LIMBURGER CHEESE.

When first I noticed on the breeze the perfume of Limburger cheese, in my hot haste I sternly cried: "Some animal has surely died!" Too often thus we judge things by externals greeting nose or eye, and often does the vain galoot skip luscious dates for Dead Sea fruit. - The Limburger cheese for many years, I held to scorn with ribald jeers, and when a chunk of it was passed I put my nose in plaster cast. But all that glitters is not gold, and handsome feet are sometimes cold, and blushing roses have their thorns, and lovely girls complain of corns. And, likewise, on the other hand, the cheese that smells to beat the band, belies its loud, aggressive scent, and comforts you to such extent, that you, or any other man, become at once a Limburger fan. It is a nipping, eager cheese, that warms you up from neck to knees, and cheers your stomach till it feels like kicking up its joyous heels. Its fragrance once I did detest, but now from Araby the blest there comes no incense-laden air that with Limburger can compare. And thus we see, my friends and foes, we cannot trust our eyes and nose, which deal in roor-backs day by day, and lead our twinkling feet astray. -Walt Mason.

ZAM BUK IN THE HOME

Read How Useful it Proved in These Widely Different Cases

Zam-Buk's strongest point is its effectiveness in all kinds of skin diseases and injuries. Just note how excellent these persons proved it in widely different directions.

Sore Heel.—Mrs. C. A. Campbell, of Powassan, Ont., writes, "One of my heels was very badly blistered by a pair of new shoes, and the poisonous dye from my stocking got into it, and made a bad sore. For a week I could not put on a shoe, and suffered great pain. I applied Zam-Buk and in a few days it drew the poison out and healed the wound."

Bad Cut.—Mrs. J. Virgint, of Onondaga, Ont., writes, "Zam-Buk healed a bad cut which I sustained, I was hurrying across my yard one day when I slipped and fell heavily, my knee striking a sharp stone. At the moment I did not realize how badly I was hurt, but I found I had a bad cut about two inches long very jagged and very deep. We bathed the cut and applied Zam-Buk. This stopped the smarting very quickly, and in a few days it healed the wound completely. For cuts and bruises Zam-Buk is a splendid remedy."

Eczema Cured.—Mrs. Antoine Arsenault, of Maxiamville, P. E. L., writes, "I can highly recommend Zam-Buk to any person suffering from Eczema, I had this disease and was under doctor's treatment for two years without any good result. I then tried Zam-Buk and in the end it cured me."

Zam-Buk is just as good for piles, blood-poison, festering sores, pimples, eruptions, cuts, burns, bruises and all skin injuries and diseases, 50c. box, all druggists and stores, or post free for price from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto. Try Zam-Buk Soap, 25c. tablet.

SIXTY YEARS MARRIED.

Few married couples live to celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding, and it is still a rarer occurrence to meet with those who have spent three score years together in the relationship of husband and wife, yet there resides in Beeton a couple who have that distinction. Mr. and Mrs. James Wallace, Prospect St., who on Tuesday reached the sixtieth anniversary of their wedding day. On March 19th, 1852, James Wallace, and Marion Thomson Walker of Glasgow, Scotland, were united in marriage. Both were born and raised in that city and after their marriage, continued to reside there until the year 1871, when they came with their family to Canada, settling near Parry Sound, where they lived for a number of years. After leaving Parry Sound he conducted a woolen mill, first at Hillsdale, and afterwards at Wyebridge. In 1898 he came to Beeton, and purchased the Canadian Hosiery factory, which he conducted up to a year ago. Since that time he has been in failing health, and for the past six months has been confined to the house and the greater part of the time to his bed. Mr. Wallace is now in his 85th year. Mrs. Wallace is nearing 89 and is still a hale woman, with the prospect of adding a number of years to her already great age. Ten years ago Mr. and Mrs. Wallace celebrated their golden wedding, at which all the members of their family were present.—Beeton World.

Your Son's Education

Probably you wish to send your son to an agricultural college. As it creates an inducement for him to stay on a farm, it is a good investment.
