FLESHERTON.

Reeve Boyd, of the village, reeve McKenzie and deputy-reeve McLeod, of the township, are at county council, Owen Sound, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. McCausland, of Detroit, and Mr. McCausland, of Meaford, paid Mr. T. Clayton and mother a short visit last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Wilson, of Singhampton, are visiting the latter's brother, Mr. Wm. Sharp, and other relatives.

Mrs. Christoe, and Mrs. Rev. Thom. of Hawkesville, are spending a couple of weeks among their old friends here.

Mrs. Jos. Mueller, and three children, of Montclair, N.J., are on their annual summer holiday with the former's mother, Mrs. George Rutledge.

Mr. Geo. Mitchell joined Dundalk friends on a fishing holiday at Roebottom lake, on Friday last.

The baseball team here played a match with the Vandeleur team at the L.O.L. picnic, Vandeleur, on Thursday last. The score was 9 to 1, in favor of Flesherton.

Mrs. Rev. Gaudin, and little daughter, Esther, of Norway House Keewatin, are visiting at W. H. Thurston's. Mrs. Gaudin leaves this week to visit her old home in New Brunswick.

Mr. H. S. White, of Lucknow, has been engaged as principal of the High school, and Mr. H. D. Brown, of Brampton, assistant.

Dr. R. H. Henderson, Mrs. Henderson, and son Ivan, of Toronto, visited friends here on Saturday, on their way to holiday for a week with relatives at Feversham and Rob Roy.

Mr. W. Moore visited over Sunday at Teeswater.

The ball team went to Proton Station on Friday evening, and in a match with the team there lost by one. The score was 5-4.

A pleasant social event took place in the Baptist church on Friday evening last, when Miss Florence Richardson, the organist, who is leaving on a holiday, was the recipient of a purse of money, and an address which expressed the congregation's appreciation of her efficient and faithful service. Miss Jennie McLaren made the presentation, and Mrs. Robt. Allen read the address. Miss Richardson was given a genuine surprise. Refreshments were served, and the occasion proved pleasurable to all.

Mr. McDermott, of London, occupied the Methodist pulpit here on Sunday, and gave good addresses in the interests of the Dominion Alliance.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Mitchell attended the marriage last week at Feversham, of the latter's cousin, Miss Maud Julian, who became the bride of Mr. Lewis Pedlar, son of Mr. W. T. Pedlar, of Rock Mills.

Mr. John Parker, and sister, Mrs. C. H. Munshaw, are at Erin this week, attending their cousin's wedding, at which Mr. Parker is to be best man.

The High school grounds, upon which much labor has been spent, now present a very neat appearance, and are an attractive surrounding for the commodious building. Dr. Murray has had the grounds at his residence very neatly finished. M. Wilson and W. Armstrong have had their residences much improved with a new coat of paint.

Principal Holland is presiding at the Matric and Entrance to Normal exams. Fourteen students are writing.

Mr. J. C. Griffiths, and son, Ruddyard, of Owen Sound, spent Sunday with Mr. A. Munshaw, who is now recovering nicely from his recent injury.

Miss Florence Richardson and Mrs. R. H. Wright left for the west this week, the former on an extended visit with friends at Hartney, Man., the latter to spend a couple of months with her husband on his homestead in Alberta.

Mrs. Archie Sinclair, and little daughter, of Teeswater, are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hales.

Dr. and Mrs. Carter visited over Sunday with friends at Meaford.

A death extremely sad was that of Miss Ida Binnie, who, after a few months' illness, passed away on Monday, the 17th inst., at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Binnie, near Saugen Junction. The bright young life cut off at the early age of 26 years, is not only a source of deep sorrow in the home, but keenly felt by her numerous friends here, where she resided the past five years, and was a popular saleswoman in Boyd Bros' store.

Miss Binnie was a faithful member of the Presbyterian church here and an active worker in the Young People's Guild. The funeral took place to the public cemetery here on Wednesday, and was very largely attended. An impressive service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Buchanan, of Dundalk, who officiated in the absence of the family pastor, Court Plesherton I. O. F., of which the deceased was a member, attended in a body, and conducted the burial service of the Order.

The casket was covered with beautiful floral offerings: From the I. O. F., Gates Ajar; the Guild, sheaf; J. & W. Boyd employees, anchor; C. N. Richardson, Mrs. E. J. Boyd, Miss Thurston, Mr. and Miss Morgan, Mrs. W. Bentham and Miss Crossley, Mr. and Mrs. S. Talbot, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wright and R. A. Neilson and family, sheaf each; J. & W. Boyd wreath; Mrs. T. Bannon and Mrs. W. Wilcock, bouquet each.

CLEANING THE PHONE

Even the neatest housekeepers are criminally careless about cleaning their telephones. Seemingly, they are not aware that transmitter and receiver both will assuredly transmit and receive dirt, germs, and odors. Unscrew the tops of both and sterilize them thoroughly. Warm water with weak carbolic acid, or the suds of carbolic acid soap is best.
