LYONS-ALLEN.

On Wednesday, June 7th, at six o'clock in the evening, a very quiet wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr David Allen, when his daughter, Mabel, was joined in wedlock to Mr. Wesley Lyons, of Markdale.

The ceremony was conducted by Rev. Mr McCausland, in the presence of only a few immediate relatives. The bride, unattended, dressed in beautiful embroidered white lawn, and carrying in her hand a bouquet of white carnations looked charming under an arch of evergreens and white flags. The parlor was tastefully decorated for the occasion with white peonies and evergreens. To the strains of the wedding march, artistically executed by Miss May Hopkins, the contracting parties took their places and answered with a full knowledge of their significance the various questions by which they were made man and wife.

At the close of the ceremony, a sumptuous repast was partaken of and the happy young couple drove to Markdale, where they are making a short visit amongst relatives and friends, before starting on their trip to Halbrite, Sask., where they will begin their home making in earnest.

The bride's going away dress was of gray broadcloth, with large black hat. The groom's gift to the bride was a handsome topaz ring.

Mr. Lyons is a harnessmaker by trade, and spent five or six years in this town. Our best wishes go with the happy young couple in their journey through life.

KELLY-FOY

An exceedingly pretty wedding was that which took place at St Basil's church, Thursday morning, at ten o'clock, when Florence Elizabeth, daughter of the late George J. Foy, became the bride of Mr. Reginald Alexander Kelly, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Kelly, of Durham, Ontario. The chancel was beautifully arranged with pink and white peonies and syringa, against a background of graceful palms, while down the aisles were sheafs of the peonies Rev. Father Keen officiated. Mr. Jules Brazil was at the organ and Mr. Arthur Leitheuser sang the nuptial solo. The bride, who was escorted to the altar by her brother, Mr. Fred Foy, wore an exquisite empire gown of softest cream satin and lovely lace with tunic of chiffon bordered in silver and crystals. A long girdle of the same ornaments finished the bodice, and the court train was embroidered in orchids. Her tulle veil was arranged in a French mob cap encircled with orange blossoms, and she carried a shower of white orchids and lilies and wore the sapphire and diamond ring given her by the groom. Miss Kathleen Foy, as maid of honor, wore a most picturesque frock of pale pink satin, veiled in rose bordered tulle with touches of turquoise blue. The bridesmaids, Miss Grace Wright, of Saginaw, and Miss Amy Kelly, wore beautifully embroidered lingerie gowns inset with bebe Irish lace. All wore quaint French poke bonnets of silk net to match their gowns, adorned with pink roses, the long tulle streamers at the back being caught with a choux of pink roses. They carried armfuls of pink peonies and wore pearl and olive bars, the gifts of the groom. To the best man, Dr. Bradshaw Jamieson, of Durham, and the ushers, Mr. Percy Kelly, Mr. Louis S. Meyers, Mr. T. A. Case and Mr. Wm. Foley received sapphire and pearl pins. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the family residence, St. Joseph street, by Mrs. Foy, who was wearing grey charmuse, veiled in black chiffon and mauve hat with orchids. Mrs. Kelly was in ashes of violet satin and chiffon with cream hat. The bridal pair received under a splendid golden canopy embroidered in pink and white. On departing for Atlantic City the bride wore a dark blue surah suit with chic leghorn hat adorned with American beauties. Mr. and Mrs. Kelly's new home is to be at 25 Woodlawn avenue, Toronto Telegram, Thursday, June 8th.
