"A Happy New Year to You and Yours"

NEWS AROUND TOWN

For anything in the music line go to Macfarlane's Drug Store.

When you want a keg of good herrings, go to Mrs. A. Beggs & Son.

A car of Five Roses flour, bran and shorts, due to arrive next week. Mrs. A. Beggs & Son.

Woolen mitts and leather covered mitts, men's gauntlets and suede gloves, at Grant's.

Trinity church Sunday school have secured Mr. Clarke for their entertainment in the town hall, Durham, January 2nd, 1912.

The subject of the sermon in the Methodist church next Sunday evening will be "Vote as you pray."

Anniversary services in the Methodist church, January 7th, conducted by Rev. A. K. Birks, a former pastor.

Mrs. Fred Buckingham cut her finger badly while removing the top from a sealer. Two or three stitches were necessary to close the wound.

Mr Thomas Greenwood, of Edge Hill has invested in two thoroughbred Aberdeen Angus cows, recently purchased from Col. Varcoe, of Goderich, one of the leading breeders in Ontario.

We are compelled to omit a lot of correspondence, school reports, nominations and other interesting matter, but it is really not our fault. We are fully convinced that a poor unreliable man is dear at any price.

The Winter Term in the Elliott Business College, of Toronto, opens on January 2nd. This popular college enjoys a large and wide-spread attendance. A handsome catalogue is mailed free to all desiring a first-class business or shorthand education.

Do not forget the entertainment in the town hall on Tuesday evening of next week, under the auspices of Trinity Sunday school.
Mr. Robt. Clarke, of Toronto, assisted by the Sunday school children, and others, will provide a good program. Admission 15c. and 10c.

Mr. Wm. Atkinson and Miss Margaret Young were married yesterday at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Young.
The young couple left by the afternoon train for a short trip to Toronto. On return they will take up their home on his fine farm in Genelg, known as the "Farr" property. Congratulations and best wishes for a long and prosperous life.

A meeting of the Durham branch of the Women's Institute will be held in the town hall, Durham, on January 3rd, at 2 p.m. A report of the Toronto convention will be given by Mrs. J. W. Blyth, and Mrs. Woelard, of Toronto will address the meeting on "Canning Fruit" and will give a demonstration on fancy work. Mrs. Woelard will also address an evening meeting. All ladies are cordially invited to attend these meetings.

The Durham Poultry Association purpose holding their annual exhibition in the town hall, Durham, on Wednesday and Thursday, January 17th and 18th. A Government lecturer will deliver two lectures on Thursday at 2.30 and 8 p.m.
Liberal cash prizes and specials will be awarded. Doors open to the public on Wednesday, from 6 to 10 p.m., and all day Thursday.
Admission 10c. W. Black is the President of the Association, and W. J. Macdonald, Secretary.

The N. Machan's opera troupe is playing this week in the town hall, to fair sized audiences, considering the weather conditions.
The show is a good one, and well deserving of patronage, being of high-class calibre, and free of obnoxious features. Mr. Machan was here four years ago, and thinks Durham a good show town for its size. Besides operatic sketches and vaudeville acts, a superior class of motion pictures is put on. The admission fees of 10c and 25c, is a popular one, and patrons get the value of their money.

All kinds of saws gummed at the foundry.

Black and tan kid gloves in sizes from 5/8 to 7/8, at Grant's.

We regret to report that Mr.
Harry Williams is seriously ill at the home of his sister-in-law, Mrs.
Neil McKechnie, where he visited on Christmas, and has been unable to return to his home at Edge Hill.

Names of the Model students that obtained Honor standing are arranged in order of merit: Cassie Wright, Hanover; Annie C. Clarke, Aberdeen; Hazel Willis, Allan Park; Nellie Hepburn, Durham; Laura Murphy, Owen Sound.

Rev. Wm. Kettlewell preached in the Baptist church last Sunday morning, spoke in the town hall Sunday afternoon, to men only, and on Sunday night after church services closed, to a packed town hall. All addresses were in the interests of the temperance party.

The Canadian Jubilee Singers appeared here Christmas night, under Methodist auspices, and rendered an excellent program.
There was a fine blending of voices in the several choruses, and the individual selections were very highly appreciated. The attendance was rather small. The proceeds amounted to about $55.

Anniversary and Thank-offering services will be held in the Methodist church, Durham, on Sunday the 7th of January 1912. Sermons both morning and evening by Rev.
A. K. Birks, B.A., LL.B., a former pastor. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

On Wednesday night, Mr. Clarke, the Police Magistrate of Orillia, delivered a forceful address in the Presbyterian church. The attendance was rather small, as no information had been received of his coming till he arrived on the afternoon train. He was accompanied by Mrs. Stanbury, and her son, Master Douglas Stanbury, the famous boy singer, of Toronto.
It may be interesting to many of our readers to know that Mrs.
Stanbury was the "Fairy" Morgan, who assisted her blind father, Prof.
Morgan, in getting up school entertainments over twenty years ago. Master Douglas is certainly a boy wonder as a vocalist. Mr.
Clarke is an enthusiast in favor of local option.

FIFTY YEARS MARRIED

Mr. and Mrs. Donald McDonald, of Bruce street celebrated their Golden wedding on Christmas day.
The event should have been commemorated on the 20th of November but was postponed so as to have a number of members of the family present on the occasion.

They were married on the 20th of November 1861 in Collingwood by Rev. Mr. Sylvester. Mr. McDonald was born in Scotland 80 years ago and Mrs. McDonald in Nottawasaga about ten years later.

The members of the family are Mrs. Henry Alexander, Dornoch, Dougald, of Mulock, Mrs. Graham, of Hamilton, Mrs. Thibaudau, of Lacombe, Alta., John and Dan in Durham, Max, in Lacombe, Alta., and Mrs. McAlister, in Hamilton.
All except Max and Mrs. Thibaudeau were in attendance, and the present consisted of a well-filled purse.

A social program was given in the evening, consisting of songs and recitals by some of the grandchildren, an organ having been loaned for the occasion by Mr.
Wm. McFadden. We congratulate the aged couple, and hope they may yet be spared for many years.

We have been late for a number of weeks owing to inefficient help and a continued rush of work.
We fully expected to get out in reasonable time this issue, but Billy Roberts left Saturday afternoon to spend Christmas with his parents in Mount Forest, promised faithfully to be back Monday night. On Tuesday morning we received a telephone message saying he was sick. We haven't seen him since, nor heard of his death.
We hope soon to see a change, whether Billy gets better or not.

HYMENEAL

STERNALL—DONALDSON.

A very pretty, but quiet wedding took place on Christmas Day, at Rosebank Farm, Drew, the bride's parental home, when Miss Orilla Myrtle Donaldson, of Durham, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Noah H. Sternall, also of Durham. Rev. B. Eyre, B.
A., very ably performed the ceremony. At eleven o'clock, to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Miss Pansy Ed-lickson, the bride, leaning on the arm of her father, took her place under an artistic bower of evergreen, holly and fern. The bride looked very charming in a gown of cream silk dotted crystalline, trimmed with lace, satin and pearls. After the ceremony, all repaired to the dining room where a sumptuous repast was gracefully served. The bride's brother from Saskatchewan was home for the occasion. The following day, amid showers of rice and confetti, the happy couple left for a short honeymoon. The bride's going away costume was black silk, trimmed with silk lace, and large beaver hat with white duchess plume. Mr. and Mrs. Sternall will take up their residence in Durham.

SMITH—ECCLES.

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs.
James Eccles, Dromore, on the evening of Wednesday, December 20, when their youngest daughter, Jessie, became the wife of John Smith, of Conn. A large number of relatives and friends of the bride and groom were present, and witnessed the marriage ceremony, remaining afterwards for the reception which followed. The groom was assisted by his brother Robert, while the bride's only attendant was her sister Euphemia, who acted as bridesmaid. Rev. G.
Kendall, pastor, was the officiating minister. The house was prettily decorated throughout, and presented a festive and attractive appearance.

Promptly at four o'clock, the youthful bride, preceded by the bridesmaid, appeared, leaning on the arm of her father, who gave her away, the bride took her place under an arch of evergreens and white carnations, while the wedding march was being played by Mrs. Adam Eccles.

Immediately after the marriage ceremony was performed, Mrs.
Adam Eccles played and sang the usual bridal hymn, "The Voice that Breathes O'er Eden."

The dainty wedding gown was a white net over white silk, trimmed with bands and cupral trimmings.
She wore a bridal veil, caught up with white carnations, and maiden hair ferns, her travelling suit being navy blue ladies cloth, with net waist, and hat of blue beaver, with white willow plume.

The bridesmaid was daintily dressed in Alice blue silk, trimmed with allover lace and white fringe, and carried respectively a shower bouquet of white and pink carnations and maiden hair ferns.

A dainty supper was served in the dining room, which was prettily decorated with evergreens and flowers.

The groom's gift to the bride was an organ, and to the bridesmaid a gold brooch set with pearls.

They left on their wedding trip to Toronto, Ottawa and other points. On their return they will reside on the groom's farm near Conn.

Among those from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Adam Eccles, and Rossie, of Galt; Mr. and Mrs.
Sam. Cornett, and Mr. Chas. Mc.
Montgomery, of Dundalk; Mr. and Miss Eldsley and Miss Mitchell, of Mt. Forest.

The presents were numerous and costly, showing the high esteem in which the young couple were held.

A lengthy program of speech, song and recitation, were afterwards given. Prof. Kyle contributed a number of selections, both vocal and instrumental, to the enjoyment of the occasion, as did many others. After many well wishes to the young married couple, the guests dispersed at an early hour.
