A trial which created a great his more fortunate brother. deal of interest was held in the Orange Hall, Ceylon, on Wednesday evening of last week, before a bench of four magistrates, viz.. Messrs. James McMullen, J. Boyd, Mark Armstrong, and R. McGill. The complainant was License Inspector Halbert, and the defendant A. Munshaw, of Flesherton. The charge was one of obstructing an officer in the discharge of his duty. The alleged offense occurred when High County Constable Cook undertook to locate contrabrand booze in the Munshaw House, and requested Munshaw to take up a portion of the floor in order that he might see what was beneath. Mr. Munshaw refused to do this, but gave the the job himself. This Constable Cook declined to do, and invited Inspector Halbert to lay a charge MY FARM NEAR GLASCOTT. Mrs. A. R.
