NERVOUS CONDITION

Results From Kidney Trouble

Sick kidneys make you feel sick in a number of ways and it is now known that a nervous condition often results from kidney trouble. When the kidneys are sick the whole nervous system becomes irritated causing headache, dizzy spells, fits of "blues," neuralgic attacks, rheumatic pains, weak eyesight, dulled tired days and a constant inclination to worry over trifles.

Booth's Kidney Pills strengthen sick kidneys, cure backache, regulate the urine and restore to normal conditions. They are guaranteed. All dealers sell, 50c. box, or postpaid from the R.T. Booth Co. Limited, Port Erie, Ont. If you would like to test them free write for a trial box.

TRAVERTON

Nearly every one hereabouts through seeding, rolling mostly done and quite a number working at mangel and corn ground.

Miss May Robson, of Varney was home on Sunday to bid her sister, Mrs. George Mays, goodbye as she leaves on Monday to join her hubby in Saskatchewan where he has the contract of erecting three railway elevators. There is a sadness in breaking all the ties of home and youth and childhood days.

We were deeply grieved to learn of the death of Mrs. S. R. Jackson, of Meritt, B.C. She was a young matron possessing more than ordinary gifts of mind and person, and the sympathy of a wide circle of friends goes out to the motherless little ones and the grief-stricken partner. Some things are hard to understand, but He knows.

Word came to the home of Mr. E.W. Hunt last week, that his daughter Flo, was very seriously ill at the home of her employer, Mr. Hill, of bronchial pneumonia. She is head milliner in a big establishment there, and has had a very heavy season's work.

Mr. and Mrs. Hill are showing her every kindness and care. Latest reports indicated that she was some better.

Little Wilbert Haley, third son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Haley, fell out of the wagon box, in which he was playing, one day last week, and broke his arm.

Will Ryan, of the 6th con. had the ill luck to lose one of his fingers while running the engine in Mr. Jos. Schnitzler's mill, one day recently.

Mr. Carter English, and his sister, Miss Minnie, of Glascott, were guests of Miss Myrtle Hunt the first of the week.

Inspector Campbell grows more mellow and tender with the pupils of the schools, as the years go by, and they look forward, nowadays, with pleasure to his visits. He spent a good half day in No. 5 last week, and had some complimentary remarks for both teacher and pupils.

The high winds of last Friday caused considerable real estate to change ownership, while some forest fires did quite a lot of damage to fences and standing timber.

CORNER CONCERNS

Photographer Kelsey is taking the pictures of schools, and other prominent structures this week, while his brother is ornamenting the roofs of barns with lightning rods. He has secured about a dozen contracts close by, while the former will take the picture of No. 9, Glenelg, and our own, No. 2, Egremont, to-day.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Johnson rejoice over the arrival of a baby boy week before last.

Fall wheat is meeting with some hardships this spring. Backward weather, and a recent frost, nipped it somewhat.

Mr. Geo. Lawrence lost a fine mare, valued at $250, a week ago, from indigestion. Mr. Wm. Marshall also had a similar one afflicted at the same time, in the same way, but Dr. Wolfe was able to bring her round. This has been an unusually hard spring on horses, from distemper and other causes.

Mr. Jas. Allan has returned to his duties in Sioux City, with the Morley Binder Twine Co.

When we spoke of a fortnight ago about the charms of music in the church choir, and its attendant results, we should have included musicians connected with all classes of church work. We have the pleasure this week of extending congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Earl Matthews, who joined heart and hand last Wednesday, in Paisley, where the bride resided. We also give a hearty welcome to our section. We have no details of the marriage, but can safely say, as the bride is so well known here, that it was a happy one.

its one great blight and danger. Just this afternoon a saw-mill had to shut down on account of its men being so inebriated with beer drinking as to render them unfit for work.

TO REVISE THE CALENDAR

It is to be hoped that the movement started by the Swiss Government for revising the calendar will meet with general approval and be put into effect. The proposal is that by a simple change, a given date shall always fall on the same day of the week. The proposal is that New Year's Day shall not be the first day of January, but shall stand by itself not counting as a day of the week, month or quarter. This leaves for the rest of the year 364 days, a number which divides exactly into four equal quarters of 91 days each and into 52 weeks of 7 days each. Each quarter would contain thirteen weeks—2 months of 30 days each and one of 31. If the change were made in 1912 any given date would hereafter fall on the same day of the week—Easter Sunday would hereafter fall on April 14 and Christmas day would always come on Monday. But what about the odd day in leap year? The proposal is that this loose day should, in every fourth year, stand by itself and be known as Leap Year Day, be inserted between June and July, but not counting in the week, month or quarter. This day would be a bank holiday, and, coming immediately before Dominion Day, would, in every fourth year, enlarge the scope of that national festival. A bill embodying these proposals is before the British House of Commons, simplified calendar would greatly convenience mankind. Any printed calendar would answer for any or every year. A date would be a fixed date, and the human mind would be released from one of its vexing and unending worries.—Toronto Star Weekly.

TWO INKY WAYS

There was a man who advertised But once—a single time, In spot obscure placed he his ad. And paid for it a dime. And just because it didn't bring him customers by the score, "All advertising is a fake," He said, or rather, swore. He seemed to think one hammer tap Would drive a nail clear in; That from a bit of tiny thread A weaver tents could spin. If he this reasoning bright applied To ink, doubtless he Would claim one little bite would feed Ten men a century. Some day, though, he will learn that to Make advertising pay, He'll have to add ads. to his ad. And advertise each day. —E. G. Townsend, in National Advertiser.

THEY HAVE THEM YET

A negro known as one-eyed Walling was, and probably is now, a preacher in Virginia. His ideas of theology and human nature were often very original, as the following anecdote may prove: A gentleman thus accosted the old preacher on Sunday: "Walling, I understand you believe every woman has seven devils. Now how can you prove that I'd like to know?" "Well, sar, did you ever read in de Bible how de seven debbles were cast out er Mary Magdeleine?" "Oh, yes, I've heard of that; but what does that prove?" "Did you eber hear of 'em bein' cast out of any odder woman, sar?" and the old man assumed a wise look. "No, I never did." "Well, den, sar, de odders has sure got 'em yit!"—Youth's Companion.

The Dundalk Herald says:—George Beamish, the local well driller got a surprise on Saturday morning last that has kept him smiling since. He started drilling on Tuesday on the farm on the gravel road on Tuesday of last week, and had gone down about 55ft. when the water spouted out of the top end of the iron casing and the job was completed. The piping is six inches across and a steady stream of the purest spring water is flowing out of it. The spring was struck while the drill was working in a bed of sand and there is no rock formation above it. The well is situated on a high piece of land which is said to be at least 40 feet above Dundalk and as this is said to be the highest point in Ontario it is difficult to understand where the pressure comes from to raise the water so high. Mr. Trudgeon realizes that he has added very materially to the value of his farm and Mr. Beamish is more than tickled with the result of his labors. D. H. Palmer was out Tuesday and took some photos of the well with the drilling machine still in position for work.

CURED OF CONSTIPATION

Mr. Andrews praises Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills. Mr. George Andrews of Halifax, N.S., writes: "For many years I have been troubled with chronic Constipation. This ailment never comes single-handed, and I have been a victim to the many illnesses that constipation brings in its train. Medicine after medicine I have taken in order to find relief, but one and all left me in the same hopeless condition. It seemed that nothing would expel from me the one ailment that caused so much trouble, yet at last I read about these Indian Root Pills. That was indeed a lucky day for me, for I was so impressed with the statements made that I determined to give them a fair trial. They have regulated my stomach and bowels. I am cured of constipation, and I claim they have no equal as a medicine." For over half a century Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills have been curing constipation and clogged, inactive kidneys, with all the ailments which result from them. They cleanse the whole system and purify the blood. Sold everywhere at 25c. a box.

AT LAST, A CURE FOR RHEUMATISM

"Fruit-a-tives Cured Me!" Says Mrs. Baxter.

"I was a helpless cripple from Rheumatism for nearly a year. All down the right side, the pain was dreadful and I could not move for the agony. I was treated by two physicians without help. I saw "Fruit-a-tives" advertised in "The Telegram" and decided to try them. After I had taken one box, I was much better.

When I had taken three boxes, I could use my arm and the pain was almost gone. After taking five boxes, I was entirely well again. The cure of my case by "Fruit-a-tives" was indeed splendid because all the doctors failed to even relieve me. "Fruit-a-tives" cured me. MRS. LIZZIE BAXTER.

Cream of Celery Soup. Cook one head of celery stalks and light leaves in a pint of water for forty-five minutes; mash the celery and put through a pure strainer; add a pint of scalded milk and thicken with a teaspoonful of flour mixed with a little of the cold milk; add two table-spoonfuls of butter, salt and pepper to season and simmer ten minutes. Just before serving add a cupful of whipped cream with tiny pieces of browned croutons.

An Excess of Nerve. "I like to see a young man energetic and able to push himself," said the old banker sadly. "But when he borrowed money from me to buy an automobile in which to elope with my daughter it was carrying things a little too far."

Her Object. Mr. Snoodles—Good afternoon, Miss Annex. Going for a walk? I hope I may accompany you. Miss Annex—Yes, Dr. Sargeant says we must always walk with some object, and I suppose you will answer the purpose.
