HAPPY THOUGHT

Do You Want Real Stove Satisfaction?

Do you want a stove that will bake, broil, fry and do every cooking operation equally well?

Do you want a stove that will give you the last unit of heat value from every ounce of fuel—right where you want it, at the lid openings or in the oven—a stove that will pay you dollars every month by the fuel saving it effects.

If you do, the HAPPY THOUGHT is the stove you will eventually choose.

Do not be deceived by the so-called "special features" of other stoves. Every detail of HAPPY THOUGHT construction represents that last word in stove making. If anything better could be devised, it would be already incorporated in the HAPPY THOUGHT.

The HAPPY THOUGHT has no special "selling" points. Its record of success for twenty-five years proves its all-round value as the most serviceable stove that you can buy.

CORNER CONCERNS.

Mr. Lorne Allan returned home from Lumsden, Sask., on Thursday looking as if he had spent a good summer.

A goodly number turned out last Sunday to hear Rev. Hartley on "Tuberculosis", some from quite a distance; in fact some from Mount Forest, who, although looking hearty and handsome themselves, possibly have a friend whom they are anxious for.

A number from this part attended the bachelor's rally at Dromore on Friday, and report having had a good time.

Mrs. Catharine Baird took something in the nature of a paralytic stroke last week, but we are pleased to report, is recovering, despite the fact that she is nearing the four score and ten mark.

Mr. Robt. Mead returned home from Saskatchewan on Saturday night, and speaks very favorably of that country.

Mr. Wm. Morrison, who is still engaged with his threshing outfit down in Arthur township, was home Sunday. He was accompanied by a number of visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. John McKechnie, of the Rocky, visited the Tucker family on Friday. The reason we mention his visit over others who come almost as far, is that his visits are not very frequent.

We attended the Women's Institute concert at No. 9 school last Thursday night. It is the first of their meetings we have had the pleasure of attending, but we suppose it was a fairly representative one, and a big crowd.

Everybody in the best of humor; so the principals on the platform could scarce hear themselves speak, but the men for once seemed to have as much to say as the women. Mr. Neil McCannel made a good-looking chairman. Drill sand such like looked to us to be well performed. The proceeds were $37, to go to benevolent purposes.

Powl picking bees are becoming popular in the new survey, as they seem to be a good thing to define character. Picking birds is an irritating job at best, but if a young girl becomes frantic while engaged at it, and makes feathers fly so as to completely obliterate her and the bird from the crowd, her young man should delay matrimonial proceedings until he has become bald from natural cause. Or if she should sit with her nose turned up while plucking a turkey, he may know she will be slow to take up with some of the duties about the barn, which might be of some service. But if she wears a bland smile throughout the performance, and works diligently, he may hasten the day as quickly as possible. And if a young man will stay on the job until the last pin feather is removed, ladies can conclude he has more patience than the general run.

The Chronicle last week asks why such a fuss by the people about two preachers giving information regarding drunks seen on the street. Those are our sentiments, too. We have said from the first that it is a part of ministers' work to bring sinners to repentance, and whether they drive them there through the police court, or lead them there through the pulpit is a matter of little concern, so long as they get the right kind of conviction, and we consider farmers should be the last to criticize, as they so often lose patience and make use of drastic measures.

A NEW TUBERCULOSIS CURE

An article appears on page 3 announcing the discovery of an actual cure for tuberculosis. Should it prove to be true, it will be one of the greatest blessings of modern times. Years ago, before the introduction of anti-toxin diphtheria was looked upon as one of the most fatal maladies, and the best medical skill was often helpless in trying to baffle the disease. With the help of the new serum, the disease is now more easily controlled, and is not regarded with such a degree of alarm. Consumption in its various forms is the worst disease we have to contend with, and the world will have reason to rejoice if a specific has really been discovered. Medical science is progressing so rapidly that no surprise need be felt if our worst diseases are soon rendered powerless against the skill of the doctors.

If you are troubled with chronic constipation, the mild and gentle effect of Chamberlain's Tablets makes them especially suited to your case. For sale by all dealers.

Stray Lamb.

STRAYED TO THE PREMISES OF J. A. Graham, Durham, a spring lamb. Owner may have same by proving property, paying expenses and taking it away.

If we are to judge by the hundreds of people who are being daily swindled by the numerous get-rich-quick schemes in real estate and other wise that infest this country, the Canadian people are becoming particularly easy. Heretofore the large cities were a fruitful field for the swindlers' operation, but now they operate in country places as well and the poor dupes almost tumble over each other in their effort to get something for nothing or big returns for a small outlay. Aside from this, the press of the country is continually warning the people of the character of those swindling concerns. We would say it serves them right were it not for the fact that the victims in many cases are poor people who can ill afford to lose their daily earnings in this manner.—Ex.
