NEWS AROUND TOWN

The Liberal convention will be held here on Saturday, the 11th.

The Ontario Elections will be held on Monday, December, 11th. The nominations will be a week earlier.

The Conservatives have opened up their committee room in the Siegner building, next door to the telephone office.

Hallowe'en passed off pretty quietly. The fines of a year ago had an influence in keeping some of the boys out of mischief.

We referred last week to Mr. George Mighton having bought one of the Caton farms. Since then, he resold it to Mr. W. Scarf.

Hon. A. G. MacKay has resigned his position as leader of the Ontario Liberals. N. W. Rowell, K.C., of Toronto, has been appointed in his place.

We regret to learn of the death last week of Mrs. Thomas McRonald, of Mulock. We have not yet an obituary notice of the deceased lady.

Mrs. Wm. Walker, of Holstein, sister of Mr. Wm. Johnston, sr., here, died Thursday, and the remains will be interred at Maplewood cemetery on Saturday.

The annual meeting of the Durham Horticultural Society will be held in the town hall on Saturday evening, Nov. 4th, at eight o'clock sharp. All interested are cordially invited.—Jas. Lloyd, President; C. Firth, Secretary.

Rev. Mr. Wright will return from his vacation this week, and will conduct the usual services in the Methodist church next Sunday. The Quarterly Meeting will be held on the following Sunday, November 12th.

Mr. Wm. Johnston, at the cement works, had a couple of boarders for a week or so, and becoming suspicious of them, as he missed a few articles of underwear, he made them disrobe and return the missing articles before turning them adrift. They said they were from Toronto.

The anniversary service of the Varney Methodist church will be held on November 12th, at 10.30 a.m. and 7.30 p.m. Rev. Mr. Marshall, of Holstein, will conduct the services. On Monday evening, tea will be served in the hall from 6 to 8 p.m. A good program will be given. Admission 25 and 15c.

This is Saturday, and the paper is dated for Thursday. To report the entertainment, which took place in Allan's school Friday night under the auspices of St. Paul's church, we must put it something like this: "The entertainment held to-morrow night was the best they ever had. The attendance was good, and the proceeds gratifying." Our correspondent will give us a full account next week.

While working in the clay building, to-day at the Cement Works, Mr. Wm. Clark had a bank of clay fall on him which resulted in a broken ankle and some severe and painful bruises. We regret to learn of Mr. Clark's misfortune which will lay him off work for some time. Mr. Clark seems to be unfortunate having been affected once or twice from blood poisoning or something similar.

On Wednesday last about half past twelve a certain person, driving a single rig, bay horse, and wearing a light coat, light felt hat turned up behind, and name known, entered Hamilton Allen's blacksmith shop and took some articles off the wall. While he was doing so, a person sitting in the office at the rear of the shop, witnessed his actions through the window but made no alarm, thinking it better to make the culprit return the articles personally and explain his conduct, or be forced through exposure to pay the penalty by serving a term in prison. If the articles are not returned before the end of next week by the culprit personally, legal proceedings will be at once instituted. This is no bluff.

An auction sale of cows, two-year-olds, yearlings and calves, will be held on the premises of Mr. Robt. Brigham, Allan Park, on Friday, November 10th, commencing at 1 o'clock p.m. See bills for particulars.

Mr. J. W. Bengough, the famous cartoonist, will lecture in the town hall on the evening of Monday, November 13th, under the auspices of the Baptist church on the subject "How to Treat a Dry Subject in a Juicy Manner." The popular admission fee will be charged. Mr. Bengough is one of the most brilliant and well known cartoonists. Those who have heard him before will be glad to hear him again, and those who have never heard him will do well to hear him this time.

A report came in from Glenelg that a bear was supposed to be running around in the woods. A farmer's son couldn't get his horse to go into the bush, and the boy's father tried, but with no better success. The place was examined, and bear tracks discovered. A posse of town nimrods went out armed, but couldn't find bear or bear tracks, and after learning that a porcupine had been shot near the place they decided the game was all gone, and came home without their prey.

We intimated last week that we would be late this week as we had to install a new newspaper press. To erect a big press is no small job and we hope our delay will be borne with patience by all who have the privilege and we trust the pleasure of receiving the paper regularly every week. We admit that our local news is rather small in quantity and of very little account in quality but it will be better from now on. Many typographical errors will appear, but they are not all the result of ignorance on our part.

HYMENEAL

WILSON-BANKS.

The home of Mrs. R. H. Banks, of Edge Hill, was the scene of a happy event, on Thursday, October 12th when her seventh daughter, Winifred Thirza, was united in marriage with Mr. Herbert S. Wilson, of Durham, Rev. Mr. McCausland officiating in the absence of Rev. Mr. Wright, the bride's pastor. At eight o'clock in the evening to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by the bride's cousin, Miss Bertha Hamilton, the bride looking beautiful in a gown of white net, trimmed with Irish lace and pearls over liberty satin, with bridal veil and orange blossoms and carrying a bouquet of white roses, entered the parlor leaning on the arm of brother, J. H. Banks. The handsome bridesmaid, Miss Maud Banks, was dressed in white silk eoline and carried a bouquet of pink roses. The groom was ably supported by his brother, Sam Wilson. Alice Malcolm and Marion Boyd gowned in pink silk acted as flower girls.

After the wedding ceremony the guests, about one hundred in number, did ample justice to the sumptuous dinner, after which they were entertained by vocal and instrumental music, games and dancing. The young couple left Durham station on Friday morning amid a shower of rice and confetti and visited at Toronto, Hamilton and Hanover. After their return from their honeymoon they will take up their residence on Queen street, Durham.

The guests from a distance who attended the wedding were Miss B. Hamilton, Mr. E. Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Banks, Riverview, Mrs. and Dr. J. and Miss Alice Malcolm, Dallas, Wisconsin, Mr. and Mrs. W. Hunter, Mr. and Mrs. J. Murdock, Hanover, and a number of the groom's relatives from Mulock.

The many useful and valuable presents which the bride and groom received testify to the esteem in which they are held by their many friends.

The Chronicle joins in wishing the young couple many years of happiness and prosperity, and extends them a hearty welcome as citizens of the town.
