WOMEN ARE MADE TO BUY HATPIN PROTECTORS.

The Swedish authorities have furnished street car conductors with rubber hatpin protectors, which are sold for a half-penny, and any woman entering a car with her hatpin protruding will be obliged to buy a protector. This action followed an accident, in which a young mother on a street car bending over her baby, ran the pin on her hat into its eye, destroying its sight.

FLESHERTON.

Rev. Jas. Buchanan again supplied the Presbyterian pulpit on Sunday. His able sermons during his supply here were much enjoyed. Elmvale, which we learn has extended a very unanimous call to Mr. Buchanan will find him strong in pulpit ability and a sound evangelical preacher. We congratulate Mr. Buchanan also on the desirable call.

Rev. Mr. McVicar will commence his pastorate here next Sunday. Mr. M. K. Richardson will preach in the Methodist church next Sunday morning in the absence of the pastor, supplying for Rev. Mr. Campbell, of Eugenia, who is ill.

Rev. R. J. McLaren, pastor of the Baptist church here, has resigned this charge, and accepted a call from the Gilmour Baptist church, Peterboro, where he will commence his ministry the first Sunday in May. McLaren is a zealous preacher and his people regret his removal. His family will remain until school holidays.

Rev. G. C. Little, of Paisley, formerly of this place, has been given $100 increase in stipend as a token of appreciation by his congregation. Mr. Little's church was unroofed with the recent windstorm, but his congregation have come forward with liberal subscriptions to cover the cost.

A WONDERFUL MEMORY.

Of many examples of prodigious memory which have been recorded from time to time, none perhaps, has been so remarkable as the case of Rev. Thomas Thelkeld, who was a Presbyterian minister at Rochdale, England, for 28 years, and died there in April, 1866, at the age of 67. Thelkeld's memory first attracted attention when he attended the grammar school at Daventry, where he began to make a close study of the Bible. When a passage was recited to him, he could immediately give it chapter and verse, and, on the other hand, if a chapter and verse were given, he could at once repeat the passage.

In later years Thelkeld was looked upon as a living concordance to the Bible in Rochdale and the neighborhood, and was constantly asked the most puzzling questions by his brother ministers, sometimes actually for information, but generally for mere amusement. He was never known to be wrong.

Thelkeld's power of memory, however, was not solely concerned with theology. He was also a linguist, and knew nine or ten languages; while dates were a passion with him, no matter how unimportant. His knowledge of historical dates, of chronology, heraldry and genealogy was encyclopedic, and one of his favorite amusements was to go through the succession in the Episcopal sees and trace the pedigrees of families.

Some people spend as they go, and others stay at home.

EDWARD KRESS

THE SMALLEST CHURCH.

Mexico, for a country that is so poor, boasts some wonderfully big and fine churches, and it also has what is claimed to be the smallest church in the world.

It is situated at Penon, near the City of Mexico, and is a rude affair, yet it serves all purposes, as the local population is small.

It has a "seating capacity" of about 10, though there are in fact no seats. The place is a favorite one for wedding ceremonies, tho' the altar is so small that only the couple to be married can stand in front of it.

The average person has to stoop in entering the door, but that encourages humility and is a good thing. The little edifice is crowned with two miniature towers with a bell in each, and these bells are rung as ceremoniously as those of the famous cathedral in the capital city.
