CYNICAL SAYINGS OF OTHER DAYS.

Miss Lillian Hill, the well-known writer, said in a recent suffrage address in Chicago:

"Man's opinion of woman is changing. He no longer scorns woman as he used to do. Consider the proverbs of the past—they show a scorn that woman no longer suffers under."

"I'll quote you a few of these cynical proverbs of old. They come from all countries."

With a smile Miss Hill then rattled off:

"For whom does the blind man's wife adorn herself?"—Sanskrit.

"If a man lose a woman and a penny, he will miss the penny."—Phoenician.

"There are many good women—in the graveyard."—Chaldaean.

"He who takes an eel by the tail and a woman at her word may truly say that he holds nothing."—Assyrian.

"A woman always at the window is like a basket of fruit in the highway."—Egyptian.

"A woman, like a carpet, is the better for an occasional beating."—Greek.

Three brothers, Alfred, Fred and Harry Graves, were sentenced to death at Annapolis, Nova Scotia, to be hanged on the 15th of January, for the murder of Kenneth Lea, at Kentville, in June last.

A Chinaman in Toronto was fined $100 for selling opium to a fellow countryman. Another celestial was fined $50 for a similar offence, but being the first offence he was let down easy.

Sir Charles Tupper was 91 years of age last week. Commenting on this the Toronto Telegram says: "May Sir Wilfrid Laurier be as sure of gaining the same ripe old age as he is of duplicating Sir Charles' failure to regain the Premiership."

Dr. Wm. A. Evans, of Chicago, in a recent address before the fourth national conservation congress is credited with the remark that "The human race has not kept pace with the improvement in the blue blooded breeds of hogs and cattle within the last one hundred years."

The Manchester corporation has taken steps to minimize the risks associated with the wearing of large hats. The Tramways Company has placed notices in the tram cars calling attention of women passengers to the danger to other passengers from the practice of wearing unprotected hats. The corporation officials hope that the mere posting of notices will be sufficient.

It is understood that A. A. Mahaffy, M.P.P., of Bracebridge, will be recommended for appointment as County Judge of the District of Muskoka.

MORE MEN REQUIRED TO HARVEST WESTERN CANADA CROPS. $10.00 TO WINNIPEG, OCTOBER 14TH.

On account of the urgent appeal from the West for additional farm laborers, the Grand Trunk Railway have decided to run another excursion on Monday, October 14th, from all stations in Canada. $10.00 to Winnipeg via Chicago and Duluth, plus half cent mile from Winnipeg to destination but not beyond McLeod, Calgary, or Edmonton. Returning half cent mile to Winnipeg, plus $18.00 to destination in Eastern Canada. The farmers along the Grand Trunk Pacific pay the maximum wages and this is an excellent chance for young men to visit the West. The route via Chicago is an excellent one, as many large cities and towns are passed enroute, which breaks the monotony of the journey, as there is something new to see all the time. The Grand Trunk Pacific Railway is the shortest and quickest route between Winnipeg-Saskatoon-Edmonton. Ask nearest Grand Trunk agent for full particulars, tickets, etc., or write A. E. Duff, D.P.A., Toronto, Ont.

Clever Women Know This

It's an Easy Matter for any Woman to Possess a Head of Glorious Hair.

One bottle of PARISIAN Sage is all that is needed to make the dulllest looking hair lustrous and fascinating.

But be sure to get PARISIAN Sage—imitations won't do—for your own sake see that the girl with Auburn hair is on every carton and bottle.

PARISIAN Sage is a refreshing, invigorating hair dressing. It banishes dandruff, stops scalp itch and falling hair and causes hair to grow abundantly.

Side step preparations that contain poisonous Sugar of Lead or Nitrate of Silver; there are many of them. They are dangerous.

PARISIAN SAGE can be secured at McFarlane & Co. and dealers everywhere for only 50 cents a large bottle.

SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Lesson II.—Fourth Quarter, For Oct. 13, 1912.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, Mark vii, 1-13. Memory Verses, 5, 6—Golden Text, Rom. xiv, 17—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

Taking up the incidents between the last lesson and this one we note that because they did not consider His wondrous works, such as the feeding of the thousands, they were amazed at His stilling the storm and walking on the sea. That was Israel's trouble all through, and it is ours; we do not consider, or if we do it is ourselves or our circumstances or people and not Him who should occupy all our thoughts (vs. 52; Heb. iii, 1; xii, 3). In chap. vi, 53-56, what a multitude of sick folks gather unto Him, see the streets in the villages filled with them, all hoping that He would pass near enough for them to touch the border of His garment; how beautiful to read that "as many as touched Him were made whole."

Then follows the great discourse on the bread of life, the bread which came down from Heaven, even Himself, and His reply to the question, "What shall we do that we might work the works of God?" In considering His reply remember that believing means receiving (John 1, 12) or committing oneself unto Him (John 11, 24). I am continually helped by John vi, 57, "As the living Father hath sent Me, and I live by the Father, so he that eateth Me, even he shall live by Me." Also verse 63, "The words that I speak unto you, they are spirit and they are life." To many even among true believers, He and His words are still hidden manna of which they have not yet tasted the sweetness, or having no spiritual appetite they loathe the heavenly food. They have life, having Him, but not abundant life.

There were many in His day, as there were also in the days of the prophets and as there are in our own time, whose religion is wholly outward, simply a matter of externals, of outward forms and ceremonies—they are referred to in verse 6 of our lesson in a quotation from Isaiah. Let us hear two quotations from the prophets concerning them, "This people draw near Me with their mouth and with their lips do honor me, but have removed their heart far from Me, and their fear toward Me is taught by the precept of men" "They come unto thee as the people cometh, and they sit before thee as my people, and they hear thy words, but they will not do them, for with their mouth they shew much love, but their heart goeth after their covetousness" (Isa. xxix, 13; Ezek. xxxiii, 31). In addition to what our Lord said about them in this lesson He said elsewhere, "All their works they do for to be seen of men." "Ye make clean the outside of the cup and of the platter, but within are full of extortion and excess." "Ye outwardly appear righteous unto men, but within are full of hypocrisy and iniquity" (Matt. xxiii, 5, 25-28). These are the men who, in the lesson for today, find fault with Christ and His disciples for not practicing the many outward washings of their religion. There are multitudes of such formalists still who are very religious, but it is all outward, and they know not the true God, who searcheth hearts (1 Sam. xvi, 7; 1 Chron. xxviii, 9; Jer. xvii, 10; Rev. ii, 23). In II Tim. iii, 1-5, we read that the end of this age will be characterized by a form of godliness without any power, and truly it is already visible enough and tending to a greater manifestation of the same.

Inasmuch as it was foretold that it would be so, we are not surprised at it, and rejoice that He cannot fail nor be discouraged (Isa. xlii, 4), but the question may well search us, Am I real in my life, living before God rather than men and studying to shew myself approved unto God (II Tim. ii, 15; II Cor. v, 9). Our Lord desires a holy people, a people meet for His use (1 Pet. i, 15, 16; II Tim. ii, 21), but the cleansing must be inward, by His spirit and His word applying the blood (Ps. ii, 10; Rom. xii, 2; John xvii, 17; Eph. v, 25, 26). This matter of defilement by unwashed hands is briefly and decidedly disposed of by our Lord in these words, "To eat with unwashed hands defileth not a man" (Matt. xv, 20). In Matt. xv, 11, and verse 15 of our lesson we learn that what cometh out of the mouth, not that which goeth into the mouth, defileth a person, for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh, and out of the evil heart proceedeth all evil deeds and words (vs. 20-23; Matt. xii, 34).

No mere outward religion is of any eternal value, but may be of some benefit as far as this present world is concerned. The great cry of today about the uplift of the race, the Christianizing of nations, making an end of war, etc., is all from the proud, foolish heart of man, without any reference to the great Prince of Peace, who alone can bring peace. All mere human effort as well as all people who are not God's planting must be rooted up, overthrown, broken to pieces, and He who created all things by His word shall bring peace on earth by His word. He will speak peace, His word will do it, as it will also slay the wicked (Ps. lxxxv, 8; xvi, 9; Isa. xl, 4). Only by His word and His spirit revealing Himself can He give peace to any individual, but to any one thus receiving Him He becomes peace indeed. Life indeed, eternal redemption.
