NEWS AROUND TOWN

Spirella corsets always on hand.—Mrs. J. C. Nichol, Durham.

Mr. John Whittaker has had his house on Lambton street remodelled and generally repaired. Mr. Geo. McDonald had the contract.

The work on the furniture factory is being rapidly pushed along, and the brickwork will be completed in a few days, we understand.

For sale.—One White "Challenge" threshing separator, thirty-six inch cylinder, in good repair. Will sell cheap. Apply to Hinman Johnston, Vickers, Ontario.

A special C.P.R. Harvesters' excursion train leaves Durham at 8.53 a. m. on Saturday, August 12, going through to Winnipeg without change.—R. Macfarlane, town ticket agent.

The harvest in this locality is well under way. Cutting is almost over, and it will not be long now until the threshing season is with us again. Crops are, generally speaking, good.

The Durham baseball team went down to the St. Paul's church garden party in Egremont, on Monday evening, and defeated the Green Grove team 13 to 5. Now for Toronto!

On Friday afternoon last, the Sunday school of Trinity church held their annual picnic at the park. The number attending was much larger than usual, and a delightful afternoon was spent.

The service in Trinity church, Durham, and St. Paul's, Egremont, will be taken next Sunday by Mr. John Hartley, Principal of Clinton Model school. On Sunday, August 20th, there will be no service held, but on August 27th, Rev. W. H. Hartley will have returned from his holiday trip and be in his own pulpit.

Civic holiday was not observed here on Monday, the chief attraction being the Hanover—Markdale lacrosse match at Hanover, in which Markdale was defeated 13 to 4. A load of the youngsters from here went over, and engaged in a baseball match, getting trimmed 19 to 17. For those who stayed at home, the bowling green and cricket ground were the chief places of amusement.

EVANGELISTIC SERVICES CLOSED ON TUESDAY

The evangelistic effort, which closed last Tuesday evening in the Baptist church, has been decidedly successful. From the first service held some three weeks ago, the interest has been keen. The Sunday mass meetings, which were held in the Presbyterian church, will not soon be forgotten by the people of Durham. Each Sunday evening, and especially on the musical evening, the capacity of the Baptist church was taxed. The last musical service, which was held Friday night, was even more appreciated than the first one. Mr. Newton, the soloist, whose singing has been so impressive, sang in splendid voice. "King David's Lament." In his heavier solos, Mr. Newton's voice is heard even to better advantage than in his Gospel songs, but in both he always sings with the same ease and clearness of expression.

The messages of the different members of the band have been marked by their manifest earnestness, and the messages have met with a response in the lives of many who have pledged allegiance to King Jesus. The three open air services which have been held during the stay of these University men, have all been exceptionally well attended, and notwithstanding the fact that the services were on the street corner, the order and attention was always all that could be desired.

At the present time the McMaster Band are opening a similar campaign in Chesley. Besides Chesley, two other towns are to be visited before these students return to Toronto to resume their studies at McMaster University.

New potatoes for sale.—Apply to C. W. Lang.

Apprentice wanted.—To learn tinsmithing and plumbing. Apply to N. H. Starnall Durham.

The entrance to Normal results appeared in last Friday's dailies, several days earlier than was expected by the candidates. The matriculation results are not yet out, but will be in the course of a few days. The following candidates were successful from the school here, four taking honors of the seven who passed; Hazel Willis (H), J. M. Farquharson (H), Annie C. Clark (H), Ernest J. McGirr (H), Arthur Backus, John W. Greenwood, C. C. Ramage.

We had a five minutes' call this Wednesday morning from Mrs. John Clark, and her daughter, of Cochrane. In the recent fire they escaped with their lives, and a suit case, and feel grateful they got off so well. Mrs. Clark looks well, acts cheerfully, and is highly hopeful that soon they will rise above the calamity and look back upon it only as an unpleasant memory. Building operations are going on again, and soon a bigger and better Cochrane will rise from the ashes of the first one.

HYMENEAL

FIRTH—EDGE.

The marriage of Miss Amy Isabelle Edge to Mr. Thomas Firth, was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Edge, Edge Hill, at 12 o'clock noon, on Wednesday, August 2nd. Rev. Dr. Farquharson was the officiating minister, and was assisted by the bride's uncle, Rev. Jas. Binnie, of Tweed. Only the immediate relatives were present. The bride was unattended, and wore a dress of cream liberty satin, with pearl and crystal trimming. After the lunch, the bride and groom left by the afternoon train to spend a few weeks in Northern Ontario. On their return, Mr. and Mrs. Firth will reside in Clinton.

OBITUARY.

MRS. JOHN SNELL.

On Thursday of last week, after an illness of four or five months' duration, Mrs. John Snell was relieved from severe suffering by the hand of death.

The deceased lady was born in Corunna, Lambton county, Ontario nearly forty-one years ago, and fourteen years ago last Christmas she united heart and hand in marriage with Mr. John Snell, who now mourns the loss of a good and affectionate wife.

For a number of years, Mr. and Mrs. Snell lived on a farm near Dromore, but about six years ago, came to Durham, where they have since lived, and proved themselves to be excellent citizens. An issue of one child, a boy nine years of age, resulted from the marriage. Besides the sorrowing husband and son, the deceased leaves her father and mother, as well as a brother and sister, all living at, or near the old home in Corunna. She was a valued member of the Presbyterian church, and took an active interest in its welfare.

Interment took place on Saturday afternoon to Dromore cemetery. Service was held at the home here before leaving, conducted by her pastor, Dr. Farquharson, and at Dromore by Rev. Mr. Kendall.

She was always a healthy and active woman until about February last, when she was seized by nervous trouble, and grew constantly worse up to the time of her death.

Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Scott, her brother, Wm. Scott, jr., her sister-in-law, Mrs. Wm. Scott, her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Wellington, and an aunt Mrs. Farquharson, all of Corunna, were present at the funeral. The Chronicle extends its sympathy to Mr. Snell in his period of bereavement.
