These few verses in Luke vi are a part of His discourse in the presence Take Hall's Family Pills for con- of His disciples and a great multitude of people who came to hear Him and to be healed of their diseases as He came down from the mountain and stood in the plain. The teaching is tomewhat similar to that in last week's esson, but the poverty and hunger and weeping seem to be more literal physical conditions than in the Sermon on the Mount; also by contrast the riches and fullness and laughter of verses 24, 25. The contrast between the "now" and a future time is more fully set forth in the Luke xvi lesson, and the bright side of it is concisely shall I know even as also I am known." As to literal poverty, we know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ-that, though He was rich, yet for our sakes He became poor, that we through His manger, the Nazareth home and the His life ofttimes in His public ministry we may perhaps imagine something of ordinary poverty, but who can tell the are often proud and self centered. looketh on the heart and trieth the gelists have been known to hold back the truth on certain great topics so as Sometimes the gifts of the rich did not count as much in His sight as the gifts of the poor. We are simply stewards, whether intrusted with mysteries or money or other things, and we must give an account of our stewardship. We may so use that which is intrusted to us as to become rich toward God (Luke ii, 21), and those who have been helped by us to know the Lord will make greater to us the glory in His kingdom, while the Lord Himself will reward all His faithful ones at the resurrection of the just (Luke xiv. 14; Rev. xxii, 12). Our Luke xvi lesson study reads like a statement of facts, and there is no reason why it should be called a parable. It is the one occasion and gave us to see the unseen realities after we leave these bodies, plainly teaching that for each one it will be degree of bliss which will be the believer's portion only after the resurrection of the righteous nor the deepest woe which will be the unbeliever's portion after the judgment of the great white throne, but a conscious existence in bliss or woe, with no possibility of passing from one to the other. The reason of the rich man's condition aft- Mother, I hear a dancing sound: er death was not because he had been rich, but from the last verse of the chapter it is evident that when on earth he had no use for Moses or the prophets. He was not a believer in | Do angels ever feel such thrills, the Scriptures, but evidently proud and self satisfied. After death he proved the reality of a place of torment and became anxious that his brethren should not reach the same destination. He pleaded that if one went from the dead they would believe, but was told that the writings of Moses and the prophets were all sufficient.
