SOME FISHERMEN.

Toronto newspaper men, like other mortals, require a little recreation now and then, and a diet of fish food is recommended as an aid to the production of grey matter and editorial brilliancy. Three Toronto gentlemen at least have faith in this old saw and put their faith into practice—Joe Clark, of the Star, F. D. Smith, of the News, and A. H. U. Colquhoun, Deputy Minister of Education. Mr. Colquhoun, of course, merely comes along to show the others how to prepare the brain food in its proper proportions of salt, butter and flour. The newspaper men say Mr. Colquhoun dodges the cooking, but that gentleman replies that it is only their cooking which he dodges. He has been up with them before, and experience teaches wisdom. As he runs the great brain-developing machinery of this country nothing further need be said. Saturday last was the day these gentlemen chose for an outing at their preserve in the valley, and it was an ideal fish-catching day. The catch was alleged to be a large one. Note, we say "alleged." All an added brilliancy is noted in the editorial scintillations of the Star and a more translucent diagnosis of Taff's designs on Canada is apparent in the News, then you may consider the assertion as beyond dispute.—Flesherton Advance.

HAVE YOU A SKIN RASH?

Zam-Buk Will End It

For skin rashes, eruptions, eczema, etc., either in adults or children, there is nothing known to science which equals Zam-Buk in the quickness and certainty of its curative power. Mr. Raymond Webber, of Allanburg, Ont., writes "I have tried Zam-Buk for many ailments, and every time have found it successful. Some time ago, I had a bad rash all over my body. I tried home-made salves, herbals, and various home-made preparations, and these proved of no use, but when I tried Zam-Buk I was cured in a quarter of the time that I had been experimenting in vain with other preparations. On another occasion I had one of my fingers crushed, and in that case also Zam-Buk was the only remedy I used. It healed the wound splendidly. My boy had boils, and once again Zam-Buk brought about a complete cure. We have also used it as a household balm, for the injuries and skin diseases which are common to every person and can say that in our experience there is nothing to equal Zam-Buk."

Zam-Buk owes its unique healing power to certain herbal extracts it contains. Unlike most ointments it contains no animal fat, but is purely herbal. For eczema, piles, blood poison, abscesses, ulcers, cuts, burns, and all skin injuries and diseases it is without equal and should be in every home. 50c. box all druggists and stores. Use also Zam-Buk Soap, 25c. tablet.

SIXTY-EIGHT HOURS IN OPEN BOAT ON GEORGIAN BAY.

A tale of terrible privation and grim endurance on the inland seas is told in a despatch from Warton, which says: For sixty-eight hours, practically without food, drifting about in a launch on the Georgian Bay, Philip Clark, Jack Pyrie, Thomas Ellis and Ronald McIntyre, all natives of the Manitowlin Island, were picked up by the barge Tempest, of Toledo, and brought to this port safely this morning. It was a sight to make strong men weep to see them being carried on the arms of others to the shore. Their story is as follows: At 8.30 Saturday evening, they left Pelee Bay for their homes at Michael's Bay, a distance of ten miles. After they had gone about five miles, their engine played out,—their gasoline was done. They had a five-gallon can full on board, but to their dismay, they found that the rocking of the launch had knocked the spout off, that the water which had come into the boat had got into the can, and consequently they were without any power. A strong north-east wind blew them directly into the lake. All that night, all day Sunday and Sunday night, in the rain and snow, with the wind blowing a gale of 60 miles per hour, with the worst sea ever known on the Georgian Bay, they were tossed about and exposed to the weather. All the food they had was some raw potatoes and raw prunes. Still they never lost hope. One day they thought they saw land, but afterwards it proved to be only a cloud, but at last Tuesday afternoon about four o'clock, they were sighted by the barge Tempest, Capt. Johnston, from Toledo, and brought to this port. Their hands and feet are badly frozen, and in some cases probably amputation will be necessary. The fact that they are alive is proof of their strong physique and their courageous spirit. Ronald McIntyre suffered the least. The men are receiving medical attention here, and every possible kindness is being shown them. It is not thought any of them will die. Jack Pyrie is a nephew of Capt. Louis Pyette, of the C. P. R.

CANADA'S OLDEST MASON TOILS IN HIS GARDEN.

Although Mr. Joseph Mantell is 103 years old, and his back bent with age, yet The News found him yesterday working in his garden, assisted by his 3-year-old grandson, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. Edwards, 69 Herbert ave.

Mr. Mantell was born in Middlesex county, England, in 1809, and distinctly recollects the bonfires and the shouting of victory after the Battle of Waterloo. He emigrated to Canada in the strenuous times of 1837, and served in the ranks for a short time, and was present at the execution of Matthews and Lount, the rebel leaders.

He then went west to Tillsonburg, where, up to five years ago he was engaged in shoe-making. He is now staying with his granddaughter at the Beach.

Many are the tales he tells his grand-children of Old York. These were the days when he used to go out and sell eggs at four and five cents a dozen, and then get paid in trade. Going to market with one hundred pounds of mutton which he failed to sell at the price of 75c per cwt. In these days a stranger was always called into a house and given food, but Mr. Mantell ventured to say that a man would have to walk a long way before such hospitality would be extended in this day.

He was offered at one time a half-acre of land where the Eaton store now stands for $400.

He is probably the oldest Mason in Canada, having joined the Tillsonburg Lodge in 1840. When he removed to Toronto, he was made an honorary life member of that lodge.

Mr. Mantell is quite strong for a man of his age, and although his hearing is a little impaired, he has a clear eyesight, and takes much pleasure in reading The News every day without glasses. He also takes long walks when the weather permits, and thinks that this is the best exercise for any young man or old.—Toronto News.

GLENELG CENTRE FARMERS HOLD MONTHLY MEETING.

The meeting of the Glenelg Centre Farmers' Club, which was held in the township hall on the 30th of April, should have been reported in your last week's paper, but seeding operations interfered. However, they did not interfere with the attendance at the meeting when about 70 were present. After the short business session those present listened to a splendid address from Mr. Tisdale, of Markdale, on "The Farmer's Vegetable Garden." Mr. Tisdale is at present

SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Lesson VIII.—Second Quarter, For May 26, 1912.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, Matt. v. 33-37; Jas. iii, 1-12; v. 12—Memory Verses, 34-36—Golden Text, Eph. iv, 25, R. V. Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

The topic of today's lesson is "Truthfulness," but from the first and last Scripture selections it would seem to be a warning against swearing or taking the three passages, a lesson on the control of the tongue. The essential thing is a right relation to God, who is the God of truth (Isa. lxv, 16), whose throne is heaven. His footstool the earth and Jerusalem His special city, the city of the great King. That title makes us think of Mal. i, 12-14, where He complains of the deceit of His people in bringing Him offerings they would not bring to an earthly ruler, and He said, "I am a great King, * * * and my name is dreadful among the nations." In Mal. ii, 2, He said that there would be a curse if they did not lay it to heart to give glory to His name. Sometimes men are so honored by others that it is said of such a one, "That man's word is as good as his bond." How much more should the word of God suffice as the firmest possible foundation on which to rest. "Forever, O Lord, thy word is settled in heaven." "Hath He said and shall He not do it?" "The Lord of Hosts hath sworn, saying, Surely as I have thought so shall it come to pass, and as I have purposed so shall it stand" (Ps. cix, 8; Num. xxiii, 19; Isa. xiv, 24). The more we meditate upon Him and upon such words concerning Him the more we shall become like Him in word and deed. Beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, we shall be changed into the same image from glory to glory as by the Spirit of the Lord (II Cor. iii, 18) and thus be more manifestly children of our Father who is in heaven.

This cannot be till we have been born from above and have thus become children of God, standing before Him in His righteousness, as we learned last week. James in his epistle is as clear about the new birth and the manner of it as is Peter or Paul or our Lord Himself (Jas. i, 18, 22; I Pet. i, 23; John iii).

Mr. Andrew Henderson is laid off work at present with an abscess on his hand.

Mr. Wm. Sharp has purchased a fine new buggy, Mr. Robt. Johnston a carriage, and Mr. David Gilmour, a cab, from Mr. Wm. Kerr, of Allan Park.

There never was a time when people appreciated the real merits of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy more than now. This is shown by the increase in sales and voluntary testimonials from persons who have been cured by it. If you or your children are troubled with a cough or cold give it a trial and become acquainted with its good qualities. For sale by all dealers.
