Seventeen Injured in Wreck.

Continued from page 1. The wreck occurred at the same place as the freight wreck of three years ago, when three or four cars of clay were overturned into the ditch. The spot is not particularly dangerous, the freight being derailed by the bursting of a car wheel, while the wreck of Friday was caused, as previously stated, by a broken rail. As an examination of the break showed it to be a clean one, the wreck was entirely unavoidable, and no blame can be attached to anyone.

ALL THE INJURED ARE OUT OF DANGER

Mt. Forest, March 10—All those injured in the G.T.R. wreck at Varney are now doing well. Mr. C. L. Stevens, the Strathroy traveller, whose injuries were at first regarded as serious, is now out of danger, according to the Strathcona hospital authorities to-night. He took a change for the better on Saturday evening, and has continued to mend. His wife is with him. Mr. and Mrs. Stevens were married two weeks ago.

Mrs. E. W. Pike, of Pall Mall St., London, has also arrived. Mr. Pike's injuries consist of a broken collar bone and three broken ribs. He is also suffering from shock. Mr. J. A. Coles, of London, left yesterday for his home.

MR SIMM'S STORY

St. Mary's, March 9.—John F. Simms, traveller for the McCormick Co. of London, whose home is here with his widowed mother in the west ward, who was in the G.T.R. wreck at Varney, near Durham, yesterday afternoon, was interviewed by The Free Press to-day, and found with his left leg badly bruised, left arm, shoulders and back hurt, and almost paralyzed, and his right thumb badly cut. He is badly shaken up, and all un-nerved.

"The same leg that I had fractured in a runaway accident in 1908 is the one now injured," he said. "The train left Durham at 2:45 p.m. yesterday afternoon. The accident occurred about three o'clock and the train was apparently running about 20 miles an hour. The first intimation I had of anything happening, the car was running on the ties.

"There were four of us travelers in a seat. I then noticed the car was in turning over, and I grabbed the bottom of two car seats with my hands, and held on for a time, and in the second turn-over going down the embankment, something hit me on the back and knocked me loose. And I was suddenly thrown to the side of the car, and then a fence post came up through and the car stopped. I must have become unconscious, as I remembered nothing afterwards but was told I was pulled out from underneath two broken car seats by some persons who came to our rescue. The whole matter seemed only a few seconds, I did not remember anything after the car turned over the first time."

A BANDIT CAPTURED.

A despatch from Pembina, N.D., tells of a thrilling experience of Alex. Copeland and family a couple of weeks ago at their home on the Marriars river, near the Manitoba-Dakota boundary. Mr. Copeland is a brother of Thomas Copeland, of the 14th concession of Proton, and lived here in the early days of the township.

The despatch says: "After an exciting chase by Canadian and United States officials, a bandit giving his name as Dan Rice, of Texas, late to-day was captured in the bush between Pembina, N.D., and Joliette. Rice is accused of holding up Alexander Copeland, his son, Thomas, and a daughter. "The bandit appeared at the Copeland farm early in the day and finding the son at the barn bound him with ropes. He next went to the house, where he tied up the father and daughter, and then looted the place. Returning to the barn, he freed Thomas, made him aid him in hitching a horse, and fled in the direction of Pembina. Both Canadian and United States officials joined in the chase and captured Rice shortly after he had abandoned the sleigh. The stolen articles were recovered.

DROPPED DEAD IN HARNESS.

A valuable driver belonging to Mr. Geo. Craig of Brant dropped dead near the exhibition grounds here on Monday noon. Hitched to a cutter and traveling at its usual gait, the horse suddenly reared up at the exhibition grounds here and falling on the road expired almost immediately in the harness. As Mr. Craig had purchased the animal last spring for $250, the mishap is quite a misfortune to him. —Bruce Herald and Times.

MANY AFTER THE JOB.

The death of Registrar Dack here makes vacant one of the most desirable public positions in the county of Bruce, and as might be expected, many claimants are improving their time hustling for the job. Besides many lesser lights who make up the rank and file of the applicants, there are such outstanding figures on the list as Dr. R. E. Clapp, ex-M.P.P., Mr. W. H. Macfarlane, defeated candidate in Centre Bruce, and Mr. H. A. Vandusen, who unsuccessfully contested the North. While all or nearly all of them are more or less qualified for the job, yet their merits and claims are like the stars which we are told differ in glory one from the other. The man who would seem to have the strongest claim on the Government's attention is Dr. Clapp, who has the distinction of being the only Conservative who ever carried South Bruce since Confederation. He ran three campaigns in the interests of his party, and during the term he served in the House put some useful legislation on the books. If there is anything in public gratitude and political reward Dr. Clapp should end his days in a soft berth.—Bruce Herald and Times.

A STRONG PAIR.

We call the attention of all newspaper readers in this town and district to the fact that we have made special arrangements with The Weekly Mail and Empire, Toronto, to combine with our paper at a popular bargain price. We here offer The Weekly Mail and Empire, and The Durham Chronicle the two together, for one year at the nominal rate of $1.55 to include FREE a large portrait of the Right Hon. R. L. Borden, 18x24 inches, which will be sent postpaid to every subscriber who takes advantage of the proposition.

Now here is a chance to obtain the two most useful papers to readers in our community and we state this advisedly, for The Weekly Mail and Empire is conceded to be the greatest home and fireside paper published in the Dominion, while The Chronicle, covering as it does, all the local news, and advocating the best interests of this important district, will best serve all residents within the horizon of our circulation.

YOUNG THIEVES ROUNDED UP.

A promising gang of young thieves has been unearthed, and, it is to be hoped, broken up. Some time ago, Mr. J. L. Flarity's tailor shop was entered, and a quantity of goods stolen; but though the police were put on the case, they were unable to track the thieves. Sunday night thieves broke into Mr. Geo. McSween's place of business and stole a quantity of cloth, and the police were up against another puzzle, almost exactly like the first. This time, they were more successful, and Wednesday morning the members of the gang faced the Police Magistrate. All pleaded guilty to the crime against Mr. McSween, and two of them also admitted having been concerned in the Flarity theft. On returning most of the stolen goods and promising to pay for the rest, they were allowed to go on suspended sentence. —Owen Sound Sun.

LEWIS FOUND THE MONEY.

Something over a week ago, Mr. Wm. Blakey had the misfortune to lose three five-dollar bills from his pocket-book on the way to Proton Station, and expected that the money was past recovery, but Mr. Lewis Hill had heard of the loss, and decided to keep his eye open. The result was that last Monday his eagle optic orb sighted the little greenwad, and in a short time it was returned to the grateful owner.—Flesherton Advance.

Further reports received to-day at Grand Trunk Pacific headquarters go to show that so far as the Transcontinental is concerned the situation is well in hand. Vinity Sask. reports that there has at no time been a car shortage there. Low price of grain and the fact that about 40 per cent. remains unthreshed has made trade very dull and collections poor.

Melville, Sask., reports as follows: "No car shortage or grain blockade has been experienced here this winter," and a visit to the elevators shows that both are almost empty.

While the Grand Trunk Pacific has relieved the local situation and that on the branch lines out of here, considerable difficulty is being experienced in the delivery at Fort William, or in other words the spout is too small an outlet. We were informed that it has always been from six to eight weeks this winter before returns have been received, and this has had its bad effect on trade and collections generally.

Biggar, Sask., also reports in the same strain. "Taken all round, the situation is of the brightest, no car shortage is reported, and grain moves right along. The elevator is handling all the time and is shipping out regularly. No one is being held up at all. In some few instances, perhaps, the returns have been slow in coming back, but after slow enquiries made we can learn of no detriment to local conditions from this source. Collections are about as good as in former years and indeed in some lines are better. The only slackness is due to want of careful attention to business on the part of the farmers."
