PROMINENT RAILROAD MAN

STRONGLY ADVISES HIS FRIENDS TO TRY GIN PILLS FOR THE KIDNEYS "I have been a Pullman Conductor on the C. P. R. and Michigan Central during the last three years. About four years ago, I was laid up with intense pains in the groin, a very sore back, and suffered most severely when I tried to urinate. I treated with my family physician for two months for gravel in the bladder but did not receive any benefit. About that time, I met another railroad man who had been similarly affected and who had been cured by taking Gin Pills, after having been given up by a prominent physician who treated him for Diabetes. He is now running on the road and is perfectly cured. He strongly advised me to try Gin Pills which I did,—with the result that the pains left me entirely.

The word "country" does not to our English mind convey anything like a correct impression of those vast and desolate regions that lie behind the Tripolitan coast line and stretch in endless repetition across the great Sahara to the marshes of Lake Tchad. It is not a country, it is the waterless bed of a dead ocean, the sands of which have been blown into mountain ridges by a million years of wind ever blowing in the same direction.

To live-to exist in such a regionrequires untiring energy, a constitution of iron, and a spirit capable of bearing the unkindest blows of fate with equanimity. The Arabs of the recommend them to all sufferers found the basement a mass of grove, may be blotted out of existence

Essence of Good Cooking.

The essence of good cooking lies in four things—the ability to preserve, develop, improve and vary the flavor to make a whole pot of vegetables redolent of it. Conversely, they use all sorts of vegetables to impart their unique flavor to meats - in soups, stews, sauces and the water in which meat or fish is boiled. The combinations and variations are endless. An English epicure declares that the secret of the excellence of French cookery lies in the lavish use made of vegetables. "Where we use one kind
