Lesson XIII.—First Quarter, For March 30, 1913.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, Comprehensive Quarterly Review—Read Heb. xi, 1-19—Golden Text, Ps. xxii, 4—Commentary by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

LESSON I.—The Creation, Gen. 1, 1, to 4, 3. Golden Text, Gen. 1, 1, "In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth." The Golden Text is a wonderful statement containing just seven Hebrew words of twenty-eight Hebrew letters and tells the whole creation story, which is stated in other words in Ps. xxxiii, 6, 9; Heb. xi, 3. Gen. 1, 2, tells of a great catastrophe which brought the earth into a condition of chaos, waste and void, from which it was delivered in six days by the Creator.

LESSON II.—Man the Crown of Creation, Gen. 1, 26, 27; II, 7-9, 15-24. Golden Text, Gen. 1, 27, "God created man in His own image." After a great and perfect restoration God made man male and female, man from the dust and woman from a part of man, and gave them dominion over all the works of His hands. In these two chapters we have a perfect earth, after the restoration without sin or curse of any kind, and God in fellowship with man. We have also the institution of the Sabbath and marriage.

LESSON III.—Man's First Sin, Gen. III, 1-12, 22-24. Golden Text, John viii, 34, "Every one that committeth sin is the servant of sin." Here we have the first mention of that old serpent, the devil, the first destructive critic questioning the word of God and the love of God and making God a liar. In the third chapter from the end of the Bible we have his final doom. In this lesson chapter we have also the first mention of a deliverer, the way of salvation and the future glory of the redeemed.

LESSON IV.—Cain and Abel, Gen. IV, 1-15. Golden Text, I John iii, 15, "Whosoever hateth his brother is a murderer." Adam, having been taught the way of redemption and of approach to God (Gen. III, 21), taught his children and their children. Abel believed God and came obediently, bringing his sacrifice. Cain was what might be called a Unitarian, having no use for the shedding of blood, but deemed the best he had would be acceptable. He was therefore rejected.

LESSON V.—The Flood, Gen. vi, 9-12; vii, 1-24. Golden Text, Rom. vi, 23, "The wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord." Cain turned his back upon God after he had killed his brother, and his descendants began to build cities, invent musical instruments, work in brass and iron and improve things generally, but all without God, and wickedness became so great that God had to cut off the race by a deluge, saving only Noah and his family.

LESSON VI.—God's Covenant With Noah, Gen. ix, 8-17. Golden Text, Gen. ix, 13, "I do set by bow in the cloud, and it shall be for a token of a covenant between me and the earth." The next destruction will be by fire at the end of this age, but we look for a new earth wherein dwelleth righteousness.

LESSON VII.—The Call of Abram, Gen. xii, 1-9. Golden Text, Gen. xii, 2, "I will bless thee and make thy name great, and be thou a blessing." Instead of dealing longer with the world, God separates a man, a family, a nation and in the present age a church, to be His special people through whom He may reveal Himself, whom He may bless and make a blessing.

LESSON VIII.—Abram and Lot, Gen. xiii, 1-12. Golden Text, Prov. x, 22, "The blessing of Jehovah; it maketh rich, and He addeth no sorrow therewith." Abram found sorrow in Egypt, and Lot found sorrow in Sodom, but both were for the time out of fellowship. It was good for Abram to get back to Bethel and to find a resting place and altar at Hebron.

LESSON IX.—God's Covenant With Abraham, Gen. xv, 5-18. Golden Text, Heb. x, 23, "He is faithful that promised." Let no one pass by the wonderful story of Melchizedek nor fail to notice the many new words of this chapter—the first "Fear not," "Believe," "Righteousness" and many others.

LESSON X.—The Destruction of Sodom, Gen. xix, 12-17, 23-29. Golden Text, II Cor. vi, 17, "Come ye out from among them and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch no unclean thing." The Lord Jesus referred to both the deluge and the destruction of Sodom and said that the end of this age will be similar as to sin and judgment.

LESSON XI.—The Text of Abraham's Faith, Gen. xxii, 1-13. Golden Text, Hos. vi, 6, "I desire goodness and not sacrifice and the knowledge of God more than burnt offerings." Isaac was the promised seed in whom the promises were to be fulfilled, but God would have us rest in Himself regardless of what we see or feel.

LESSON XII.—Isaac and Rebekah, Gen. xxiv, 58-67. Golden Text, Prov. iii, 6, "In all thy ways acknowledge Him, and He will direct thy paths." Jesus Christ, risen from the dead, is now awaiting His bride, the church, the Lamb's wife, which the Holy Spirit is preparing by telling of the glory of God, and of Christ and the riches of Grace. Soon the gathering will be complete and our Isaac will welcome us home.

Antiquity of the Saw.

The saw is the earliest tool that has been traced in Egyptian history. It was found first in the form of a notched bronze knife in the third dynasty, or about 5,000 years before the Christian era, and was followed in the fourth and fifth dynasties by larger toothed saws, which were used by carpenters, but there are no dated specimens until the seventh century before the Christian era, when the Assyrians used iron saws. The first knives on record were made out of flint and were in fact saws with minute teeth. They probably were used for cutting up animals, as the teeth would break away even on soft wood. Rasps, which are but a form of saw, were first made of sheets of bronze, punched and coiled round, but the Assyrians in the seventh century used the straight rasp made of iron similar to the modern type. In the present day the saw is probably used more than any other tool. It has taken three distinct forms for the working of both wood and metal—the straight saw, the band saw and the circular saw.

The Canvasback.

Of all the wild fowl family the canvasback duck is easily the king. Its flesh is matchless in sweet flavor unless it be by that of the redhead, and the extremely high price of it shows how precious and rare it has become. Not many years ago there was little difficulty in procuring a good bag of this bird on the shores of the Chesapeake, where it feeds upon the wild celery that gives distinction to its flesh. Today the canvasback is a rare avis, indeed. It is going the way of all flesh, only faster than most, and its disappearance will be, unlike that of the dodo, a gustatory calamity. Its funeral procession follows close upon the obsequies of the prairie hen and the wild turkey. Voracious man, gun in hand, has been as thoughtless as a gluttonous child and sought to eat all his cake at a gulp.—Philadelphia Press.

A Very Lucky Smoke.

A curious story comes from Vienna. A young man, the representative of a famous firm, who carried a large sum of money with him, spent the night at a hotel at Pressburg. According to his usual custom, he remained some time smoking in bed. Suddenly the burning cigar fell to the floor. He bent over to extinguish it when he saw a hand project from under the bed and put out the fire. It made him very uncomfortable, and he lay for fifteen minutes thinking. Then he said aloud: "How very cold it is! I must get my fur coat." Jumping out of bed, he ran to the door, opened it and shouted for help, and the robber was caught. He confessed his crime and then added that he had been a fireman formerly and could not resist the impulse to extinguish the burning cigar.

Got His Answer.

A grocer said to a little girl one election day: "Who is your father going to vote for this morning, my dear?" "I don't know," the little girl answered. "Will he vote the Republican ticket?" "I don't know." "I wonder if he'll vote Democrat?" "I don't know." "He wouldn't vote Prohibition surely?" "I don't know." The grocer as he tied up the little girl's package sneered: "Well, you don't know much, and that's a fact." "You know less," the little girl answered, "or you wouldn't be asking so many questions."—Exchange.

Corrected.

The annoyances to which pedestrians in large cities are subjected and the sometimes positive dangers to which they are exposed occasionally give rise to real jests. Take this one: Two young men walking beneath an elevated railway in a town that shall be nameless were appalled to find themselves the recipients of a bucketful of oily liquid dropped on their heads from above. "So this is America!" sneered the first, wiping his neck. "It's not," declared the second. "This is Greece!"—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Ways of the Servians.

The Servians are a genuine simple peasant folk. The Servian practices the art of co-operation. Every little homestead in Servia is a family commune, while in some of the mountain districts exists the zadruga, or communal village, where everything is held in common and where the oldest man is the guide and commander and final authority as to the mating of the people in his district.

Cheerful.

Landlady (showing room)—And such a cheerful view, sir, Gentleman (looking out)—Why, it's a cemetery! Landlady—Yes, sir. How cheerful and comfortable it will be when you gaze out to think that you're not there.—London Punch.

Must Be Queer.

"He's a peculiar chap." "Why so?" "He not only goes shopping with his wife, but he also admits that he likes to"—Detroit Free Press.

Talks Them Up.

"He talks well, doesn't he?" "Of course he talks well. He has occasion to talk well. He did the artisan kind"—Baltimore American.

All precious stones, according to a gem expert, are the better for frequent soap baths.

JUST A FEW "DON'TS."

Don't try to get the better of a man who hasn't any.
Don't get married with the sole idea that misery loves company.
Don't follow the beaten track unless you are satisfied to remain beaten.
Don't accept advice from a man who never offers you anything else.
Don't expect Opportunity to come to you with a letter of introduction.
Don't trust to luck. Nine-tenths of the people in the world guess wrong.
Don't buy your friends. They never last as long as those you make yourself.
Don't envy the rise of others. Many a man who gets to the top is mere froth.
Don't place too much confidence in appearances. Many a man with a red nose is white all the way through.
Don't forget in times of peace to prepare for war. That's about the only use some of us seem to have for peace.
Don't fail to have an object in view. Many a man leads such an aimless existence that he could fire at random without hitting it.

HE HAD A REASON.

"Why is it that Jones has cut down his living expenses to the limit since he came back from his shooting trip?" "I suppose it is because he has so many guides' families to support."

LAWS FAVORING ALCOHOLISM

Georges Clemenceau, freelance journalist and former premier of France, in a discussion of the dangers of alcoholism, ridicules existing remedies which mainly consist in taken drunken men to the police station and in placarding the inside of wineshops with prohibitions of drunkenness. He declares such methods to be utterly useless, while the laws of France relating to the manufacture and sale of the most deleterious kinds of spirit, contribute to foster this particular vice.
