One of the most interesting letters to reach us for a long time was that received last week from our young friend, Mr. Stanley Thurston, who is now on the reporter staff of The Winnipeg Free Press. Stanley has a racy style and facile pen, and we predict for him a successful career in journalism in the bustling West.

A successful outing of three fine covers at the home of Mrs. D. McTavish one afternoon last week brought together about twenty ladies, who spent a jolly time with their thimbles and needles. The sumptuous spread at the close of labor was such as the reeve's wife is already noted for.

Mrs. George Bellamy received the sad news on Thursday last of the sudden death with pneumonia of her brother, Charley Rutledge, who had gone the beginning of this month to his homestead about fifty miles from Zealandia, Sask.

His brother, Fred, of Woodbridge, left at once to bring the body here for burial. The deceased, who was a son of the late Robt. Rutledge here, was 26 years of age, and unmarried.

The spring millinery openings last week proved the usual attraction for the ladies of the village and country. The delightful spring weather gave charm to the annual event, and the ladies were out in large numbers to view the pretty creations. The show rooms were artistically decorated and the tables laden with beautifully trimmed headwear in the newest designs of the season. Miss Andrews is in charge at J. & W. Boyd's and Miss Long at F. G. Karstedt's.

Among those who spent Easter in the city were, Mr. D. McTavish, Mr. Fred McTavish, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Munshaw, Mrs. W. C. Parker, Mrs. Buskin, Miss Reta Buskin, Miss Burt, Mrs. Colquett, Mrs. M. and Miss Nicholson, Mr. and Mrs. Holland visited at Owen Sound, and Mrs. R. Bentham at Chatsworth.

Dr. Bibby, John Wright, W. P. Crossley and M. McDonald were at Owen Sound last week at the Love murder trial.

Miss Campbell, of Maxwell, is visiting Mrs. Samuel Irwin.

The services in the churches on Sunday were appropriate to Easter day. The sermons were Easter messages and special music was rendered by the choirs. The churches were prettily decorated with Easter lilies and flowering plants. Mr. M. K. Richardson assisted the pastor in the Methodist church, and Rev. Jas. Buchanan, of Dundalk, was the preacher in the Presbyterian church. Mr. Buchanan will supply the next two Sabbaths.

The Methodist congregation had a new departure in their church work on Wednesday evening of last week, when a congregational meeting was held which was interesting to all present. First a free tea was served when a pleasant social time was spent, after which the pastor took the chair and conducted a successful business meeting, during which very interesting reports were given from the various organizations in the church, of the work being done by each.

Miss Edna Limin, of Durham, is visiting the Misses Armstrong.

Miss Welton, of Mt. Forest, visited her brother over Easter.

Mrs. A. Bentham, of Toronto, is visiting relatives here.

The violent wind-storm of Friday last did much damage in this vicinity. Among those whom we learn suffered loss were Alex. McRae, barn unroofed; Archie Stewart, barn partially unroofed; Mark Stewart, barn unroofed; Robt. Waller, barn roof damaged; Wm. Sharp, barn partially unroofed; T. White, barn unroofed; John Pedlar, driving house down; J. J. Brown, unoccupied residence down; Jas. Cornfield, barn and stable unroofed; John McNevin, barn damaged; Wm. J. The large leaded window in the front of the Presbyterian church was badly damaged, and the weather-vane on the Methodist church spire was carried off.

The Elakely brothers received word here to-day, Monday, of the sudden death with congestion of the lungs of their mother, Mrs. George Best, who was spending the winter with her daughters at Toledo, Ohio. The remains will arrive here on Wednesday for burial.
