CORONATION PORTRAITS

The Chronicle has made arrangements by which our readers can secure most beautiful Coronation portraits of their Majesties. King George and Queen Mary. They are by the celebrated "Langhams" of London, and copyrighted. The Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal, has secured the Canadian rights, and are now offering these portraits free of charge to all who subscribe to that great weekly for the balance of 1911 at Fifty Cents. We will include the Chronicle with the Family Herald for the same period for only 70c., and each subscriber will receive the Coronation pictures. The two portraits are on the one sheet, size about 18x15 inches, a most convenient size for framing. They are acknowledged by competent judges to be the best portraits of Their Majesties in existence, and will become historical growing in value year after year. The small sum of 70c. will bring you both papers until January 1st 1912, and the Coronation portraits. The latter alone could not be bought for the price.

Phillips entertained about forty young people at a very enjoyable party given on Thursday evening last in honor of Mr. W.A. Hawken, who has resided with her since coming to Flesher-ton, and is about to become a bandmaster. Bandmaster Bowler's little 3-year-old son Carl got one of his legs badly cut with a scythe last week, and eight stitches were required in dressing the wound. A neighbor lad was cutting grass with the blade when the accident happened.

The garden party given last week by the Presbyterian Guild was quite successful, the receipts amounting to $47.00. A football match took place between Priceville and Flesher-ton clubs, in which the visitors were the winners by 1 to 0. Flesher-ton Band supplied music during the evening. A very severe electric storm visited this place on Saturday morning, which caused alarm to many, but fortunately limited damage was done. Your correspondent's residence had a close call a bolt having entered and left its marks sufficient to show that danger was very great.

The marriage of Mr. A.E. Armstrong, pastor of the Holiness Workers church, Meaford, to Miss Gertie Black, took place on Thursday, June 8th, at the home of the bride's parents, Heathcote. Rev. F.D. Mr. J.S. Wilson, manager the past year of the Durham Furniture Company's mill at Rock Mills, has moved to his former home at Louise, and before leaving, was given a pleasant surprise at his home when the employees at the mill, and a few of his neighbors, presented him with a handsome Morris chair, accompanied by an appropriate address. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson had made many friends in the community, who deeply regret their removal.

A sad death occurred at Salem on the 8th concession Artemesia, on Monday morning, when, after a brief illness with pneumonia, Mr. W.C. Pedlar passed away. After a prostrated illness, her- cally borne, Mr. John Teeter, second son of Mr. and Mrs. Price Teeter, passed away on Sunday morning at the home of his parents on the east back line. Artemesia where he was born 26 years ago. He was a steady, industrious young man, and a fine specimen of physical manhood, but under the poison of disease contracted in the West nine months ago, his sturdy frame gave way, notwithstanding all that was done to save him. His early death, and the first break in the family, is keenly felt by the surviving members. The deceased was a member of the A.O.U.W., holding membership at Parry Sound, where he initiated. The funeral will take place on Tuesday afternoon, when Rev. G.S. Milligan, the family pastor, will conduct the obsequies.

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Sharp was the scene of a pretty wedding on Wednesday afternoon June 7th, when their daughter Olive E. was married to Mr. Thomas H. White, son of Mr. Wm. White, of Saugeen Junction, where the young couple have settled in their new home with many good wishes of friends for their prosperity. In the absence of Rev. Mr. Wellwood at Conference Rev. Mr. Berry of Priceville, performed the marriage ceremony which took place beneath an artistic arch which formed part of the pretty house decorations. To the strains of the wedding march played by Mrs. Wesley Buskin the bride entered the parlor on the arm of her father by whom she was given away. She looked pretty in a dainty gown of ivory silk and wore a tulle veil caught up with myrtle and natural flowers. A gold bracelet worn. There were no attendants. After the marriage a choice wedding supper was served on the lawn covers being laid for about forty guests some of whom were present from Owen Sound Meaford and other points. Too late for last week. Intelligence was received here on Saturday of the death of Mr. Jas. H. Martin, of Seattle, at Kamloops, on June 9th. Mr. and Mrs. Martin and their daughter visited friends in Egremont, and his brother and sister here, and on their way home, Mr. Martin fell seriously ill at Kamloops, B.C. He died on Friday after a short illness. It makes it more sad to think he did not reach his home. He leaves two daughters, a sister and three brothers. We extend our sympathy to the sorrowing friends.

A DOUBLE CURE FOR DOUBLE TROUBLE

Father Morrissey's No. 26 Cures Catarrh by a Combined Treatment.

The sudden weather variations in our climate result in a great many cases of catarrh—a troublesome disease usually considered hard to cure, and one which often leads to serious pulmonary and intestinal troubles.

A neglected cold in the head weakens the nasal membranes, so that at every future exposure the trouble returns. At length these conditions are fastened onto the system, and the sufferer undergoes the annoyance and danger of chronic catarrh.

Some doctors confine themselves to prescribing external applications, and thus do not reach the seat of the trouble. Others give internal treatment exclusively, and thus do not promptly relieve the affected parts.

Father Morrissey, the skilled priest-physician, rightly regarded catarrh as a double trouble, consisting of unpleasant local effects and their fundamental causes, the latter having to do with impaired general vitality.

His famous remedy, No. 26, is a combined cure for catarrh. It consists of tablets to be taken three times a day, and an especially compounded salve.

The salve is antiseptic, and quickly heals the inflamed membranes of the nasal passages. The tablets go to the seat of the trouble and restore the system to its usual tone. Together, they cure.

Instead of neglecting a disease that is unpleasant to yourself and to others, and one which often leads to pneumonia and consumption, it is surely the part of wisdom to take timely steps to do away with the effects and at the same time remove the cause. No. 26 does just that.

50c. for the combined treatment. At your druggist's, or from Father Morrissey Medicine Co., Ltd., Montreal, Que. 100
