A MAP SWINDLE

From the St. Mary's Argus. Indignation reigns supreme among the farmers between here and Stratford over the swindling scheme which has been adopted by an unknown map company. The story of the agents seem to have been that the Government were contemplating a new survey of Ontario with a view to issuing official maps with all the town ship's lines, etc., clearly defined. Before adopting the step the Government would like to how many of the community were favorable. Seeing no cause for objection the majority of the farmers assented to this "Govern ment proposition." During the last few days they had been receiving cards from a map company (whose address is not given), saying that the map ordered, and valued at a dollor and ninety cents, would be delivered in July. Well, the farmers are look ing with blood in their eyes for that benefit of the physical development of

DEGENERATION

The tragedies of early married life were illustrated in an incident that occurred not long ago in a Baltimore household.

A young wife sought out her mother-in-law with a most agonized expression and threw herself into a hair with an outburst of grief.

"Has anything happened to Henry? anxiously asked the mother-in-law. "He's taken to staying out at night!"

wailed the unhappy wife. "It dosen't seem possible! How long has this been going on? How late does he stay away.
