The Store the People Talk About

That's what we want them to do. Every purchase made at this store causes the people to talk. The quality of our goods and the reasonable prices at which they are sold is good reason for them to talk.

Again, we buy all kinds of farm produce at the highest cash prices, and we pay the cash for it, too. This causes the people to do more talking about us. Then if they want goods we sell them what they want and get the money back. They buy here with the cash because they know they can get as good goods at as low a price and in many cases at lower prices than they can get them for elsewhere.

This is a good time to buy RUBBERS of all kinds as we have a lot left which we do not care to carry over. In fact we will not carry them over if reduced prices will move them.

Our READY-MADE CLOTHING is of the latest pattern and style, and the prices sell the goods. Get the habit of examining our clothing before buying, and we are sure you will not go elsewhere.

Call and see our COON COATS. Now is the time to get a bargain.

SAYS THAT EVERYONE GOES TO HELL

Well-known Bible Student Has Original Ideas On Final Destination

DECLARES HELL IS GRAVE

Asserts That Nowhere in the Bible Is There Anything That Connects Hell With Fire.

Alfred I. Ritchie, a Bible student of wide reputation in the United States and Canada, declares that everyone goes to Hell. Mr. Ritchie has some interpretations on the Bible that appear sensational and along a new line. In an interview recently gave out some interesting information regarding various prominent Bible subjects that require more than ordinary consideration to obtain their full meaning.

"I have a new cure for infidelity," declared Mr. Ritchie. "To prescribe the remedy we must find the cause, which I believe is the inability of the people to understand how a God of all Love and Wisdom and Justice, and having all Power, could permit present conditions and conduct human affairs as proclaimed by the dominant creeds of Christendom. Unbelievers choke at the idea of the great Creator providing an eternity of any kind of torture for His own creatures, especially if He was gifted with the foreknowledge that most of the human family go there, and that he had all Wisdom to plan otherwise, and all Power to do as He pleased. Truly the general religious teaching on this line is a toe to reason and the mother of doubt."

THE BIBLE GLORIFIES GOD.

"The Bible taken as a whole presents no such idea of our blessed Heavenly Father, but praised, glorified and exalts His holy character. And so, when understood, it will be as natural for average human beings to emulate, love and praise God as it has been in all human history for them to worship as leaders and heroes those who have shown greatness of character, either in power or wisdom or benevolence. When rightly shown the character of our God will compel the admiration and loyalty of the masses infinitely more than the character of a Caesar, or a Napoleon, or an Edison, or a Ryan, or a Roosevelt. What is the reason that the character of God is so little revered, that the Holy Name of Himself and of the Saviour are made the commonest 'cuss' words? We answer that it is because His character is blasphemed by the erroneous 'Hell' teaching of Christianity.

"Well did Pastor Russell, of Brooklyn, N. Y., Tabernacle say, 'If the Bible does teach that eternal torture is the fate of all except the saints, it should be preached, yea, thundered, weekly, daily, hourly! If it does not so teach, the fact should be made known, and the foul stain dishonoring God's name removed! I understand a free copy of his pamphlet, 'Food for Thinking Christians' which examines every mention of Hell in the Bible can be had by addressing him.

"Everybody goes to Hell. Why? Because Hell is the grave, or death condition to which good and bad alike go to remain until the blessed time of resurrection, judgment, and restoration to perfection of all the obedient. The Hebrew word sheol is positively the only 'hell' word in the Old Testament. Its Hebrew definition is the unseen state, or the place of the dead. It occurs sixty five times, and nowhere is the word fire associated with it.

NO WORK IN SHEOL.

"Solomon said, There is no work, nor device, nor knowledge in sheol," and he adds, "whither thou goest." Why? Because all in Hell are dead. Referring to the resurrection, the Revelator says "Death and Hell (marginal reference reads 'or the grave') delivered up the dead (not the living) which were in them."

"Sheol is translated twenty-nine times as 'hell,' three times as 'pit,' and thirty-three times as 'grave.' In the revised version, 'sheol' is translated as 'hell' only about twenty times out of the sixty-five times, and its Greek equivalent, 'hades,' occurring eleven times in the New Testament, is not translated as 'hell' at all, but is left untranslated, because the Bible revisers knew it did not mean eternal torment.

"Only sixteen out of the sixty-six Bible books use the word 'hell,' in the English translation. St. Paul wrote fourteen books of the New Testament, but never mentioned 'hell fire.' John never mentioned in his Gospel, nor in his three Epistles; nor did Peter in his two Epistles, nor Ruth, Ezra, Nehemiah, Esther, Jeremiah, Daniel, Hosea, Joel, Obadiah, Micah, Nahum, Zephaniah, Haggai, Zechariah or Malachi. Strange that all these holy Apostles and Prophets did not harp upon the danger of falling into that 'lake of fire' which is supposed to be the doom of billions of humanity!

"No wonder that men turn away in disgust, full of fear and doubt! No wonder that church pews are empty and no one seems to care? No wonder that hundreds of thousands are infidels, or fast becoming such! The sure, the only cure, is to get a knowledge of God's true character, for to know Him is to love Him. With present-day Bibles, Bible Helps, Concordances, Bible Dictionaries, and Studies in the Scriptures, no one need be in the dark."

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE AT CONN.

No small amount of excitement was occasioned in the vicinity of Conn Tuesday morning by the discovery that a young farmer, William Dunn, had attempted to end his life by cutting his throat. He is well-known in the neighborhood and this spring purchased Mr. Don McFayden's farm on the Proton side of the town-line between Conn and Egerton. After making the purchase he rented the farm to Mr. John Widdis and then engaged to work for Widdis for the summer. Everything seemed to be going along satisfactorily and nothing unusual was noticed Tuesday until Mr. Widdis discovered Dunn in a semi-conscious condition in the barn with a wound in his throat caused by a jack-knife which lay nearby covered with blood. The fact that the knife was dull possibly accounts for the rash act not having terminated fatally. The wounded young man was hurried to the local doctor at Conn, who after rendering first aid to the injured patient sent him to Strathcona Hospital, Mt. Forest, where recovery is looked for. It is not known, so far as we have heard, why Dunn attempted to end his life although it is said he once came near drowning and it is remembered now, that he attributed his being in the water to an accident, saying that he had fainted and fallen in. Physically Dunn is a healthy, robust looking young man. His mother is living, having married a second time after the death of her first husband, Dunn's father.—Mt. Forest Rep.

HUMAN SCHEMES A FAILURE.

"I have conquered the air," man cries, "my pinions shall sweep the skies." And, there comes a gale and his levers fail, and he sinks to the earth and dies. "Her secrets I'm bound to wrest from out of Dame Nature's breast." And Dame Nature kicks as her breast he pricks, and scatters him galley west. "I have conquered the sea, I think," says man, with a cheerful wink; "watch the ocean wilt! For I've gone and built a vessel that cannot sink!" He shows us his rare design; all perfect his plans and fine, and we softly say as we go our way that the sea should take in its sign. He launches his mighty bark, that's safer than Noah's ark; it's slick and clean in its lines, I woen, and swift as a trotting shark. "It simply can't sink," he claims; "its bulkheads and mighty frames will defy the knocks of the bergs and the rocks and the ocean's wild-st games." He sends it a-sailing the, this triumph designed by men, God gives a twist of His mighty wrist, and the sea is on top again.—Walt Msoon.

INSANITY INCREASING IN THE COUNTY OF BRUCE.

"What is the matter with the people of Bruce that so many are going insane?" asked Bailiff Simper, of Toronto, as he entered the Walkerton jail one day last week for the purpose of removing another unfortunate to the asylum. Continuing, the officer dwelt on the frequency of his visits to Bruce on the sad and peculiar mission of conducting lunatics to the asylum. And the fact that there were no less than three insane prisoners in the cells of the Walkerton jail as he spoke, and all of them were waiting transportation to the lunacy joints showed that his visits were not likely to decrease in the immediate future. Instead, however, he had two more trips ahead of him before the jail supply would be exhausted, and there was also the horrible possibility that many might come in before the last lunatic went out. The Provincial officer was certainly astounded at the way Bruce was peopling the asylums, but just how to account for this seeming epidemic of insanity here was something that was beyond him.—Herald-Times.
