SACKETT'S CORNERS

Our first spring month is here and we welcome it, after such a long, hard winter. The weather is fine at present, but we have lots of snow here yet, and it would be as well if it stayed a couple of weeks yet, then the frost would be pretty well over.

Herman Haw had a very successful sale on March 5th. Cows went as high as $65, sheep $12 and $13 each.

John Hill, of Boothville, has moved on his farm at New England, formerly the Schenk farm. Mr. Schenk has moved a few miles further south. They are both quiet and industrious men. We wish them health and prosperity.

What we would like to know.—How long will it be before we get rural free delivery?

Mr. Donnelly, of Hanover, visited at Mr. Geo. Lane's, of this place.

Mr. Neil McFadden's sale took place on the 27th of February, and was a success. Good value received for them that bought.

Mr. Herman Haw is leaving for the west on Monday, the 11th. His two sons, and Wesley Lane are going the next day. We wish them a safe journey and hope they may all prosper.

ALL SPORTS SHOULD BE CLEAN.

In all sports there should be the cultivation of the highest instincts. Manly sport is the only noble sport. Any team or boy seeking flukes and flim-flams by which to win applause or victory or the most minor of conquests is sure to be ground out by the gods into a most infinitesimal man. Look out for the boy who steals an advantage. Bank your fortune on him who is loyal to truth and to fair play and to honor on the stirring fields of combat.

EUGENIA HYDRO-ELECTRIC.

The hydro-electric surveyors who have been working at Eugenia for some time had to postpone operations last week, owing to deep snow. The work will again be resumed when the snow disappears. This work is developing into something much more gigantic than was at first anticipated. The whole river from Eugenia to Faversham a distance of nine or ten miles, will be under control of the Commission for storage purposes, and the water area at Eugenia dam is expected to be about 2 1/4 by 3 miles. This will hold an enormous body of water. It is said that the costly tunnel driven through the mountain at Eugenia will never be used, but that the water will be dropped into the valley farther north, where a much greater head can be secured. The work is developing into such a large affair, that it will take several years to complete, unless a very large force of men is employed in construction when the estimates are in.—Advance.

WALKERTON MAN FINED FOR SELLING LIQUOR.

W. M. Bush of Walkerton, who was charged with selling liquor without a license in Southampton, pleaded guilty to the offense, and on Friday last was assessed $100 and costs by Magistrate Andrew McIntosh, of Southampton. The fine, while a stiff one, is the lowest sum defined by the statutes for such an offense, thus showing the effort the Government is making to stamp out the illicit sale of booze. Southampton, where Bush committed his offense, is under local option, its citizens having voted it dry some years ago, and no licenses are consequently issued for the irrigation of thirsts there. O.E. Klein was to have appeared for the prosecution, and lawyer McNab, of Walkerton, for the offense, but on Bush pleading guilty the threatened legal battle didn't come off.—Bruce Herald and Times.

A BALD-HEADED WOMAN

Shorn of Her Crown of Beauty, Loses in Love and Marriage.

Loses in Love and Marriage. Hair is certainly most necessary to woman. Who could love and marry a bald headed woman? What charms could one array to offset such a disfigurement?

A woman's goal is usually love and marriage. Her crowning glory is her hair. The loss of her hair mars her beauty, happiness and success. Yet right here in Durham, there are many women who are neglecting or injuring their hair to such an extent that it is only a matter of time when it will be utterly ruined.

Many women destroy the beauty of their hair through thoughtlessness or ignorance of certain facts. They use curling irons over-heated, or to excess which destroys the natural oil of the hair, causing it to split, break and come out. They do not shampoo their hair often enough, or too often. They use soaps or preparations which contain ingredients positively harmful to the scalp and hair.

As a result of such treatment, dandruff is created, the hair loosens, loses color, falls out, and baldness commences, unless proper and prompt precautions are taken in time. Then again, microbes and certain diseases bring about unhealthy scalp and hair conditions.

Almost any woman may rid herself of dandruff and diseased scalp and hair if she will but use the right remedy. We have that remedy, and we will positively guarantee that it will either cure dandruff and baldness or it will not cost the user anything.

That's a pretty broad statement but we will back it and prove it with our own money. We will return your money if you do not find that Rexall "93" Hair Tonic is an entirely satisfactory remedy that will promote hair growth and overcome scalp and hair troubles: that it will grow hair, even on bald heads, unless all life in the hair roots has been extinguished, the follicles closed, and the scalp is glazed and shiny. It gets its name from the fact that it grew hair in 93 out of 100 cases, where it received a thoroughly hard, impartial and practical test.

We want you to try Rexall "93" Hair Tonic at our risk. You surely cannot lose anything by doing so, while you have everything to gain. You had better think this over, and then come in and see us about this offer. You will be well repaid for your visit to our store. Remember, you can get Rexall Remedies in this community only at our store—The Rexall Store, Macfarlane & Co.

CURED BY AN ANGEL.

London is interested in the case of Dorothy Kerin, of Herne Hill, a short distance from London, who claims that she has been restored to health and regained her hearing and sight as the result of an angel's visit. She has now been removed to the residence of Dr. Ash, a nerve specialist, in order to enable a study to be made of her case, and to get away from the crowds which have been visiting her home, after the people had learned of the angel's visit. The girl claims that she saw a visit of a flame, and heard a voice saying, "Thy sufferings are over" and that she was able to get up and walk. Miss Kerin, who is 22 years old, has been bedridden for five years with a mild attack of tuberculosis. Recently she became blind and deaf. She now sees and hears, and is able to stand up. Many physicians who examined her case, are inclined to the opinion that the cure was effected by auto-suggestion, through her intense emotional state and that this caused the vision. Her account of the angelic vision which restored her senses and relieved her pain, is ascribed to hysteria by skeptics, but the facts of the recovery are beyond dispute.

DEATH OF MRS. McCANN.

Mrs. McCann, relict of the late Michael McCann, passed away on the 12th February at the advanced age of 87 years. Mrs. McCann had been a resident of Holland township for sixty years, and had consequently been familiar with the hardships and privations of pioneer life. She was a native of Donegal, Ireland. Her husband died twenty years ago. Of her family three survive, John McCann, Miss Mary, and Mrs. W.J. Black, all of Holland. She had been a life-long Methodist. Interment took place at Mount Pleasant cemetery, Revs. Wilkinson and Phalen officiating. The pall bearers were Messrs. Jas. Welsh, Robt. English, Jas. Rowe, Jas. Dixon, James Madill and Herbert Ewart.—Markdale Standard.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

Lesson XI.—First Quarter, For March 17, 1912.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, Mark ii, 1-12 Memory Verses, 9-11—Golden Text, Ps. ciii, 2, 3—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

After the healing of the leper great multitudes came together to hear Him and to be healed by Him of their infirmities. We can hardly imagine the innumerable happy homes, because where once sickness and suffering ruled now all is health and peace because of Him who, being anointed with the Holy Ghost and with power went about doing good and healing all that were oppressed of the devil, God being with Him (Acts x, 38). See in this verse, as in so many others, the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, all for us, and compare Rom. viii, 26, 31-34. In Luke v, 16, we read that He withdrew Himself into the wilderness and prayed. There was always a conscious oneness with the Father which we do not experience, because He always in all things pleased the Father (John viii, 29; Matt. xvii, 5). The healing of today's lesson is recorded in Matt. ix and Luke v, as well as in Mark. Having returned to Capernaum, the people soon found it out, and such crowds gathered as to prevent all access to the house in any ordinary way. Pharisees and doctors of the law from Galilee, Judea and Jerusalem had gathered to hear Him, and He preached the word unto them, and the power of the Lord was present to heal them (verse 2; Luke v, 17). But in their own estimation they needed no healing, for they did not know that with all their learning they were wretched and miserable and poor and blind and naked (Rev. iii, 17). The religious god of this world, the devil, had blinded their minds lest the light should shine unto them (II Cor. iv, 4). What a contrast to their proud self sufficiency and indifference to the welfare of others is seen in these four men who brought their palsied friend to Jesus, no doubt fully persuaded that if they could only reach Him with the sick one they would not need to carry him away, for he would certainly be healed. I have met people who were afraid that they had not come to Jesus in the right way, but did ever any one come to Him in so strange a way as this? I have often wondered what the Pharisees and doctors thought of having the roof broken up over their heads, yet we cannot help laughing within us, no matter how they might scowl, for the friends succeeded in getting him "into the midst before Jesus" (Luke v, 19). In each of the three accounts it is written that Jesus saw their faith, the faith of the four who brought him. So in Matt. viii, 10; xv, 28; John iv, 50, it was the faith of another that brought health to the servant, the daughter and the son. May the words in Ps. xx, 4, 5, "Grant thee according to thine own heart and fulfill all thy counsel, * * * all thy petitions," strengthen some to lay hold upon God for others. In Matt. ix, 2, we have the first "Be of good cheer" from the lips of the Lord. See our four in Matt. ix, 22; xiv, 27; John xvi, 33; Acts xxiii, 11. The four words are in the Greek, just one word of six letters, but what a word, and from Him who alone is able really to cheer or comfort us. Then hear what follows, "Thy sins are forgiven thee." This is what the man needed more than health for his body. I heard it for my own soul in the summer of 1873 from I John ii, 12, with John i, 12. Have you heard Him say it to you? If not, why? There can be no real comfort without it. The scribes and Pharisees began to reason in their hearts: "This man is a blasphemer. Who can forgive sins but God only?" If they had thought, "This must be God come down to earth, for only God can forgive sins," they would have been correct, but to them He was only a man, a man of the common people and a blasphemer. Knowing their thoughts, He read them aloud to them, and we might suppose that this would have led them to see in Him more than a mere man, but they were thoroughly blinded by the god of this world. Then, announcing Himself as the Son of man having power on earth to forgive sins, He said to the sick man, "Arise and take up thy bed and go thy way into thine house." Immediately he did as he was bidden, and they were all amazed and glorified God, saying, "We never saw it in this fashion." "We have seen strange things today" (verse 12; Luke v, 26). We may imagine the four friends rejoicing greatly and saying to others that is what we expected. Are we giving the Lord cause to say to us, "O ye of little faith," or, "Great is thy faith, be it unto thee even as thou wilt." His calling Himself "Son of Man" might have led them to think of Ps. vii and of one who was to have all things subdued unto Him, or of Dan. vii, 13, 14, and of one whose dominion would be an everlasting dominion never to be destroyed. If we have our sins forgiven we will in due time have perfect bodies like His resurrection body (Phil. iii, 20, 21), so that we can well afford to rejoice while in these mortal bodies, whether in health or sickness, waiting for the resurrection body. All miracles may be called acted parables, and in this palsied man we may see the utter helplessness of the sinner to do any thing for himself, but Jesus is still the same compassionate one and ready to forgive sins by virtue of His great sacrifice for the sins of the world.
