 pastor being in Fergus. annual S.S. anniversary work. entertainment in behalf Sunday school was held on evening, the children having been treated to a drive.
 Kennedy returned from on Saturday, having the summer there.
 annual meeting of the Eg-Creamery Co. was held on of last week. The attend-was not as large as on former occasions. The annual showed total receipts of and the expediture being leaving a balance on of $208.39. During the sea-25562 lbs. of butter were factured, which sold for 23.22, being an average of per cwt. Messrs. D. Allan, and J. H. Sharp were appointed to the Board of Directors for the year; D. Allan Jr., Pres.; J.
 McNeill, W. Ferguson, J. Bilton, ected Sec.-Treas.

 Mr. W. Morrison still continues in poor health, with but little signs of recovery.
 G. T. Calder has placed in position his mammoth boiler to be used in operating his machinery in the new mill, which is being roofed.
 John Swanston moved to his residence in the village and is now comfortably located within the limits of the burg.
 The Public school held their commencement exercises on Friday afternoon of last week. The teachers have gone to their respective homes to spend the Yuletide with friends.

 $448.82 were paid. In this amount there were $48.32 on account of sheep worried and insurance fees and Collectors, $80 and Assessor on account of $105.
 The financial statement was read by the reeve and treasurer and approved of by the Council, and the clerk was to get 200 copies printed for distribution. The reeve was requested to vacate the chair, and com. McRobb was voted the reeve's place. His remarks were well placed. He spoke of the peace and harmony which prevailed during the past year, emphasizing the gentlemanly manner of the reeve to every member of the council, not forgetting to refer to the efficiency of the treasurer and clerk. The reeve and other members of the council also spoke in very friendly terms, after which the council rose.
 —D. Allan, Clerk.

FOR CONSTIPATION.
 A Medicine that Does Not Cost Anything Unless It Cures.
 The active medicinal ingredient of Rexall Orderlies, which is odorless, tasteless and colorless, is a comparatively new discovery.
 Combined with other extremely valuable ingredients, it forms a perfect Lowel regulator, intestinal invigorator and strengthener.
 Rexall Orderlies are eaten like candy and are notable for their agreeableness of action. They do not cause griping, or any disagreeable effect or inconvenience.
 Unlike other preparations for a like purpose, they do not create a habit, but instead they act to overcome the cause of habit acquired through the use of ordinary laxatives, cathartics, and harsh physic and permanently remove the cause of constipation or irregular bowel action.
 We will refund your money without argument if they do not do as we say they will. Two sizes, 25c. and 10c. Sold only at our store—The Rexall Store, Macfarlane & Co.

 Package Free to Sick and Ailing

In order that every reader of The Chronicle who may not have heard of this wonderful "Home Treatment" may have an opportunity to test this celebrated medicine, the now famous scientist, Dr.
 James W. Kidd, offers to give absolutely free a full size $1.00 package to five hundred readers of this paper, who have been derful claims which have been made for it. In making this offer the scientist said: "I know that there are many people who have been suffering for years with some chronic disease and many of them have spent large sums of money seeking a cure. I know that these people hesitate about investing money in medicine because they well. Thousands have told me that story and many thousands of the same people have told me afterwards that my treatment had cured them after doctors and everything else had failed. I want to prove to a limited number—no matter what the disease, no matter how long they may have suffered, no matter how blue and discouraged—that my treatment really and actually does accomplish the wonderful results that have been reported."

THE GOOD PROVIDER.
 He brings home hams and fruits and jams and yarbs and canned tomatoes, he brings home peas and beans and cheese and sweet and sour potatoes. He's loaded down when from the town he comes, his pup behind him, "you always was old Santa Claus," his wife and kids remind him. He doesn't fool kids at pool, at billiards or at his time at pool, at billiards or at his checkers; nor does he steer his way for beer or gin or other wreckers. He doesn't stop down town to yawp with every chronic fretter, but homeward hikes because he likes his cheerful fireside better. He doesn't shake the dice or make a hand at sledge or euchre; a better plan knows this man to spend his household he.
 He wants to see his household be a place of peace and pleasure, so in his shack he carries back things to his bushel measure. He brings home hats and patent rats to fix his daughters' tresses, he brings home boots and strong cheeroots and parasols and dresses; he brings home books and shepherds' crooks and New Orleans works of art and pies and tarts and moka-es. The wolf before his cottage door long since gave up its howling; the wife is glad and so is he; when winter winds are howling.

READY FOR 1913
 The Glenelg Centre Farmers' Club elected their officers for 1913 on December 27th last. Those elected were; Pres., T. H. Binnie; Vice Pres., Thos. Nelson; Sec.-Tr., John O'Neill; Directors, Wm. Ryan, Wm. Connelly and Lawrence Mc-Keown. President Binnie and Alf O'Neill were elected as members of the Grey County Board of Agriculture for 1913.
 Miss Flossie McVicar sang a solo, and Miss Mary Binnie and her brother sang a duet. President Binnie briefly outlined the meetings of the Farmers' Institute held in South Grey recently and in a few words told of the address on Clover Growing.
 The address of the evening was delivered by Mr. John O'Neill who told of his trip to the west the past summer. He told of being lonely the first night he was on the train, and of the scenery he saw especially around the north shore of Lake Superior. Speaking of the west, he said, "The soil there varies as it does in Ontario, and a man would likely fool himself were he to buy land there without seeing it. It is a land of opportunities, but a man would be a traitor were he to knock the land that sheltered and fed his parents. I was with a threshing outfit for twenty-one days and in that time we lost only a portion of one day on account of bad weather. It is a great country and is not nearly all settled yet and is his closing comment. The next meeting of the Club will be held on January 14th, 1913.

FLESHBERTON.
 The Presbyterian Sunday School anniversary on Christmas night was very successful. The church was well filled and a splendid programme was given, Rev. H. E. Willwood, pastor of the Methodist Church, presiding in a most able and very happy manner.
 Prof. Ellwood Genoa, Educationist, Toronto, and Mr. Curry, Choir leader and soloist, Toronto, made a strong team and were so highly pleasing as to be recalled in every number. On this occasion Prof. Genoa won his audience as completely as he did here a few months ago. Mr. Curry, who possesses a magnificent bass voice, also captivated his audience and will receive a hearty welcome should he return here again. Numbers were given by local talent and the school all of which were very pleasing. At the close gifts were distributed from a well laden Christmas tree. Proceeds $43.00.
 Christmas morning was ushered in with sacred music by a load of Carol which followed the old time customs here, and for a hour or two after twilight made the wekin ring with their enchanting songs. Dr. E. K.
 Richardson conducted and Mr. Bowlers cornet was a splendid lead.
 Mr. Roy Boyd, of Teeswater is visiting his uncles J. and W. Boyd.

 of Toronto, are New Years visitors at Mr. M. K. Richardsons.
 Mr. Alex Strachan, of Rutland, Iowa, visited his sister Mrs. W. Clayton last week, it is twelve years since Mr.
 Strachan visited here last.
 Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Blackburn, of Toronto and Miss Jennie Blackburn, Mt. Forest, visited relatives here last week.
 Mr. and Mrs. J. Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. W.
 Wilson, were home for a family reunion at Mrs. T. W. Wilsons, last week.
 Miss Willa Wright, teacher at Harrow, is home for the holidays.
 Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Harpel, of Toronto, visited the latter's parents Mr. and Mrs. John Bellamy here and Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Sinclair, of Meaford, visited the latter's parents Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Sharp.
 Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Holland, spent the holidays with friends at Woodbridge and Toronto.
 Mrs. (Rev) Wellwood went to Coldwater, on Monday, to attend the funeral of her sister's child, she was accompanied by her aunt, Miss McDonald, Toronto, who visited over Sunday.
 Mrs. J. A. Boyd and daughter Mabel, went to Toronto on Monday, to attend the funeral of their aunt, Mrs. Boyd, widow of the late Captain Boyd, who died on Saturday, Mrs. Boyd, who recently visited here, was an amiable christian lady much beloved by all who made her acquaintance, the news of her death was a shock to her relatives and friends.
 Mrs. Symonds, widow of the late Mr. M. Symonds, who lived with her son John on the Town Line Artemesia and Euphrasia, died on Thursday night last, aged 80 years. The funeral took place to Flesherton cemetery on Saturday.
 Mr. and Mrs. Will Hales, of Toronto, were holiday visitors with the former's parents here.
 Rev. W. Gaudin, now a student in Victoria College and Mrs. Gaudin, are spending the holidays with relatives in this vicinity.
 At the Aretmesia municipal nominations here on Monday, a number of candidates were nominated, but the following remain in the field: For
 for Councillors, A. D. McLeod, W. J.

Arnett, a daughter. All well.
 Mrs. Thos. Bothwell is home from the west visiting her parents and friends here.
 Mr. Geo. Reid is among the many visitors home from the west.
 He was accompanied by his mother, who has been absent for three or four months.
 Miss Lottie Brown is home from Toronto for the holiday.
 Mr. T. Harrison, after a few years' absence in the west, is home for the winter.
 The event of the season took place on Friday evening last when the members of L.O.L. No.
 1192 held their second fowl supper and entertainment in their cosy hall. At the hour of seven o'clock about one hundred people, including members and friends, had assembled to spend together one of the best evenings ever spent under the auspices of the lodge.
 At the above mentioned supper had elaborately prepared and relishing and enjoyed by all. This overthe spacious hall was speedily cleared and arranged for the programme, which was of a highly interesting character. The Rev.
 Mr. Hartley was present, and was chosen as chairman, and performed the arduous task admirably.
 After a few well-chosen remarks and pointing out the duties of every true Orangeman, he proceeded to call the numbers, which are as follows; Music by the Ritchie family, who gave several choice selections, and had to respond to repeated encores; a couple of humorous recitations by Victor Williams were received amid much laughter; the songs in fine style were contributed in by Mr. Long and Mr. R. J. Ball, M.P., who impressed on the audience the great necessity of Orangism today as well as in the days of old.
 His was a well thought out address, and was most heartily received by all. Master George Williams gave a recitation and was forced to respond to an encore: a committee who so ably received; a recitation by Reuben Watson was humorous, and another pleasing number to programme; the reading Hartley, the chairman, struclaughing spot in his pres-recitation by Miss Nina Mo-was another pleasing adthe programme; a dialog-
