

THE PEOPLE'S STORE

The Store the People Talk About

That's what we want them to do. Every purchase made at this store causes the people to talk. The quality of our goods and the reasonable prices at which they are sold is good reason for them to talk.

Again, we buy all kinds of farm produce at the highest cash prices, and we pay the cash for it, too. This causes the people to do more talking about us. Then if they want goods we sell them what they want and get the money back. They buy here with the cash because they know they can get as good goods at as low a price and in many cases at lower prices than they can get them for elsewhere.

This is a good time to buy RUBBERS of all kinds as we have a lot left which we do not care to carry over. In fact we will not carry them over if reduced prices will move them.

Our READY-MADE CLOTHING is of the latest pattern and style, and the prices sell the goods. Get the habit of examining our clothing before buying, and we are sure you will not go elsewhere.

Call and see our COON COATS. Now is the time to get a bargain.

BUTTER, EGGS AND FOWL WANTED

ROBERT BURNETT

VARNEY

James Wilton is preparing to raise his barn and put a stone stable underneath it. Alex. McLean has the job of raising the barn up ready for the stonework, which will be done by some masons near Mt. Forest. Mr. Wilton has repaired the lime kiln on Wm. Bryans' place and has it filled ready to fire. A Mr. Stinson from Mt. Forest helped him, and will have charge of the burning.

Mrs. Stimson from Mt. Forest visited with her relatives in our village last week. Mrs. A. McCabe, Mrs. Wm. Long and Mrs. R.J. Eden.

Misses Ella May and Ruby Carson from your town spent Sunday before last with their aunt, Mrs. N. Eden, and attended the Sunday school.

The Varney choir and a few friends picnicked at Hayward's Falls on the King's Birthday, and got caught in the rain coming home.

Miss Elsie McLaughlin visited her sister, Mrs. Wm. Allan, in Egremont, from Saturday till Monday week before last.

Max Allen's horse got badly disabled week before last while feeding in the field. He stumbled on some stones, and fell in between a stone pile and the railroad wire fence. When they found him, he was badly bruised up, but will recover in time.

At the Grange meeting on the 31st, Mr. Robt. Brigham was present, and laid his plan of building a telephone line before the meeting, but as there could not be enough agree at the meeting to have him commence to build to Varney, a committee was appointed to canvass this locality to see who could be got. We fully expect to have the phone in Varney before harvest.

Jr. R. Richardson, our general merchant, spent two or three days in the city last week.

We are very sorry to report that our blacksmith, Mr. Alf. McCabe, is very sick, and has been off work for about a week, and will be for some time longer.

The young people of this place enjoy themselves every Friday evening playing baseball. They play in Mr. John Kerr's field.

Mr. and Mrs. George Harbottle, his sister, Miss Ida Harbottle, of Durham, and Mr. and Mrs. John McGirr, of Glenelg, spent Sunday with Mrs. Harbottle's father, Mr. Wm. Lauder.

Miss Flora McNaughton, from your town, visited lately with her sister, Mrs. John Kerr.

Mr. John and Miss Emma Pinkerton, of Durham, spent Sunday with Mr. George M. Leeson.

Cam. Lauder, of Hanover, spent from Saturday till Monday at the parental home.

Wedding bells will soon be ringing around Varney again.

A few from here intend to take in the L.O.L. picnic in Holstein on Thursday of this week.

The Grange's picnic will be held on the 25th of June in Wm. Carson's bush. A large committee has been set to work to make this the picnic of the season. There are to be athletic sports, baseball, program and refreshments, all for 10c.

J. W. Blyth and team spent one afternoon last week helping to fill in one of the holes that the water made in the race course in Durham. It was a buster of a buster of a washout.

Miss Maggie McLaughlin, of the village, is helping Mrs. Herb Vollet, of Poplar Hill, with the work these days. We congratulate Herb on the new title he has to his name, that of "Papa." It's a boy, and doing well.

Your humble scribe has treated his family with a new lawn swing. But of course as we are agent for them some will say that we got it for nothing. No, no! Not for Joe.

TIGHT SHOES DID THIS.

The wearing of tight shoes has just cost a young woman of Baltimore, Md., the loss of her right leg. Some weeks ago, she bought a pair of new shoes, which she wore for several days. A slight irritation on the little toe, which she thought would wear off in a few days developed into an ulceration. Then the foot began to swell, and the physicians decided that immediate amputation was imperative. The leg was taken off just below the hip.

WINGHAM MAN BADLY HURT.

Mr. Wm. Reid, foreman at Wingham Salt Works, was seriously hurt on Saturday. He was working with a chisel on an old boiler when a piece broke off the end of the chisel, flew up with great force, and entered the head below the eye, puncturing the eyeball and allowing the matter of the eyeball to escape. Medical aid was summoned, but the eye was gone beyond all aid. Mr. Reid was taken to London, where the best medical aid will be employed.

GUARDS HIS SHEEP WITH "DUMMY" OF MAN.

A Minnesota farmer says that he keeps dogs away from his flock by putting up in his pasture the dummy of a man holding a stick for a gun. This dummy is taken down every morning and put up again in the evening at different places from night to night. He says a sheep-killing dog will not go near enough to the dummy to discover that it is a bogus man.

A long hatpin worn by a woman who was going around a corner in a hurry and bumped into Fred Harper, nearly cost him the sight of one eye. The point of the pin pierced the eyelid, and left a scratch of several inches.—Bruce Herald and Times.

HENSALL STATION DESTROYED BY FIRE.

The Grand Trunk station at Hensall was totally destroyed by fire on Thursday evening of last week from causes which are more or less of a mystery. A blaze was discovered about six o'clock under the building, but was extinguished it was thought. Later, about 11:30, when most people were in their beds, the fire broke out again, and this time got beyond control of the firemen and citizens.

The loss is about $2000. The freight shed is a part of the same building, and goods there were also destroyed. A passenger coach brought up from London is being used temporarily as a depot.

SUMMER MILLINERY

Our large stock of Summer Millinery embraces all that is new and stylish in trimmed hats. We were in the city on Monday and made another purchase of new shapes, etc. We are now prepared to cater to the summer bride. The rush for summer hats made in lace, dainty braids, tulle, nets, etc. is now on and every day. We are adding new hats to our already large stock. We also have a large assortment of black hats. Mohair braid hats, large black chip, Mohair pressed shapes, and close fitting hats for matrons. Our stock was never so complete at this season of the year. Call and examine our display.

Kate and Kite.

An English clergyman visiting this country was discussing the English accent.

"Our worst accent," he said, "is the cockney one—the one that turns, you know, 'make haste' into 'milke 'ste', and so on.

"I once engaged two maidservants. One was a Devonian, the other a cockney, but that fact caused no confusion in my household. I simply called the Devon girl Kate and the cockney Kite, and they always knew whom I was addressing."

The Touch Courteous.

"I want to see you tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock on something important."

"What do you want to see me then for?"

"I want to pay you the $5 I am going to touch you for now."—New York American.

Saw a Risk.

Clerk—I'm afraid I can't let you let you have that drug, sir. Customer—Why not? Do I look like a man who would kill himself? Clerk—Well, I wouldn't go so far as to say that, sir; but if I looked like you I should be tempted.—Washington Star.

Noble Thoughts.

If instead of a gem or even a flower we would cast the gift of a lovely thought into the heart of a friend that would be giving as the angels give.—George Macdonald.
