recovering nicely from it. Our mail carrier was considerably inconvenienced by Grasby's pend on the roadway during recent thaws. That place will have to be attended to by the two councils now in a more business like way than heretofore. Money must be spent for some real good and of a permanent nature.

Mr. Wm. Morrison has been suffering considerably of late from some growth on the throat, which may require an operation. Mr. Thos. Cook, of Zion, was down this way a week ago looking for a colt to buy, while Mr. Thos. Wilson purchased a fine mare and colt from a Bentinck farmer. What is the sense of those Grits continually talking about dealing with our nearest neighbor? Why, we don't do it in local matters.

Mr. Wm. Sirrs had a severe attack of the grip since coming down from the west. We trust it may not spoil any of his plans during his visit. Icy roads, combined with stormy day, caused a slim attendance at church on Sunday. Otherwise, the congregation was taking a rest just before starting the Lenten season.

The icy condition of the sidewalks in Durham on Saturday, and even the road very suppery, already. caused many a pedestrian to look smart to keep out of the way of that single automobile that was racing up and down street all atternoon, and to thank goodness tnat there were no more such things around. We weren't like one of our English friends in the city, who was knocked down by an auto, and had no sooner regamed ms feet than he was again deposited in the slush by a motor cycle. A friend who went to render him assistance, inquired way ne and not run out or the way antogetner, when he first got up. He answered, "wny now was I to know that the blawsted thing

PRICEVILLE.

February held its reputation all right, by coming in with the thermometer away down below zero some five or ten degrees. Sixty to seventy bushels of wheat was generally the load, and 125 bushels of oats, and it would take three good days to drive from Durham to Collingwood and back. So it's not a hard matter to figure out how much the teamsters netted after paying their expenses, but the most of them seemed to enjoy the business and if they kept themselves and horses well fed they didn't care much to lay up a good supply of cash. Old Seagram was cheap in those days, and could be had at the end of every five miles, in general, and of course the one would tell the other fellow that it was his turn to treat now, so the treating

The old-fashioned stage is thing of the past also. Many will remember some of the old drivers. Alex. Livingstone was one of the number, away back in the latter part of the 60's, and no driver was ever so liberal in giving free rides as Sandy, yet old Mr. Middaugh, the stage owner, said he never had a driver that brought him as much cash as Sandy did. It makes Sandy feel young again when telling of old-time experiences, going over snowdrifts from Durham to Maxwell.

The Forester concert, held Watson's Hall, here, Friday night, was fairly well attended. talent was good, and a good time was enjoyed by those in attendance. We are not a Forester, but by the way, we were pretty near being a Froster this morning, while doing some chores at the barn. Forgetting that the weather man changed the program from yesterday's mild weather, we forgot to take our mitts with us, and consequently our fingers were on the point of being frost bitten, but are all right again.
