FLESHERTON.

At "Inglehame," the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Beattie, Toronto line a pretty wedding took place on Wednesday afternoon, October 11th, when their daughter, Etta Myrtle, was married to Mr. Grover I. Willis, of Vancouver, B. C. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J.S. Ivison Wilson, of Huntsville.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Stewart, of the west back line, celebrated the first anniversary of their wedding day on Wednesday evening, the 11th inst. at which an enjoyable time was spent by a goodly number of the relatives of the esteemed couple.

A span of horses belonging to an Osprey farmer had a lively runaway here one day last week. While tied on the street, the team took fright at an automobile, and broke away, but were captured before serious damage was done.

Mr. Wm. Reid has secured the position of janitor at the public school in the place of Mr. Ward, resigned.

Mr. and Mrs. John Brown, of this place, received the sad news last week of the death at Chicago, of their daughter, Mrs. J.H. Campaign who had been a great sufferer for several months. The deceased, who was a highly esteemed woman, was in her 52nd year. She was born on the old homestead, east of this village, where her marriage took place about 12 years ago. Her husband, two sons, and two daughters, survive her, and with her aged parents, have the deep sympathy of the community.

Mrs. Pye has returned from an extended visit with her daughter in Toronto.

Mrs. Andrew Bentham returned last week to the city.

Mr. Will Wilson was home from Gravenhurst visiting his mother.

Mrs. W.L. Wright made a short visit in the city last week.

Miss Kate Bellamy is visiting friends in Toronto this week.

Mr. W.H. Brown, and daughter, Ida, of Stayner, paid the former's parents here a short visit last week.

Born.—At Stratford, to Mr. and Mrs. W.G. Slaughter, a son, Norman Vincent.

Mrs. Flynn moved last week from the old drill shed residence, to Mr. D. McFavish's residence near the cemetery.

Rev. J.S.I. Wilson and Mrs. Wilson, of Huntsville, spent Thursday last with old friends here, who were pleased to meet them again, after two years' absence.

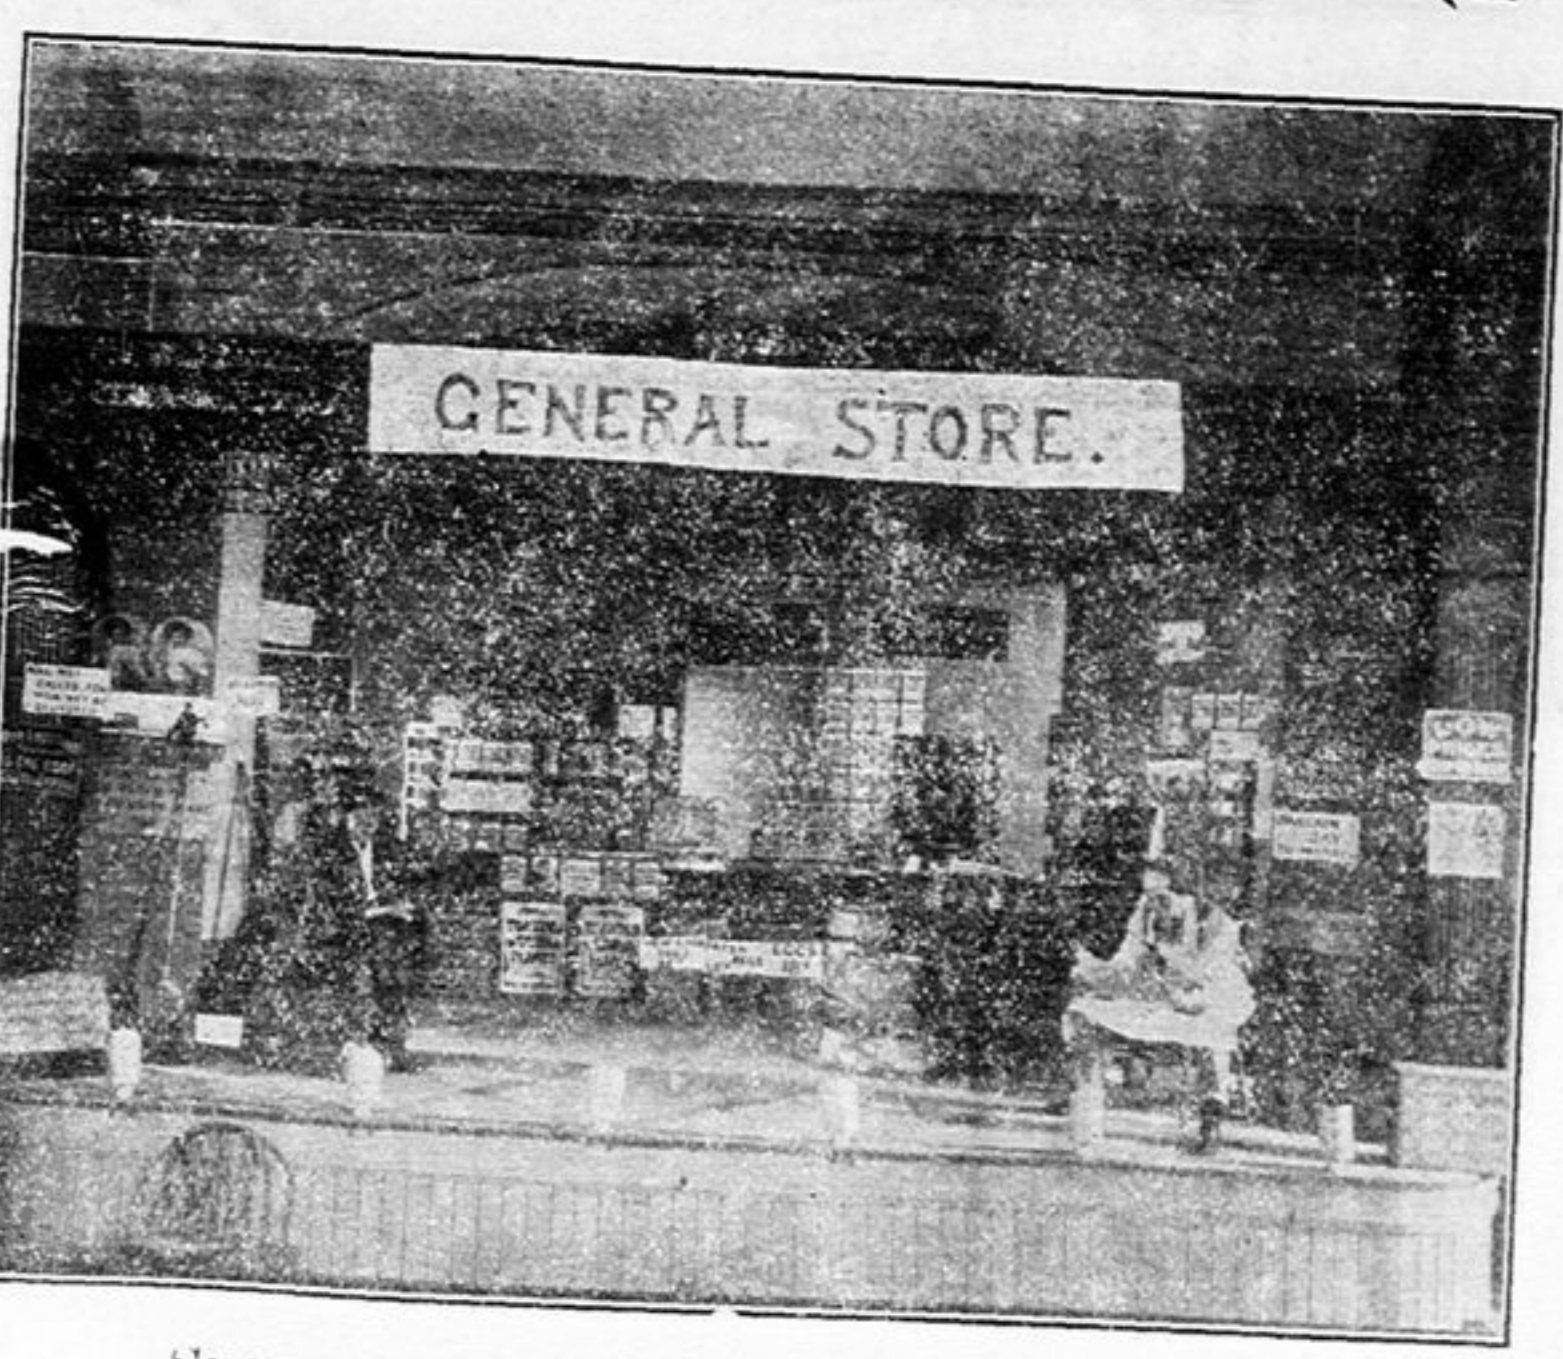

Mr. J. Latimer, who has been for some time in R.J. Sproule's office, has secured the position of Organizer with the A.O.U.W., and will leave in a few days for Stratford, his territory being the county of Perth.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Cameron, and little daughter Helen, of Brantford, are spending a few days in holiday here. Mrs. Cameron, formerly Maud Harnden, resided here thirteen years ago, and her old friends are pleased to meet her again.

The annual convention of the South Grey Teachers' Association held here on Thursday and Friday last, was very successful. The program throughout was excellent, and the new High school was pronounced by all an ideal place of meeting.

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. Miles Thistlewaite was the scene of a pretty wedding at one o'clock Tuesday afternoon, October 10th, when their second daughter, Hannah Mabelle, was married to Mr. Ernest Cecil Brown, of Brighton, Ont. The stately bride, attended by her sister, Miss Lily Thistlewaite, and given away by her father, entered the parlor to the strains of the wedding march, played by her sister, Miss Beatrice Thistlewaite. The parlor decorations were very pretty, done in autumn leaves and plants, of which an artistic background was formed for the bridal party with garlands suspended above. The ceremony was performed by the family pastor, Rev. G. S. Milligan, M.A., in the presence of about fifty guests. The bride looked very pretty in a dainty gown of white silk, with pearl trimmings. She wore a tulle veil, and carried a bouquet of carnations and lily of the valley. Her only ornament was a pearl necklace, the gift of the groom. After the marriage, a choice wedding breakfast was served. A number of friends accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Brown to the depot, and followed by many good wishes they left on the evening train for their home at Brighton. The bride travelled in a handsome costume of blue cloth, with stylish black and white hat. The bride was the recipient of a large number of beautiful wedding presents. She smiles as the sun was was an esteemed member of Chalmers' church, and took a deep interest in the work of the choir, Sunday school, and Young People's Guild. Mrs. Samuel Pedlar has moved from Eugenia to her recently purchased residence here. Mr. Ed. Whitten, who recently moved to Toronto, and was ailing when he left here, is reported very ill. Mr. and Mrs. W.J. Douglas arrived from New Liskeard on Friday. Mr. Douglas has just been allowed out of the hospital, where he was confined several weeks with typhoid fever, but is now regaining his former health. Mrs. Howard, sr., had a narrow escape from injury on Friday night last. Just as she was about to retire, a stone thrown with much force, crashed through the kitchen window, and passed within a few inches of her head. The culprit, if found out, will meet with just punishment. Rev. Mr. McLaren, of Brookville, preached in the Baptist church on Sunday, and made such a favorable impression, that an effort will be made to secure him as pastor. The Methodist p. i. t. was supplied by Mr. Geo. Simpson of Owen Sound, a talented young student, who has a promising future. Dundalk Fair drew many from here on Friday, and a load drove down to the concert in the evening. Mrs. M.K. Richardson has returned from visiting her daughter at Lucknow. Miss Gertrude Freeman, Chatsworth, has been the guest of Miss Mabel Boyd for a few days. Miss Freeman favored the Presbyterian and Methodist congregations with beautifully rendered solos on Sunday. Word was received here Saturday evening of the death of two highly respected old residents in the persons of Mrs. W.K. Flesher, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Dr. Sproule, Markdale, and Mrs. Sproule, widow of the late Mr. John Sproule, at the home of her brother, Lieut. Col. A.I. Campbell, Toronto. Mrs. Sproule's remains were brought here for interment in the family plot on Monday, and the funeral of Mrs. Flesher takes place here on Tuesday. One son, John, and two daughters, Mrs. Ansie and Mrs. Sproule survive Mrs. Flesher, who was 86 years of age; and two sons, Casper and Gus survive Mrs. Sproule, who was in her 80th year. Her son, Casper, teacher in Ridley College, accompanied the remains here. Mrs. Sproule was the first teacher in Flesherston Public school. Mr. Bile, teacher at Epping, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Hawken during the convention last week. Mr. Elmo Elkely was home from Orangeville over Sunday. Mrs. Habert has returned from visiting at Owen Sound. Mrs. Hislop, sr., relict of the late Mr. Adam Hislop, a highly respected woman, and one of the early settlers in Artemesia, passed away on Sunday, at the home of her son, Adam, near Eugenia. A Prize Contest open to the Farmers of Canada $3,600 in Cash Prizes for Farmers. READ the conditions of the Prize Contest we are conducting for the farmers of Canada. $400.00 in prizes will be awarded into four groups, consisting of: PRIZE "A"—$100.00 to be given to the farmer in each Province who will use during 1911 the greatest number of barrels of "CANADA" Cement. PRIZE "B"—$200.00 to be given to the farmer in each Province who uses "CANADA" Cement for the greatest number of purposes. PRIZE "C"—$100.00 to be given to the farmer in each Province who furnishes us with the photograph showing the best of any kind of work done on his farm during 1911 with "CANADA" Cement. PRIZE "D"—$100.00 to be given to the farmer in each Province who submits the best and most complete description of how any particular piece of work (shown by photograph sent in) was done. Every farmer in Canada is eligible. Therefore, do not be deterred from entering by any feeling that you would have little chance against your neighbor. For remember, Prizes "C" and "D" have no bearing whatever upon the quantity of cement used. As a matter of fact, your success in this contest will depend to a great extent on your careful reading of our 160-page book, "What the Farmer Can Do With Concrete." In this book—sent free on request to any farmer, full instructions are given as to the uses of concrete, and plans for every kind of farm buildings and farm utility. You'll see the need of this book, whether you are going to try for a prize or not. If you have not got your copy yet, write for it to-night. Simply cut off the attached coupon—or a postcard will do—sign your name and address thereto and mail it to-night. Please send Circular and Book. Name..... Address.....
