BUNESSAN.

We understand a beef-riding is to start on this line this summer, which will be a great convenience to the farmers. A meeting was held at Mr. Archie McMillan's a couple of weeks ago. Mr. Archie McCunig was elected president, and Mr. T. H. Binnie secretary-treasurer of the ring.
Mr. Dan. McInnes intends having an auction sale on the 26th of this month, to dispose of his farm stock and implements.
Wm. Seth had the misfortune to have his knee badly sprained while cutting wood with Angus McArthur.
Miss Bell Binnie is visiting with friends around Mitchell.

We were pleased to have a chat with Isaac Hooper, who has been in the West the past few years. A few years hasn't made any change in Isaac's appearance, and he like a great many more, is making good in the land of the setting sun.
The storm of the past week has blocked up many of the north and south roads. This cold snap seems a little severe after being used to the mild weather which we had at the beginning of the winter.
Mr. Dan. McCormick disposed of his 100-acre farm last week to Mr. Walter Ewing, for the sum of $2,300. He intends having a sale in March, after which he will go to the West, where he owns 320 acres of Alberta's finest wheat soil.

Land seems to be changing hands quite frequently on this line. A short time ago, Mr. Thos. McKeown purchased the Jackson farm, including farm stock and implements, for the sum of $4,000. This is a good farm, and suits Mr. McKeown, being near his own farm. Last summer, Mr. Wm. Brown bought Mr. Dan. McInnes' farm of 150 acres for the sum of $3,900. Who's next?

Miss Eliza McCormick is not gaining as rapidly as her many friends would like to see her.
Mrs. Kennedy, who has been confined to her home for some time, is on the mend, we are glad to say.
This week, we chronicle the death of an old and highly respected citizen in the person of Mr. Wm. Jackson, who passed peacefully away on Saturday, February 1st, at his home in the Glen, after an illness of several months, at the advanced age of 83 years. Mr. Jackson was an Irishman by birth, and was born in 1829. After immigrating to this country with his family, he settled on the farm where he died. His wife predeceased him some forty years ago. To them were born five sons and one daughter; one son, Thomas, died a few years ago. The remaining sons are John, Frank, Archie and Sam. all in British Columbia. John is a member of the Provincial Legislature of that province, and he, with his brother Frank, paid their father a visit after he took ill. The daughter, Miss Mary, has always resided with her father, and faithfully nursed him till the end. The funeral took place the following Monday to Trinity church cemetery, and was well attended, considering the icy condition of the road. Rev. Mr. McCausland, Baptist minister, officiated at the house and grave. Mr. Jackson was a man who had highly respected by all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance; honest in his dealings with the public, and an excellent neighbor and friend. We extend our sympathy to the remaining members of the family.

For a sprain you will find Chamberlain's Liniment excellent. It allays the pain, removes the soreness, and soon restores the parts to a healthy condition. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by all dealers.

TRAVERSTON.

It takes February to kick up a fuss in Old Ontario. East and west roads almost bare; north and south ones piled with billows of the beautiful, some places five or six feet deep.

Will Jack purchased a thoroughbred shorthorn bull, rising 3 years old, from Wm. Bailey, of Mulock, last week. He is a fine looking animal.
Councillor Peart is receiving many congratulations over his purchase of E. W. Hunt's farm. Mr. Hunt was a model farmer, kept his land in fertile condition, his buildings and fences neat, and the home is a very comfortable, well-planned one. The neighborhood regrets exceedingly the removal of this bright and helpful family from the neighborhood.

We had a visit one day lately from that trust and most obliging of good fellows, Mr. Chas. Arnett, of Alberta. He has scores of warm friends in old Glenelg, who will be pleased to renew old acquaintance and revive old times. Mr. Arnett has done well in his seven years in the sunny province.
Recently, Mr. W. J. Cook purchased a fine Clydesdale colt rising three years, from a successful stock breeder in Arthemisia. Tom has a well-mated team now.

Mr. Mal. Black is our new mail carrier. Charlie Smith, and his father before him, have carried it faithfully for over twelve years, rarely failing to get through, fine or storm. We trust Mr. Black may give as true service.
Mrs. E. W. Hunt has been in Markdale the past two weeks, assisting to nurse her father, Mr. Chas. Reed, who was seriously hurt during Christmas week by a team knocking him down in the street. Mrs. A. G. Blair went up on Monday to visit her parents.

The councillors had each an experience they won't soon forget, trying to reach the township hall on Saturday. The day was a terror, the sidewalks were impassable and the wind was piercing cold. However, they all ploughed through, but Rev. Nichol had a hard fight to make it, and he suffering from the prevailing grip at that. But the genial, thoughtful clerk, had a roaring fire going, the big kettle of tea was a bracer, and the Fathers got through a lot of work in a brief day. Auditors W. J. Ritchie and R. T. Edwards presented their report, which covered twenty-nine pages of foolscap. The balance of cash on hand is the largest in the history of the township. You'll see the "boys" do some good bridge work this coming summer, and 'tis badly needed.

PERSONAL

Mr. Fred Smith returned from Gravenhurst on Tuesday.
Mr. Moore McPadden, of Toronto, is visiting his parents here.
Miss Irene Latimer leaves next week for Owen Sound, to take a course at the Northern Business College.
Mr. and Mrs. E. D. McClocklin were at New Hamburg the first of the week, attending the funeral of the latter's father.
Frossard Benton, who has been seriously ill in Montreal for some time, is expected home today, Wednesday.

Mrs. Albert McCutcheon, of Detroit, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Thos. McAnulty. It is thirty-two years since Mrs. McCutcheon was in Durham.

OBITUARY

JOHN CLARK.
Ingles' mills at Owen Sound. As all would have to wait their turn, they found on getting there that it would be some two weeks before they could return, and the thought of a possibly starving family in the home led to strategy by which they were enabled to leave shortly after midnight, and reach their homes next day.
Wolves and bears were numerous in those early days, and on two occasions in particular, Mr. Clark encountered very narrow escapes. In religion, Mr. Clark was a Presbyterian, and in politics a Liberal. Interment took place on Saturday afternoon at Latona cemetery.

FOUND IN HOME WITH HANDS AND FEET FROZEN.

Ingersoll, Feb. 6. — "Auntie" Wright, colored, died at the Alexander hospital this afternoon, twenty minutes after being admitted.
To-day, Mayor Coleridge and Chief Fysh visited her home on Tunis street, and found her with her hands and feet frozen. They at once called the ambulance, and had her removed to the hospital.
Deceased had been a resident of Ingersoll for many years, and was a familiar figure on the streets. She had resided alone for years, and during the past two or three years had been very feeble.

Members of the council for many years had tried to persuade her to go to the house of refuge at Woodstock, but she refused, and it was said that members of the indigent committee had found the door locked against them when they went to visit her to see if she needed food or fuel.
Apparently her reason for locking the door when members of the council visited her was that she feared that they would take her to the refuge.
The council has kept her in fuel and food, and when her home was visited to-day, she had a supply of both.
