Mr. W. J. Young, a few days ago purchased the old Parrot property next to the McIntyre block, and was having it fitted up for renting purposes. On Thursday last he re-sold the property to R. Whitmore, barber, who will shortly move his business there from the present stand on the other side of the street.

Our Easter display is greater and grander than ever. We are safe in saying that the rush for spring and easter hats is far beyond any previous season. We are obliged to keep open every evening to supply the crowds. With years of success, we have won the confidence of the people and they know we will give them the best values and do our best to please them in every way. All styles for young and old. Come as early in the day as convenient as later the show rooms are always crowded.—Miss Dick.

A telegram from Mason City, Iowa, announced to Mrs. Beggs that her son, Herbert Kearney, was in a very serious condition, and his younger brother, Guy, left Monday afternoon, to be with him in his illness. Mr. Kearney has been in Mason City for the past three or four years, and has been ill for several months. He underwent an operation some days ago, and has been declining ever since. He has a wife and three children. Mrs. Kearney formerly being Miss Lottie Beaton, of this place. Mrs. Beggs has had a great deal of trouble during the past few years, and we regret to learn of her additional burden of sorrow.

Low rates for Easter, via Grand Trunk Railway System. Return tickets at single fare (with minimum charge of 25 cents, between all stations in Canada, also to Niagara Falls and Buffalo, N. Y. Detroit and Port Huron—Mich. Good going April 13, 14, 15, 16, 17. Return limit Wednesday, April 19, 1911. Full particulars and tickets from any Grand Trunk Agent or address A. E. Duff, District Passenger Agent, Toronto, Ont.

From the World-Spectator of Moosemin, Sask., we learn that Mr. W. E. Jopp, son of Mr. J. C. Jopp, was successful recently in passing his final examination in law and is now a full fledged disciple of Blakestone. From the same source we learn that his brother, Victor, returned from Rossland where he spent the winter as a member of the hockey team, where he gained considerable distinction as a player and also succeeded in winning the skating championship for British Columbia, which carried with it a gold medal. We tender all round congratulations.

A meeting of the juvenile lacrosse club was held in Calder's hall on Friday evening last, which was well attended, and it was decided to enter a team in the C.L.A. for the coming summer. There seems to be no reason why a good showing cannot be made this season, as almost all of last year's team is available, as well as several more who sprung into the game the latter part of last season. As this will, in all probability, be the only sporting organization in town this summer, the kids will in all likelihood get a generous patronage. The following are the officers elected: Hon. Pres., W. Calder; Hon. Vice Pres., H. H. Miller; Pres., J. F. Grant; Vice Pres., W. C. Pickering; Sec. Treas., E. McKechnie; Committee of Management, N. Sternall, E. McKechnie, W. Laidlaw, P. Ramage, J. Johnston, W. Hoig; Manager, G. S. Burnett; Field Capt., H. McDonald; Committee for collecting, R. Calder, E. Kelly.

MARRIED IN EDMONTON

Miss Mabel E. Hill, paid a flying visit to her home at Welbeck, and friends in South Bentinck, over last week end, returning to Toronto on Monday, from where she left on Thursday for Edmonton. Arriving there on Monday, she was united in marriage to Mr. Sydney Herbert Robinson, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Robinson, Perth Avenue, Toronto, by the Rev. J. E. Hewson at the manse, Edmonton. The groom's father accompanied her from Toronto. After spending a few days there they leave for their home at Beaver Lodge, Alberta.

Before leaving Toronto, the bride was entertained by her many friends, when she was made the recipient of a miscellaneous shower, comprising mostly all the necessities for housekeeping, some worthy of mention being a cheque for $500 from the groom's parents and a beautiful Bible from her Bible class teacher.

The bride's many friends in Durham and vicinity, where she was so well and favorably known, wish the young couple much happiness and prosperity.

Mr. W. A. Mahoney, architect, of Guelph met the Public Library Board on Tuesday night, with a view to getting out plans and specifications for the new building, and superintending its construction. He has had a wide experience in Carnegie Library architecture, and his work has been highly approved for its excellent character. He left a very favorable impression on the Board, but definite action will not be taken for a few days.

DESTROYED BY FIRE

We regret to learn of the destruction by fire of the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Lynn, of Allan Park On Tuesday forenoon, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn were engaged in the sugar bush, while Mr. Lynn's mother was attending the household duties, and taking care of the baby.

Discovering smoke, she went upstairs, and found the pipes on fire, but there was no flame to be seen. To be ready for an emergency, she went down again, and returned with a pail of water, when she found the flames had broken out, and the house in danger of destruction. She gave the alarm as best she could, and immediately set to work to save the contents. With great presence of mind, she started by removing some from upstairs, but having to abandon the work very shortly, she continued removing the contents from the lower flat.

Help arrived, but too late to be of much service in saving the property, and Mr. and Mrs. Lynn will suffer much loss. Even their clothing was destroyed, and no other available house being near the premises, the work on the farm this year (will have to be done at a very serious inconvenience.

Mrs. Redford, widowed sister of Mr. Lynn, had some of her household effects stored there, and these were all burned, entailing a considerable loss. Some articles were highly prized, because of associations, and she feels the loss of these, even greater than some of the more valuable articles.

The arrival of Mr. Lynn, just in the nick of time, saved what might have been a much greater calamity. His mother had been working alone most heroically, and was throwing the contents of a lower room out of the window, when she found herself shut in by the flames, which now reached the door of the room. In making her escape by the open window, the sash fell down, and held her there in such a way that she might have been burned to death had not her son arrived just when he did.

We are very sorry to hear of the loss, as Mr. Lynn had just got nicely started in life, and was doing well, through the united industry of himself and his plucky little wife.

OBITUARY.

MRS. DANIEL COLERIDGE

On Sunday last Mrs. Daniel Coleridge died at her home in Egremont, near Dromore, after a few days illness with pneumonia.

Deceased was born in Devonshire England, in 1826, and in 1849 at 23 years of age, was married to Mr. Daniel Coleridge, who is still living, but in a very feeble condition of health, being both deaf and blind for the past few years.

Shortly after marriage in 1849 Mr. and Mrs. Coleridge came to Canada and for six years lived near Dundas, but left there in 1855, came to Egremont and settled on the farm still occupied by Mr. Coleridge.

The marriage union resulted in a family of ten children, John and William in Owen Sound, Daniel P in Holstein, Mrs. R. Legate in Ceylon, Mrs. Wm. Ramage, Thistle, Mrs. Charles Ramage, Durham, Miss S. A. Coleridge teaching near Palmerston, Frank teaching in Rathwell, Man, James teaching in the home school, and Thomas, barrister, London.

Interment took place last Sunday at Amos Church Cemetery, Rev. Mr. Kendall taking charge of the obsequies, which consisted of a short service at the house and an appropriate sermon in the church. All the members of the family, with the exception of Frank, were present at the burial.

The deceased was always a strong, healthy woman, and although she long since passed the allotted span of life, death always brings sorrow. To the mourning relatives we extend our sympathy in their sore bereavement.
