ROYAL CADET is a splendid, big-sized, dark-colored horse of great gaiety and style, with the best quality of feet, legs, and ankles, good, clean, sharp bones, and beautiful close, straight action. It will be seen from his pedigree that he is exceptionally well bred on both sides. On the one side he is a great grandson of both Baron's Pride and Moss Rose, and on the other side he is a great grandson of Baron's Pride, Macgregor and Lord Ailsa, so that there is in him the choicest blood. He is a horse of superb quality and has proven himself a popular and profitable stock-getter. His sire, Montrave Matador, is a son of the celebrated Baron o' Buchlyvie (11,263) out of Montrave Mermaid (14,224), by Prince of Albion (6178); grand-dam Moss Rose (6203), by the Dunmore Prince Charlie (634), &c. His dam, Eileen Alanna, is a mare of very superior quality and breeding, and a prize-winner at the Scottish-English border shows. Her sire, Historian, is a son of that unique champion, Baron's Pride, out of Duchess of Robgill (11,940), by Macgregor (1487); grand-dam, Mary of Threave (4911), by the old Auchleach Tom (877), &c.
