FLESHERTON.

With other fall fairs held nearby last week, East Grey fair suffered with the foul weather encountered. On Friday, the second day of the fair here, a drizzling rain continued nearly all day, which affected seriously the attendance at the grounds, and made the crowd comparatively small. This is to be deplored the more because the show was excellent. There was a splendid exhibit in the hall, and on the field. There was a redeeming feature at the fair concert in the evening, which was a splendid success. Messrs. Cameron and Piggott, well known entertainers, were the attraction, and the large audience in the assembly room of the High school was kept in roars of laughter throughout the lengthy program. Miss Boyd and Mrs. Blackburn were the accompanists, and also gave a well rendered piano duett. President Mitchell occupied the chair. The band gave several outdoor selections before the programme commenced.

At the election of officers in the Presbyterian Guild last week, the following were appointed for the ensuing six months: Pres., Mrs. H. Wood; Vice Pres., G. Cairns; Sec., Miss M. McTavish; Treas., C. Stewart, Organist, Mrs. Blackburn. The residence of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Fisher was the scene of a pretty wedding at 6 o'clock on Wednesday evening, September 25. when their daughter, Margaret A. was joined in marriage with Mr. Harry Patton, of Ceylon. Rev. J. H. Kelly performed the ceremony in the presence of about forty guests, and the bride's sister, Miss Edna Fisher, played the wedding march, to the strains of which the bride entered the room leaning on the arm of her father, and looked very pretty in a dainty gown of cream embroidered net, over silk. The young couple were unattended, and the marriage took place beneath a pretty arch of evergreens and autumn leaves, decorated with flowers. After the season of congratulations, a choice wedding supper was served, and the company spent an enjoyable evening. The bride's travelling costume was of blue cloth, with velvet hat to match. She was the recipient of a large number of beautiful wedding presents, the gift of the groom being a silver tea service. Mr. and Mrs. Patton will reside at Ceylon, and a large circle of friends wish them happiness and prosperity.

The rain on Sunday made the attendance at the churches smaller than usual, which was unfortunate, on account of special events in all places of worship. At the Baptist church Rev. Mr. Kelly preached his farewell sermon. At the Presbyterian church, Rev. Dr. Gray, agent of Knox College, Toronto, delivered a very able sermon, and presented the claims of the college. At the Methodist, Rec. Mr. Young, of Markdale, who exchanged with the pastor, conducted anniversary services, and his earnest, thoughtful sermons, were much appreciated.

J. & W. Boyd's millinery opening took place last week, and was a great attraction for the ladies, who were loud in their praises of the artistically trimmed goods and beautiful display made by Miss Woodcock, and her assistants. The show room decorations were very pretty.

At the Fair here last week, the natural history exhibit made by Messrs. Geo. Mitchell, P. Munshaw and J. Weber, was an attractive feature in the hall, and much admired by the visitors.

Mrs. Hastie disposes of her household goods on Saturday, at an auction sale conducted by R.J. Sproule.

Mr. Ed. Whitten moved his family on Monday to their new home in Toronto. Mr. Whitten has been a respected and industrious resident here for about thirty years. His son Oshwell, who has been recently assisting him on their new residence in the city, is now in the hospital with typhoid fever.

Rev. J.H. Kelly closed his pastorate here on Sunday, and with Mrs. Kelly left on Monday for their new field of labor at Palmyra a desirable change, with but one pulpit to supply. Candidates for the vacancy here will now be heard.

Mr. Henry LeGard had the misfortune to lose a calf, valued at $15, from the pasture field, one night last week. That the calf was stolen away in a wagon, was evident from wheel marks found next morning, where it had been loaded.

Mr. W.J. Henderson, of this place has rented his farm near Wareham, to Mr. Wes Fawcett, centre line.

Mr. J. Wesley Wright, wife and daughter, of San Francisco, Cal., made a short visit here on Thursday last, accompanied by his brother, Mr. Thorp Wright, Toronto and sister and nephew, Mrs. Pickell, and Mr. Charley Pickell, of Markdale. Mr. Wright drove his family out to the old homestead, and scenes of his childhood, where in S.S. No. 3, he and the writer were school mates in boyhood days. We were pleased to again meet him, after many years of separation.

Mr. J.C. Wright, Mr. J.W. Bates and Mr. Arnold Thurston, of Toronto, were visitors at the fair here on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Wickens visited the past two weeks with the former's parents here.

Mr. and Mrs. Price Teeter paid the former's sister a short visit at Owen Sound.

Mr. Hobert is visiting friends at Owen Sound.

Miss Annie Howard has returned to Toronto after an extended visit with her mother.

Mr. Fred Karstedt has gone to Toronto to attend University. Miss Gertie Bellamy, accompanied by her little niece, was home from Owen Sound for a few days' visit.

Miss Flo Roome, of Wareham, visited Miss Agnes Henderson for a few days last week.

Rev. W., and Mrs. Gaudin, of Uffington, were visitors at Mr. W. H. Thurston's on Thursday last.

Misses Zell and Willa McLeod visited their aunt, Mrs. Thibaudeau and other relatives at Markdale during the past week.

While clipping a horse at the livery last week, Mr. John Stuart was kicked by the animal, and painfully injured in the knee, which has crippled him much since.

Dr. Ottewell returned last week from a month's holiday in the West. From the Dr. we learn that his brother-in-law, Mr. Chas. Stafford, who recently went to the West, has purchased an improved farm at Griffin, Sask., off which he is now reaping a seventy acre crop. In that section, crops are good, but the weather has been cool and wet, delaying harvest.

Mrs. Thompson, of Lanark county, is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. J. White.
