RHEUMATISM GONE, SAYS DETECTIVE KILLIN

Morrissey's No. 7 and Liniment Cured his Knee. "Feels good as new."

St. John, N.B., April 12, 1911.

"I am glad to report that my knee is completely cured of Rheumatism—thanks to Father Morrissey's No. 7 Rheumatism & Kidney Tablets, as they alone are responsible for my cure. I was troubled for a number of years, and tried everything I heard of, and needless to say, spent quite a sum of money without any results. I have no further trouble now, and my knee feels as good as new. I was personally acquainted with the late Father Morrissey and know his remedies are good. Any one suffering from Rheumatism and Kidney trouble should by all means try No. 7 Tablets, as I can cheerfully recommend them." PATRICK KILLIN, Provincial Detective, St. John, N.B.

The above prescription is not a "Cure All" or so-called patent medicine. Dr. Morrissey prescribed it for 44 years and it cured thousands after other doctors failed. Price, 50c. per box at your dealers, or Father Morrissey Medicine Co., Limited, Montreal.

Lesson VI.—Fourth Quarter, For Nov. 5, 1911.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, Est. iv, 10 to v, 3 Memory Verses, iv, 13, 14—Golden Text, Ps. cxlv, 20—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

As we have but one lesson in this wonderful portion of the Bible, we must try to get some idea of the whole book. It is the story of God watching over and providentially caring for His people, and, though He is not mentioned by name, He is seen working all through. The book ends most beautifully and suggestively with these words: "Mordecai the Jew was next unto King Ahasuerus and great among the Jews and accepted of the multitude of his brethren, seeking the wealth of his people and speaking peace to all his seed" (x, 3). We cannot but think of the kingdom of which this book is a historical and prophetic picture, illustrating the grace of God.

Amos vi, 10, and Deut. xxxi, 17, 18, may possibly throw some light on the absence of any name of God in the book, and yet the name of Jehovah is really there four times in the form of an acrostic in the initial or final letters of four words in chapters 1, 20; v, 4, 13; vii, 7. See Dr. Bullinger's booklet: This any one with Hebrew Bible can easily verify. It is said that Dr. Ginsburg has discovered three ancient MSS. in which these acrostic letters are written in larger characters and in more prominent form. The absence of the name in any ordinary form suggests the lines: "Oh, blessed is he to whom is given the instinct that can tell that God is on the field when He is most invisible" (Paber). "Most hidden, yet most manifest" (Augustine). Some one has said that it is the story of the people of God delivered from death by a mediator of the highest rank, who undertakes the greatest danger and is mysteriously one of them. The time of the story is supposed to be between Ez. vi and vii. The principal truth seems to be that there is a God in history working out His good pleasure through human lives and ordinary means. As one has said, "All history is His story." God and the devil are seen in conflict from Gen. iii to Rev. xx. Here it is Haman as the devil's man and Mordecai and Esther on the Lord's side.

Thus far in the story, up to our lesson today, we see the greatness of an earthly king and the magnificence of his kingdom; his ill treatment of a noble woman, put away, but remembered; the choice of another who required nothing but what was appointed for her (v, 19; ii, 1, 15); the faithful and unwavering interest of her guardian, Mordecai; the promotion of Haman and his plot to kill all the Jews. This brings us to the intercession of Esther in the lesson of today, in which she took the place of death to save the lives of her people (iv, 11). Our mediator actually died in our stead to deliver us from the curse of the law (Gal. iii, 13; iv, 4, 5). The words in iv, 14, "Who knoweth whether thou art come to the kingdom for such a time as this?" make us think of the words of the Lord Jesus, "For this cause came I unto this hour." "For this cause came I into the world" (John xii, 27; xviii, 37). If we are redeemed by the precious blood of Christ we may be certain that all our life is planned for us according to Eph. ii, 10, and concerning every occasion or opportunity we may be sure that it has been prepared for us; that in it, by dying to self, we may make manifest the life of Jesus (d) Cor. iv, 10, 11; I Sam. x, 7).

If we are unwilling He will choose some willing vessel to accomplish his purpose, and the loss will be ours.

Esther sent word to Mordecai that he and all the Jews in Shushan should join her and her maidens in a three days' fast and then she would go into the presence of the king on behalf of her people, even if it should mean death to her (v, 15-17). On the third day she went to the king and obtained favor in his sight and the assurance that he would do for her whatever she asked, even to the half of his kingdom. Our Mediator, who is now in the presence of God for us, has given us all that is His and made us joint heirs with Himself. He takes every truly penitent sinner into full partnership with Himself, blotting out all that was against us and putting all His righteousness to our account, because He died for our sins and rose again the third day. If any are perplexed by the three days and nights of the body of Jesus Christ in the tomb and cannot work it in between Friday and the first day of the week let them find the key to the real meaning of the time in this story. They were to fast three days, night and day, and yet on the third day (not the fourth) she went to the king (v, 18; v, 1).

The rest of the Esther story is thrilling as we read of Haman's gallows for Mordecai, his supposition that he was the man whom the king would delight to honor, the king's sleepless night, the record found in the book of the Chronicles concerning Mordecai, Haman's being compelled to do to Mordecai what he had longed to have done to himself, then his being hanged on the gallows he had prepared for Mordecai.

How grand the statements of chapters viii, 16; ix, 3, margin. "The Jews had light, gladness and joy and honor." "Those who did the business that belonged to the king helped the Jews."
