SHOULD HAVE COTTAGES FOR MARRIED MEN

No Place for Misfits in Canada.

(By a York County Farmer).

I wish to call your attention to the possible effect of the many letters on the hired man, question that have taken up so much space in your valuable journal lately. I have read with disgust many of the letters which have been written largely by disgruntled Englishmen who were failures at home and discontented anywhere. The views of such people should not be paraded in a journal that is published in the interest of farmers, and only tends to unsettle the minds of contented farm hands. I have studied the farm labor problem in United States, the Old Countries, and Canada and find that the best conditions prevail where the farm help live in cottages and do not board in a farm house.

The curse of the Ontario system, boarding the hired help, eating at the same table and taking them into the home circle on terms of equality,—tends to lower the standard of our home life and hinder the development of refinement in the farm home.

I often send copies of "Canadian Farm" papers to friends in the Old Country, but have been ashamed to send a copy of the "Canadian Farm" with such descriptions of farm life that has graced its pages during the last few months.

I have had a good deal of experience in handling farm help, and have been successful in keeping good men for years contented and satisfied, but would be sorry to take all of them into the bosom of the family which apparently is the ideal conditions pictured by most of your correspondents.

I trust that the "Canadian Farm" will not continue to be the mouth-piece to voice the complaints of the dissatisfied misfits who are always in evidence, not only on the farm but in all lines of employment.—Canadian Farm.

SCHOOL TEACHER HAS AUTHORITY EQUAL TO PARENTS

An appeal of great interest to Sunnidale residents was heard at the town hall, New Lowell on Monday, when Judge Wismer decided that George Dobson, school teacher at Utopia, had not assaulted one Norman McMaster, a fourteen-year-old pupil.

The case dates back to December 15th, when it was alleged the assault took place, Jos. McMaster, the lad's father, charged that Dobson had during a spelling class, taken the boy by the lapel of the coat, given him a jerk, and placed him from head to foot of a class. There were only two pupils in the class. This had followed an altercation between the teacher and the boy over the number of mistakes the other boy in the class made.

On March 6, the charge was tried before S. R. Brown, J. P., of Thornton, and also a charge against Roy Bell, son of Ex-Warden R. Bell of Utopia, and a boy named Arnold, that they roughly treated young McMaster in the school yard. The case lasted all afternoon, and Magistrate Brown fined Dobson $1 and costs and dismissed the boys.

Appeals on Both Sides.

On behalf of Dobson, Mr. W. A. Boys, K. C., entered an appeal, and John Birnie, K. C., of Collingwood appealed Magistrate Brown's decision in dismissing the boys.

There were 300 people present at the hearing before Judge Wismer on Monday, and New Lowell presented the appearance of a big fair day. Mr. Boys took objection that McMaster's appeal had not been entered, as required by law, ten days previous to hearing. After a lengthy argument, the Judge declined to hear the appeal against the boys' dismissal.

The Dobson appeal, being regularly entered, was then heard. Without hearing any of Dobson's evidence or any of the defence witnesses, His Honour decided that even assuming that all of McMaster's charges were true, and that the boy had been taken violently by the collar, this would not constitute an assault under the code. McMaster claimed that his boy was subject to fits, but that he had never taken but one in school. He claimed that, bearing that fact in mind, he should have been treated gently, and that rough treatment might be very injurious to his health. Dr. Lewis had examined the boy and said he was subject to fits. The son's evidence was also taken. The law, said Judge Wismer gives a school teacher authority over school children for the purpose of correction, during school hours, equal to that of the parent. He allowed the appeal, and quashed the conviction registered against Dobson, with costs payable by McMaster.—Collingwood Enterprise.

SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Lesson IX.—Second Quarter, For June 2, 1912.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, Matt. vi, 1-18. Memory Verses, 7, 8—Golden Text, Matt. vi, R. V.—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

We have our choice today of the regular lesson in order or a special lesson on the Holy Spirit from Acts ii, 1-11; but, inasmuch as only by the Spirit can the teaching of the regular lesson on almsgiving, prayer and fasting be put in practice, we will take the regular portion with a look at the whole chapter, as we do not seem to have the rest of the chapter in any subsequent lesson. The heart of the whole Bible seems to be "the kingdom of God and His righteousness" (verse 33). The Lord Jesus came to set up this kingdom on the earth, but as they rejected it and Him it will not be set up till He shall come again in glory. Meanwhile who become children of God by receiving Jesus Christ and joint heirs with Him should walk worthy of His kingdom and glory while they wait for it (1 Thess. ii, 12). Their motto should ever and always be, "First the kingdom of God." Then there would be no anxious thought about aught else, for He gives the assurance that all will be provided by our Father, who knoweth all our need (verses 31, 32). Whether it be the service or prayer or fasting of the daily life, there is one principle to govern all. It must be unto the Father, who seeth in secret, who looketh upon the heart and to whom all things are naked and open. "Not as pleasing men, but God who trieth our hearts" (1 Thess. ii, 4), is a principal always to be observed. In contrast to that the most religious people of our Lord's time did everything to be seen of men (Matt. xxiii, 5). It was even so in the days of the prophets, and a special feature of the last days of this age will be a turning away from the truth and a form of godliness without any power (Isa. xxix, 13; Ezek. xxxiii, 31; 11 Tim. iii, 1-5; iv, 3, 4). In each of the three paragraphs of our lesson there is a contrast between a present reward or approval of men and a future reward from God Himself, spoken of in verse 20 as "treasure in heaven." We cannot serve God and Mammon or God and the devil, for the friendship of this world is enmity with God, and that which is highly esteemed among men is abomination in the sight of God (verse 24; Luke xvi, 15; Jas. iv, 4). There was only one who always and in all things pleased the Father, but He desires to live His life in us and will if we yield fully to Him (John viii, 29; 11 Cor. iv, 10, 11). He was manifestly approved of God by the miracles and wonders and signs which God did by Him (Acts ii, 22). Our instructions are to study, to show ourselves approved unto God, workmen that need not be ashamed (11 Tim. ii, 15). This can be done only as we are Spirit filled like the disciples on the day of Pentecost, and like them we must be willing to be misunderstood and even counted drunken or beside ourselves for His sake. The old word to Abraham is always helpful, "Walk before Me and be thou sincere" (Gen. xvii, 1, margin), and also the oft repeated words in Leviticus, "unto the Lord" and "before the Lord." Concerning giving to any good work, the motive of the donor is everything. If the gift is wholly and only "unto the Lord," desiring only His approval, then it does not matter if people do know of it. It should be the love of Christ constraining, and according to 11 Sam. xxiv, 24, I will not offer unto the Lord of that which doth cost me nothing, and also according to 1 Chron. xxix, 14, "All things come of thee, and thine own do we give thee." Concerning prayer, it is real access to God by Jesus Christ, remembering 1 John v, 14, 15, "This is the confidence that we have in Him, that if we ask anything according to His will He heareth us, and if we know that He hear us, whatever we ask, we know that we have the petitions we desired of Him." As to this form of prayer which He gave at this time and which we spoke of in a former lesson on the beatitudes, the late Dr. Saphir said of it: "It is a model prayer and as such commends itself to the most superficial glance—approves itself at once to the conscience of man. The prayer is short, that it may be quickly learned, easily remembered and frequently used, but it contains all things pertaining to life and godliness. In its simplicity it seems adapted purposely for the weakness of the inexperienced and ignorant, and yet none can say that he is familiar with the heights and depths which it reveals and with the treasures of wisdom it contains." In verses 14, 15, of our lesson note that communion with God as our Father depends upon our forgiving others as He forgave us. This, like all the discourse, is not a condition of salvation, but another word for His disciples. As to fasting, the best comment I know is Isa. lviii, 3-11, remembering that, like giving and praying, it must be from the heart unto the Lord. The forty day fasts of Moses and Elijah and the Lord Jesus were peculiar and unique, but the record of fastings in the Acts of the apostles is for our example, and our Lord spoke of the power of prayer and fasting in Matt. xvii, 21. Consider also Ez. viii, 21; Neh. i, 4; Est. iv, 16; Dan. x, 2, 3.
