TRAVERSTON

It isn't proving the best of hay weather, though the crop is very good in this vicinity. W. J. Greenwood has a field of mammoth clover that is yielding three loads to the acre.

Rev. Mr. Prudham's sermon in Zion on Sunday last was a most eloquent, intellectual one.

Mr. T. E. Blair had his fine new barn made more secure last week by the erection of lightning rods. R. Even, of town, put them on, and made a neat and tasty job.

Mr. and Mrs. T. McAlister, of Normanby, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. Gray on the first of the week, and recalled pleasant memories of bygone days.

Machinery is being placed in the country this season in car loads. Last week W. Jack purchased a cultivator from N. Walpole, John Laughlin a hayloader from G. E. Arrowsmith. Geo. E. Peart, a 7-ft. Deering from Mr. Knott.

Among the many who disposed of horses at the horse fair on Thursday of last week, were J. W. Stoddart, W. Jack, Wm. McNally, of the 6th, and your scribe, who purchased another from J. Newell.

Miss Horton, of Hartney, Man., arrived at the home of Mr. E. W. Hunt last week, to be the guest of her friend, Miss Flo. Hunt, for some weeks. She had a pleasant coming by way of Duluth.

Mrs. Bert. Wilson, of New Jersey, is enjoying a fortnight's visit at the home of her brother, Mr. Wm. Beaton.

Mrs. J. H. King and two children of Owen Sound, are holidaying at the homes of her brothers near Waudby.

Mrs. Alex. Livingston, of Priceville, is over on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Jos. McNally of the 10th con.

Mrs. E. Peart arrived home on Sunday, after spending some months visiting her daughters, Mrs. J. Hudson, Mrs. G. Furneaux, and Mrs. Robt. Milburn. Mrs. Milburn drove her home.

'Tis reported that Mr. J. Delaney is soon to open out an implement house in the burg. A big load has already landed.

Heartly congratulations to pupils on winning the examinations, and still warmer congratulations to the teachers, who spurred them on.

We have often thought that the city press was purchased, but we never imagined that our local editors could be so easily influenced. However, the recent editorials in favor of automobiles can be readily traced to the free rides given by the aristocrats of Ottawa at the recent Press Convention, and the subsequent joy rides given by local townsmen, who are desirous to turn the trend of public opinion. It is a queer old world! There are few farmers in a township, who, at the end of a life of toil, have funds enough saved up to buy a machine, without saying anything about their expensive upkeep. Never mind, however, everybody will soon be flying.

FLESHERTON.

The band and ball team attended a church garden party near Maxwell last week, at which the former supplied music, and the latter played a match with Singshampton team, winning with a score of 8 to 6.

At a special meeting of Orangeville Presbytery last week, the resignation of Rev. G.S. Milligan of this charge, was accepted, and Rev. Mr. Rose, of Corbetton, was appointed interim moderator. Mr. Rose occupied the pulpit on Sunday, and formally declared the charge vacant. The congregation listened with deep interest to the excellent sermon delivered by Mr. Rose.

Court Flesherton I.O.F. attended the Methodist church on Sunday morning, when Rev. H.E. Wellwood preached the annual sermon to the society. The appropriate and thoughtful discourse was appreciated by all. In the evening Mr. Wellwood commenced a series of sermons on the book of Genesis.

Service in the Baptist church has been withdrawn for Sundays, the 21st and 28th inst., the pastor, Rev. Mr. McLaren and family, being off on holidays in Bruce Co.

A young ladies' baseball club has been organized, and much interest is being taken in practice. We understand the team will be open for matches with any ladies' club nearby. Miss Muriel McTavish is captain.

Mr. W.E. Southgate, of Seaforth, paid his brother-in-law, Mr. Geo. Mitchell, a short visit last week.

Mr. C.J. Bellamy is spending a few days in Toronto.

Misses Martha and Lena Wright of Detroit, are on three weeks' holidays with friends here and at Kimberley.

Mrs. England, and two boys, of Coldwater, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Breen.

Mrs. J.W. White, and granddaughter, Leone Thompson, visited last week with the former's son at Wiarton.

Miss Jane McKenzie, of Eagle Lake, is on an extended visit at the home of her uncle, Mr. George McKenzie.

Mrs. A. McPhatter, of Owen Sd., is visiting her mother, Mrs. Wm. Wright.

Miss Izet Ashenhurst, of Toronto, is the guest of Mrs. George Mitchell.

Mr. W. Little, of Owen Sound, visited his uncles, J. A. and T. A. Blakely, last week.

Miss Nellie Bradbury, of Blind River, is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Geo. Rutledge.

Miss Ethel Trimble, has returned from Owen Sound, to holiday at her home here.

Mr. and Mrs. W.J. Bellamy visited over the week end with her mother at Nottawasaga.

Mr. G.A. Watson was a delegate to Masonic Grand Lodge at Toronto last week.

Dr. and Mrs. Washington, of Baltimore, were visitors at Mr.

HER HAIR GREW

That's why a Thankful Woman Recommended Parisian Sage

Macfarlane & Co. will sell you a fifty-cent bottle of PARISIAN SAGE and guarantee it to banish dandruff, stop falling hair and itching scalp, or money back. It's a delightful hair dressing that makes hair lustrous and fascinating.

"In the spring I was recovering from a severe case of erysipelas, which left me virtually bald on the front of my head, and next to my ears. The hair kept coming out rapidly, and nothing I used stopped my getting entirely bald, until I used two bottles of PARISIAN SAGE. This tonic made my hair start to grow in, and, in fact, grew me a good fair amount of hair, and it has entirely stopped my hair falling out.

It is with pleasure that I give a public recommendation to PARISIAN SAGE, which I know is a wonder."

Mrs. Ella Gilchrist, W. Pitt St., Bedford, Pa.
