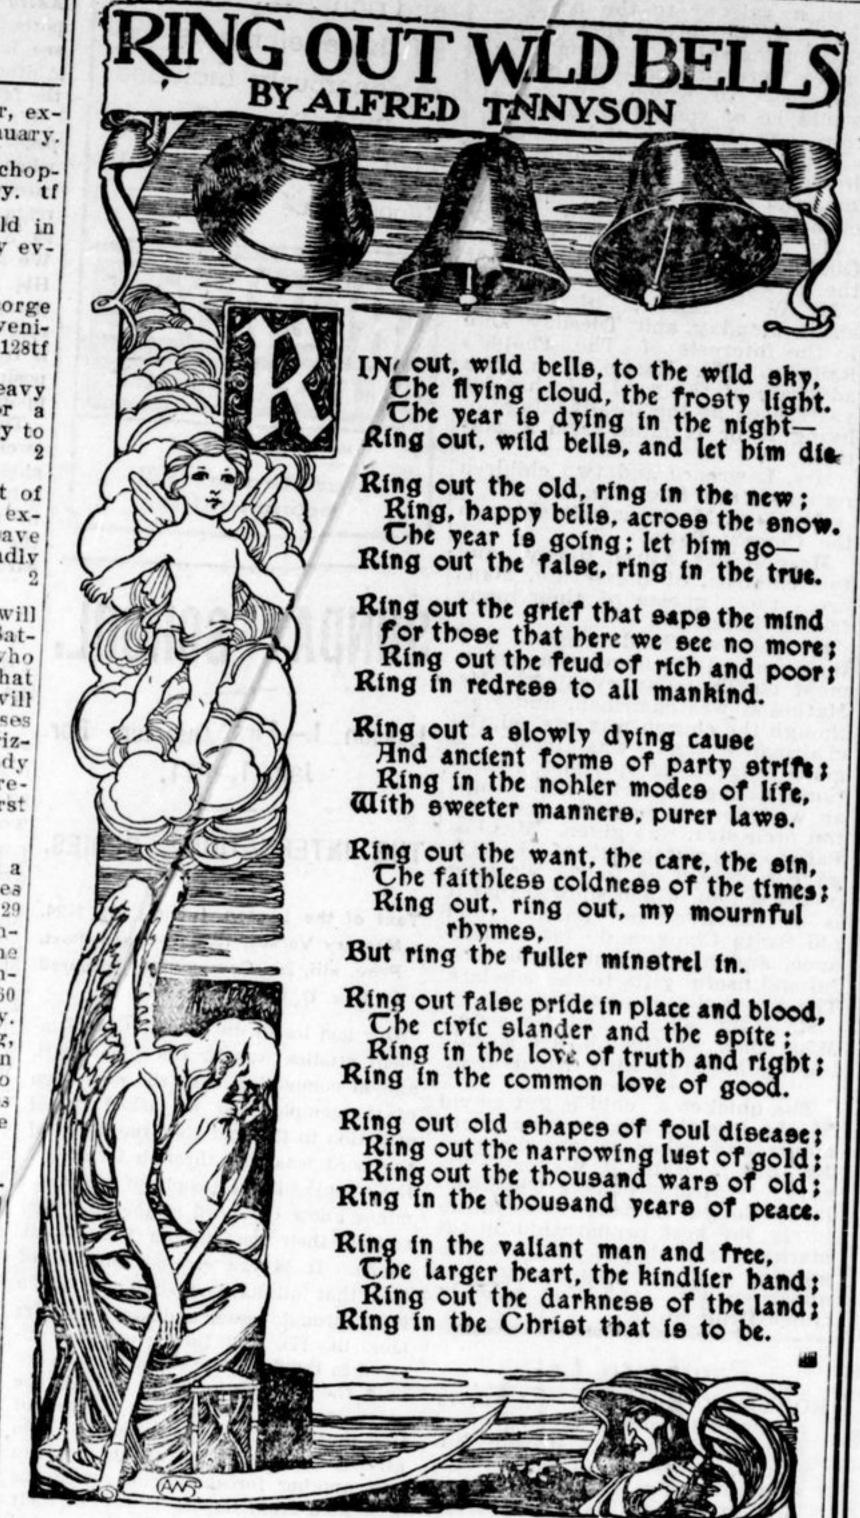

Grace Alexander,...H... Brigden. Eva Renton, ... H ... Dromore. Annie Alexander, ... H... Brigden. Wilena S. Binnie, ... H... Bunessan Leonne Curran, ... H ... Edy's Mills. Evelyn Fraser, Shakespeare. E. Lyall Ireland, Owen Sound. Pearl Willert, Dashwood. Beatrice Mayne, Spruce Green. Maggie Firth, Edge Hill. Willa Coram, Drayton. Adele S. Ewen, Fergus. Edith Fortune, Vesta. Fanny Ector, Edge Hill. Lulu M. Snider. Drysdale. F. Greenache, Teeswater. Sadie M. Watson, Bayfield. Ethel Hussey, Drayton. Laura E. Holmes, Newton, Fred Smith, Durham. Margaret McLaren, Shakespeare Annie McMillan, Glenelg Centre. Minnie M. Nesbitt, Cumnock Minnie Roadhouse, Rirton. John G. Johnston, Drysdale, Alice Currie, Atwood. Nellie Gilchrist, Tiverton. Alice M. Leslie, Stirton. Sara Duffin, Thorndale. Alice Whiteman, Teeswater. Edith Peddle, Whitechurch. Belle McDonald, Kinloss. Edward Durkin, Orangeville Jean Greenway, Lady Bank. Effie Purvis, Allan Park. Maude Stewart, Millarton Mamie Robertson, Glen Eden. Frank Guinan, Mount Carmel Wallace Findlay, Dromore. Jessie Smith, Aberdeen. Cecil Statia, Orangeville. John Morritt, Blyth Laura Suavey, Oil Springs. Etta McCague, Mono Centre. Ethel Thompson, Owen Sound. Mary T. Robertson, Oil Springs. Irene Johnston, Drayton.

Sylvania J. Knox, Swinton Park.

Arthur Gow, Fergus.

E. Pearl Trott, Oil City.

Viola Woods, Bayfield.

THE NOMINATIONS

Mayor.-Laidlaw, Black.

Reeve.-Calder, Saunders. Council. - Whelan, Cochrane, man, and Mayor Laidlaw was the their requirements. McGowan By-law, and the various cago, announcing the death of his stages through which it passed to brother Alex. there. become legalized. He congratulat- Mr. Calder spoke at considerable ed the McGowan boys for their length, touching on nearly all enterprise, and the citizens and points formerly referred to by farming community on their good Laidlaw, and pointed out, in a fortune in having such an import- general way, the way in which he list, some names were taken off, yet enough remained to give the petition the necessary twenty-five intentionally, but we are glad to thy was accompanied by a cheque good representative gathering of time that the council had no option say that our reference last week running into the three figures, as ratepayers in the town hall to but to submit the question to a to the death of Mr. John Morrison the letter said, "representing a nominate municipal officers for vote of the people, but since learnof Dornoch, was not true. We small part of the Christmas feeling the year 1911. Mr. W B. Vollet, ed it was not imperative in the were misled by a false rumor, and of the congregation towards you." the town Clerk, was in the chair case of a repeal. Moreover, he if we have jarred the feelings of Dr. and Mrs. Farquharson wish to from 7.30 to 8.30, and during the considered the anti-option interhis friends, we regret hav- express their gratitude to all of hour four were nominated for ests indebted to the town for $361 ing done so. Though very ill every denomination, who have mayor, four for reeve, twefve for costs incurred through appeals from pneumonia, hopes of his retaken such sympathetic interest in councillors, and three for trus ees. made when local option was carthem in the crisis through which of whom the following qualified: ried here three years ago. The town had judgment against the appellant, and until that handicap was removed by the payment of Brown, Sharp, Kinnee, Lenahan, would never consent willingly to School Trustees.-H. Allen, J. P. the submission of a repeal By-law The school came in for a share of motice from Mr. Laidlaw, who seems to be of the opinion that the Board always makes a demand Mr. Vollet was appointed Chair- for more than is necessary for first speaker. After expressing Mr. Black being called on, Barthe season's greetings, and refer- rister Grant came forward to say ring to the fact that much import- that he would not be present, but ant business had been done during would contest the election. His the year, he began to specify more absence from the nomination was particularly, and touched on the because of a telegram from Chi-ant industry at their doors. He differed from the Mayor on some felt gratified to learn that the mill issues brought before the Board. was a success far beyond his ex- He thought the McGowans' depectations. Instead of keeping one miller employed, they had now three, and sufficient orders booked to keep the mill running night and day for the next three marks the security insufficient. On the day for the next three months at market By-law he claimed to have least counselled caution, and advised His next reference was to the submission of By-law before going new market. He reviewed the ci- on with the work. He found that cumstances leading up to it, to its the present location was not sat-necessity, through a call from the isfactory to the farmers and shipfarming community, to the pur- pers. The town suffered through chase of the property at $750, the the litigation by which the injuncletting of the contract, the injunc- tion was issued to prevent the tion to restrain building opera- work going on, and that the obtions, the subsequent By-law. and jecting citizens had good ground other details, including the likeli- for their action. He thought the hood of erecting a Carnegie purchasing of the market lot was Library on part of the property, good buying; that the ratepayers He also expressed his pleasure in do not consider the market a thing the furniture factory By-law, to of beauty. Thought it a mistake enable the company to enlarge not to give more attention to aptheir premises and employ a larger pearance. The same mistake ocforce. He thought the citizens curred in the Garafraxa St. bridge. acted wisely in supporting the By- He voted to allow a By-law to be law for its extension, and had voted on for the repeal of local made a good bargain for the option, which was pressed on the town. With the enlarged factory, Board by a petition containing and all the favorable conditions connected with it in the way of lumber supplies, he saw a bright ferent opinion from Mr. Laidlaw future for the factory, and pre- regarding repayment of costs indicted that it would soon be curred through appeals three among the best in the province. | verrs ago. Does not think the The effort to repeal the local petitioners on the present occasion option by-law was next dealt with, should pay the old debt. Thought The petition was submitted, a it a most unreasonable stand to scrutiny appointed to examine the take. Thought it emly fair that

Continued on page 4.

Wishing Our Many Customers   A Very Happy and Prosperous. New Year

S. F. MORLOCK

We Wish Our Many Friends and Customers a Very Prosperous and Happy New J. & J. HUNTER

