FLESHERTON.

The sad news was received here last week of the death of Mr. Herbert Strain, who passed away at his late home in Great Falls, Ont., on April 10th, in his 49th year. After a very impressive funeral service, the remains were laid in a vault in the Strain plot in Highland cemetery, Great Falls. The deceased, who was the second son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Strain, was born in Flesherton, Ont. on August 27, 1864. He received his education here and early in life entered upon commercial life. In 1890 he commenced business in Great Falls, where he met with much success. Referring to him, the Great Falls Tribune says: The passing of Mr. Strain takes from the business activities of Great Falls, one of the city's most interesting characters, forceful, ambitious and successful to a remarkable degree, ever active in that which promised the betterment of the city and an earnest advocate of the principles and policies which he believed would work to the upbuilding and development of the whole northwest country. He was a man of sterling integrity. His generous heart, strong character and sturdy independence made him a very useful member of society. His death is regretted by his old friends here, who deeply sympathize with the bereaved family. Mr. Strain was married in 1889 to Mrs. Sarah Abrams, who survives with four children, Clara Maud, William Russell, Arthur and Gertrude. Three brothers and four sisters also survive him.

The induction of Rev. Archibald McVicar, B.A., into the pastoral charge of Flesherton, Eugenia and Proton Station, took place in Chalmers' church here on Thursday afternoon last in the presence of a large congregation. Rev. W. C. Mercer, of Singhampton, presided. Rev. J. A. Matheson, of Priceville, preached. Rev. G. W. Rose, of Corbetton, addressed the minister, and Rev. Dr. McKenzie, of Shelburne, the people. Other ministers present were Revs. Cheyne, of Claude, Burkholder, of Caledon, Buchanan, of Dundalk, and Wellwood, of Flesherton. After the service, the ladies served tea in the school room of the church and a very cordial reception was given the new minister and his family. Mr. Alex. Carruthers was elected delegate from the joint congregations to the pre-Assembly Congress at Toronto in June.

There was a large congregation at the Presbyterian church on Sunday to hear Rev. Mr. McVicar, whose inaugural sermon was based on John 12:34, "Who is the Son of Man." Mr. McVicar is a pleasing speaker, and his thoughtful, earnestly delivered discourse made a very favorable impression. On Sunday, April 13, there passed away at Owen Sound one of the pioneers of Artemesia in the person of Mrs. Ellen Galbraith, widow of the late John Galbraith, of the Toronto line. The remains were brought here for interment beside those of her husband, who died in 1900. The deceased was 75 years of age. Five sons and one daughter survive her.

Married.—At Toronto, on Wednesday, April 16, Mr. Jeffrey Thistlewaite, son of Mr. and Mrs. All Thistlewaite of this place, to Miss Fleming, of Toronto. The rector of Christ church performed the marriage, which took place quietly at the rectory.

Mr. F. G. Karstedt's brother Lou who has been ill for some time, had his trouble diagnosed as chronic appendicitis and underwent an operation last week in Owen Sound hospital.

Mr. Will Orr, who has been in Toronto for three weeks under treatment for severe rheumatic affection, is reported improving. During his absence from home, Mr. Orr's family has increased by the birth of a daughter on the 6th inst.

Mrs. W. H. Thurston is visiting her daughter, Mrs. R. W. Shaw, of Lion's Head, to whom was born a daughter on the 13th inst.

Mrs. W. J. Forest, is visiting her son here.

Mr. F. G. Karstedt was in the city the week end.

Miss Maud Richardson is visiting her sister at Lucknow.

Mrs. Gordon Laird left last week for her home at Regina, after a few weeks' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J.A. Boyd.

Mr. W. Barnhouse, and daughter Ella, of Toronto, paid old friends a visit last week, before leaving Toronto this week to reside at Edmonton.

Mr. Stanley Thurston is forging ahead in the hustling city of Winnipeg. From the Free Press staff he has gone to take the responsible position of managing editor of two foreign language papers published in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. John Chard, of Markdale, attended the induction of Rev. Mr. McVicar last week. Dr. C. F. Ottever is spending a few days in the city. Mr. Kendall Boyd gave a birthday party on Monday to a dozen of his young companions, and the boys had a jolly time. Mrs. J. M. Duncan has adorned her home with a new Karn piano placed by Mr. Basset, of Markdale.

Mr. Geo. Watson was on a business trip to Creemore on Monday.

USE OF TOBACCO RESTRAINED.

During the 1908 session of the Dominion Parliament an Act was passed "To Restrain the Use of Tobacco by Young Persons", which we apprehend, the general public are not familiar with its provisions. Section 1 enacts that every one is guilty of an offence and liable to summary conviction who directly or indirectly, sells or gives or furnishes to a person under sixteen years, any cigarettes or cigarette papers, whether for his own use or not, or sells or gives or furnishes to such person, tobacco in any form other than cigarettes which tobacco he knows or has reason to believe is for the use of that person. Any person found guilty is liable to a penalty of $10 for the first offence, $25 for the second offence and $100 for the third offence.

Section 2 makes it the duty of any constable, or person having the powers of constable, or person authorized so to do by any by-law in that behalf made by any authority or persons having power to make such by-law, to seize any cigarettes, cigarette papers or tobacco in any form other than cigarettes in the possession of any person apparently under the age of sixteen years whom he finds smoking or chewing or about to smoke or chew tobacco in any street or public place. Section 3 enacts penalties on summary conviction for violation of Section 2 and a sub-section of this clause makes it the duty of justices of the peace to compel persons convicted of violating this section to tell where or from whom they purchased or obtained the cigarettes or tobacco found in the possession of any such person. Refusal to tell is made a contempt of court.

Section 4 enacts that if it is established that an automatic machine for the sale of cigarettes, cigars or tobacco in any form kept on any premises, is being used by persons under the age of sixteen years, the justice may order the person on whose premises the machine is kept, to take such precautions to prevent its being used as are specified in the order, or, if necessary, to remove the machine within any specified time. The penalty for refusing to comply with this order is $25 and a further penalty of $5 for each day during which the offence continues. And a sub-section also empowers the owner of such machine or his agent to seize any cigarettes or tobacco obtained from such a machine by a person apparently under the age of sixteen years.

Section 5 exempts a person under the age of sixteen years from the penalties of this Act, who is employed by a dealer in tobacco, either wholesale or retail.

Section 6 enacts that for the purposes of this Act the word "cigarette" includes any small cigar made of tobacco rolled in paper, tobacco leaf or any other material.

Section 7 enacts: For the purposes of this Act any person who appears to the justice dealing hereunder to be under the age of sixteen years shall be presumed to be under that age unless it is shown by evidence that he is in fact over that age, and the provisions of section 9st of the Criminal Code shall apply to offences under this section.

DEATH OF TERENCE PINNEGAN

There died in Durham on February 23, one of the pioneer settlers of Bentinck township. The old landmarks are rapidly passing to their reward, and soon naught but their fading memories, with an occasional old-fashioned photograph will remain as souvenirs of those hardy sons of honest toil to whom the present generation owes a debt of gratitude which they can never repay on this side of that yawning chasm which separates time from eternity. The subject of this sketch was a typical Irishman. Born in the county Monaghan, Ireland, in 1849, he emigrated to America with his parents, brothers and sisters, in 1847. Arriving where the city of Toronto now is situated, they soon pushed forward to the county of Grey, which was then rapidly settling, and located in Bentinck on the S.D.R. about three miles west of Durham. Here while in his prime he met and married Jane Russell, who was the partner of his joys and sorrows until death did them part. Their union was blessed with five children, viz: Mary, Mrs. A. Moriarty, of Paris, Ont.; Ellen, Mrs. Hillis, of Shallow Lake; James, living on the Garrafrax Road; John, deceased; and William, in Lethbridge, Alta., the latter not coming home for the funeral, owing to the distance. Deceased leaves a lonely widow at home as all the family are away and married. He also leaves one brother, Peter, in Ishpeming, Mich. who is superintendent for the Lake Superior & Ishpeming Railway Co., besides two sisters in St. Paul, Minn. The funeral on Monday, March 3rd, to the Roman Catholic church in Durham, and cemetery at Orchard, was well attended, considering the condition of the roads. Rev. Ferguson officiated. The pall bearers were Nicholas Fagan, Pat Finnegan, W. Morrison, Andy Moriarty, James Welsh and Thos. McNulty.—Midway correspondence in the Aytton Advance.

A STATE DINNER IN CHINA.

If you think that you are unable to stand a dinner which lasts for three or four hours because of the rightful boredom of it all—keep away from China. For there at a fashionable dinner you might be called upon to remain at the table for anywhere from 20 to 30 hours. For they do have dinners there that sometimes reach that length. State dinners have been known to begin at noon of one day and last until the evening of the next. Foreign envoys bring back tales of sitting sometimes 35 hours on a stretch and being served with 140 different courses and 150 different dishes.

There is nothing that makes a man feel so small as to realize that he has been taken in.

When things won't come your way you haven't the right kind of bait.
