

If you are sick or run down your Druggist will give you FREE a 50c. bottle of Psychine and we will pay him.

Read this:

We are receiving many thousands of requests from every part of Canada for the 50-cent bottle of Psychine, which we buy from the druggist and give away.

Unprecedented interest is being taken in Psychine.

And it is doing some very remarkable things, making some very extraordinary cures.

Not more than we anticipated however.

With our third of a century's experience with Psychine.

With our knowledge of the hundreds of thousands it has already cured, in mind.

We have the most absolute confidence in what it can and will do.

Since scientists know now all about the white corpuscles of the blood, or the phagocytes, the scavengers which devour every germ of disease that enters the body.

Since they also tell us that certain herbs—nature's remedies—help and build up these white corpuscles.

And since these herbs are compounded in Psychine, we know why Psychine is so phenomenally successful in treating disease.

We know why its use is indicated in the following diseases:

- | | |
|---|----------------------|
| La Grippe | Bronchial Coughs |
| Bronchitis | Weak Lungs |
| Hemorrhages | Weak Voice |
| Sore Throat | Spring Weakness |
| Anaemia | Early Decline |
| Female Weakness | Catarrhal Affections |
| Indigestion | Water of Stomach |
| Poor Appetite | Night Sweats |
| Chills and Fevers | Obstinate Coughs |
| Sleeplessness and | Laryngitis and |
| Nervous Troubles | Dyspepsia |
| After-effects of Pleurisy, Pneumonia and La Grippe. | |

And we do that to show our entire confidence in this wonderful preparation.

A confidence that has been based on our thirty years' experience with this splendid preparation, with a full knowledge of the hundreds of thousands of cures it has made.

OUR OTTAWA LETTER

Ottawa, Mar. 24th, 1911. — Two entire days out of the past week, were devoted to the affairs of the defunct Farmers Bank. This institution operated only in the province of Ontario, but its history is of interest to all the people of Canada. It was authorized to do business by the Treasury Board of Canada on November 30th 1906. It was finally closed in November 1910. Although it actually operated less than four years, the bank managed to loot confiding people to the extent of $2,000,000. The shareholders, — nearly all of them, innocent and deceived — will lose not only the money they paid for stock, but will be called upon to pay an assessment of 100 per cent. Even this contribution will not greatly aid the depositors, who bid fair to lose all their savings.

Bank failures have been frequent enough of late in Canada. The statistics as furnished by Dr. Edwards the Conservative member from Frontenac, are somewhat startling. In his speech in the House on Thursday last, he said:

"From 1880 to 1906 there were 48 chartered banks established in Canada, and of that number 19, or 25 per cent., failed, and others only saved themselves from failure by amalgamation. In the neighborhood of 30 per cent. of all the banks which have been established since 1880, have failed, and one half of these failures have occurred since 1896, during the time the present Finance Minister has held office. Surely, Sir, it is a sorry commentary on our banking system, and on this government that the percentage of failures of chartered banks in the Dominion of Canada, has been greater since this administration came to power in 1896, and under the care of the present Minister of Finance, than in any other country in the world. Mr. H.C. McLeod, former general manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia, commenting on this deplorable state of affairs, used these words: 'Most if not all the above mentioned failures were fraudulent and it is now plainly evident that a few hours' examination by a skilled banker would have disclosed an insolvent condition in any one of these banks, years before it collapsed.' The Bank Act is designed to promote safe and conservative banking throughout the Dominion. The banks are given many privileges and franchises of great value, and the Bankers' Association has many powers, as a rule only confided to officials of the Government. The chartered banks are indeed given a monopoly in this country. People generally are aware of this as a matter of fact, but few realize how true it is as a matter of law. The matter was brought to the attention of the House in the debate on the Farmers' Bank by Mr. Donnelly, South Bruce, who quoted Section 158 of the Bank Act, which reads as follows: 'Every person assuming or using the title of bank, banking company, banking house, banking association, or banking institution without being authorized to do so by this Act, or some other Act in force in that behalf, is guilty of an offence against this Act.' It is therefore evident that the Government should carefully supervise the Banks to see that they are properly conducted and that the savings of the people are not dissipated. Certainly great care should be taken in the matter of licensing a new bank. The Bank Act itself attempts to provide a number of safe guards:

1. A bank cannot do business until it receives a certificate from the Treasury Board, which Board is to consist of the Finance Minister and five other Ministers of the Crown.
2. The Treasury Board is not permitted to issue such certificate unless and until it is satisfied by sworn evidence, that $500,000 of stock has been bona fide subscribed, and $250,000 has been paid in on account of the same by the subscribers of the stock.

That the Farmers Bank was granted a certificate improvidently is not denied. It is now admitted that $500,000 of stock had not been subscribed, and that $250,000 had not been paid in by the shareholders. Some $211,000 had been collected on stock subscriptions by the provisional directors, but $41,000 of this had been appropriated to various purposes, so that only $170,000 remained. In order to get the additional $80,000 to make up the additional $250,000 required, the provisional directors discounted notes given them for stock. All these facts are now admitted by all and it is likewise admitted that the discounting of the notes, and the raising of the $80,000 thereby, was illegal and improper. The only excuse offered by the Government is that Hon. Mr. Fielding, Minister of Finance, was deceived and hoodwinked by Walter R. Travers, general manager of the Farmers Bank, now a convict in the Kingston Penitentiary.

Mr. Fielding is one of those fortunate men who do not talk much, and therefore can get along for years without being found out. The Liberal newspapers have cultivated an impression that he is a remarkable financier, and the most honest man on the face of the earth. The recent revelations in respect to the Farmers Bank compel his friends to choose between two painful alternatives, viz. either Mr. Fielding is not strong enough mentally for his position, or some extraneous and improper influences were brought to bear on him when he granted a certificate to the Farmers Bank.

The debate on Wednesday and Thursday last brought out all the facts. They were well stated in whole or in part by Messrs. Henderson, Sharpe, N. Ont., Blain, Foster, Thornton, Boyce, Porter, Donnelly and others, including Mr. R.L. Borden. Nearly all of them are supported by documentary evidence.

It appears that in 1905 the charter was granted to the Farmers Bank of Canada. This charter was renewed in 1906. Beattie Nesbitt, at that time a popular politician, but not seriously considered as a business man, and Walter R. Travers, who was out of employment and reduced in circumstances, were busy in getting farmers to subscribe to the stock of the new bank. In order to sell the stock, and keep themselves floated, they used up, in various ways, some $40,000 thus realized, and in November, 1906, stood in a perilous position. They had on hand $170,000 in cash, but required $80,000 more in order to make the deposit with the Receiver-General, required by law. They began illegally discounting the notes of subscribers to stock, and thus got entangled in several law-suits. In these law-suits, the dissatisfied stock holders charged them with frauds of various kinds, including the discounting of notes. They managed in some way to return the money to these dissatisfied stock holders, and to have the suits withdrawn, but their position was made worse. Mr. Leighton McCarthy, then a Liberal member of Parliament, wrote to Mr. Fielding, Minister of Finance, and told him plainly what these men were doing, and cautioned him against issuing the certificate for the bank to do business, Nesbitt and Travers were at the end of their resources, and could never have collected $80,000 more in cash from stock holders. Indeed, they had to have the certificate at once, or throw up their hands and submit to civil and criminal prosecutions. To make the situation more desperate, they were exposed in various ways: by law suits; by publications in the newspapers; by the letter of Mr. McCarthy to the Finance Minister, and by verbal warnings given to the Minister by Mr. David Henderson, M.P., Mr. E. B. Osler, M.P., and other gentlemen of high standing in the public life of Canada.

By hypnotic, or other influences, Travers induced Mr. Fielding to take his unsupported statement against the tremendous mass of evidence and to issue the certificate which enabled the Farmers Bank to start on its career of ruin. Travers had hardly gotten out of town, when a positive statement

Father Morriscy's Remedies

Now on Sale in Ontario

When Father Morriscy, the famous priest-physician of Bartibogue, N. B., died a year ago last spring, he left his prescriptions to the Sisters of the Hotel Dieu, at Chatham, to be used for the benefit of humanity and of the church.

Not being in position to make up and distribute the prescriptions themselves, the Sisters arranged with a number of gentlemen, who had been Father Morriscy's friends, to do it for them. These gentlemen working under the name of "Father Morriscy Medicine Co., Limited," had by the first of the year placed the remedies in nearly every store in the Maritime Provinces.

So gladly were they received, and so satisfactory has been their record of cures, that the Sisters and the Company have decided to place them on sale throughout Canada.

Father Morriscy's "No. 7", for Rheumatism and the Kidneys—"No. 10", Cough Cure and Lung Tonic—"No. 11", Stomach Remedy—"No. 26", for Catarrh, and "Father Morriscy's Liniment"—can now be obtained from most dealers in this Province. If yours does not keep them write the Father Morriscy Medicine Co., Limited, Montreal, Que.

from the Bankers' Association reached Mr. Fielding to the effect that a part of the $250,000 had been borrowed from a Trust Company by discounting notes. The Finance Minister, however, made no effort to recall the certificate or to stop payment upon the cheque for $245,000 which, as Receiver-General, he had just issued to Travers. It is also admitted that before the bank had been long in operation, the Finance Department knew of gross irregularities in its conduct and management. Nothing was done to stop these, and all the circumstances in this case point to such incompetence on the part of Mr. Fielding as to make his resignation a necessity in the public interest.
