W. IRWIN E Itor and Proprietor.

DURHAM, APRIL 24th, 1913.

NAGGING

The story of the Love tragedy away in the back townships, is a sad one. I have read much pro brothers survive, Thomas Davis, and con about it, and it is inex- of Jackfish, Ont., and Henry, of pressibly gloomy and abhorrent.

ating circumstance. The one wit- represented the Albion Ridge Mission in Lethbridge District ness who was familiar with the meetings as lay delegate, and also home life in that lonely-and we attended the annual sessions may infer, comfortless-and un- Alberta Methodist Conference. He painted frame house on the side of as he was always cheerful and the road throws some light on it. was ever ready to help with heart The woman who is now in her and hand all who needed his asgrave was continually reproach- sistance. ing her laborer husband because he was a poor manager and hesmoked! And yet he was a steady worker. How many women in this world to-day would established a mosquito departhave thanked God daily for such ment which is as prompt and effia man! A man who toiled dili- cient as many fire departments. gently, who was good to her and If a person discovers a mosquito her children. Supposing he was telephone call will bring them of this place, and was born in the not a great financier-how many promptly to the scene. It is then township of Caledon some 80 of us are? These women would not have grudged their men their duty to find the pool or body of water where the most the cemetery in this town beside for numberless purposes by differpipes. Thousands of wise women destroy it. Owing to this sort of some 30 years. Rev. Mr. Mathe- it is considered valuable in the have found out that a man with vigilance and prompt action, son conducted the burial, which construction of battleships, the a pipe in his mouth is never dan- neither mosquito bars nor fly took place from the home of Mr. A great injustice has been done the North American Indian. It has been iterated and reiterated by historians and travellers and him. She was too proud of him feet. It is no small job. that was their food. She would unique sugar-bush scenes. do all the rest-she would even Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Reed, Week end Gaelic will be preached in the follow in safety behind, to bear with their daughter, Mrs. A. G. Presbyterian church here on the sensible girl. She never turned Mrs. W. J. Cook arrived home her tongue on him so long as her Jennie is down in Egremont with tepee was safe and there was her sister, Mrs. W. J. McFadden.

But it was a quick death, and Aljoe. insignificant fly. Just one! One ers. Miss Mary Peart was made There were two pigs in the pen the frying pan into the fire had The Chronicle and Toronto forehead—one drop every half- ficers of the Epworth League are: morist's idea was that the slop hour. You would think that Pres., John McNally; 1st Vice, Mrs. Miss McVean fed the pigs must wouldn't kill him. It did worse: W. J. Greenwood: 2nd Vice, Miss have been too hot. Others blame reproach their victims till he looks upon the Bible on the table as a child regards the ominous switch suspended on the wall-as an in- Frosty and cold for the last few asylum statistics and have a new always been left out of these same quite a lot of ploughing. statistics. Let us start at the asy- other buildings unroofed by Good of these institutions to give us the repaired again.

OBITUARY

D. J. DAVIS.

John Davis passed peacefully school barefooted as did their us, and that the recollections away at his home at Albion Ridge, fathers in days of old. The plow- our intercourse will ever be Alberta. Deceased was 55 years of man will be calling for his old the brightest and best. age, and was surrounded by his straw hat, and casts off the old family and friends at the time of winter cap. to his relatives. Interment took fair ones being made one.

grave by a large concourse of the West, where he spent the rough and many were seasick. The friends and neighbors, testifying last couple of years. Charlie girl sat in the bow, and was unthe sincere respect and sympathy was not feeling very well, and usually quiet for her, so her fathentertained toward the bereaved thought best to come home for a er thought. He watched her a few

Mr. Davis was born on the 2nd tender mother. oncession of Glenelg on the 12th The funeral of Mrs. McKinnon "Well, not exactly sick, but I November, 1857. On the 22nd of took place a couple of weeks ago. should hate to yawn," she replied.

October, 1882, he was married to Miss Elizabeth E. Greenwood, of the same township. She, together with ten children, five sons and five daughters, all living except the youngest daughter, Annie, who died four years ago, are left to mourn the loss of a kind and affectionate husband and father.

The surviving members of the family are Mrs. Everett Hunt, of Diamond City District, Alta.; Mrs. Wilmur Harris, of Barons, Alta., William, Campbell, Benjamin, Elizabeth, Kate, Thomas, David British Columbia,

The deceased and his family Why should this young man, went to Alberta in 1904 from Michadmittedly sober and industrious, igan, From the very beginning of be awaiting a terrible death in a his stay there he took an active murderer's cell at Owen Sound? the welfare of the community, es-One looks almost imploringly, al- pecially in educational and religmost hopefully for some extenu- lous work. He almost invariably screens are necessary in the whole Tryon ,here. city of Rio de Janeiro.

> NO MOSQUITO BARS NOR FLY SCREENS.

TRAVERSTON

Our last week's budget got lost, missionaries that the Indian would and this one will be brief, as we not work. His squaw wouldn't let are compelled to wash our weary will be buried in the graveyard in while the graveyard in the graveyard in while the graveyard in the protect her and her papooses from homes of Mr. Jas. Hastie and sell. This is the 10th horse, be- fibre. Toronto, are up on a visit to the could have got $300 if he would getting from the stalks a silky wrong and outrage, and incident- Councillor G.E. Peart. He is quite tween colts and working horses, ally hunt down and kill the game an artist and has traced some Mr. McLeod has lost in the last more, and she nags. She nags, finishing touches on ours on by fire, which was caused by their way to attend the marriage The Chronicle and Weekly nags, cause she poisoned some men, he possesses. Quite a wit, too! think they were hot enough to This week he is assisting Mr. Alex. ser the building on fire. There they didn't suffer so very much. Zion Sunday school and Epworth and straw in the pen soon caught But nagging is more cruel than League supporters held their fire. As soon as the men working | Longfellow's grandson is a street The Chronicle and Weekly the slowest of poisons. But, you annual election of officers on in the surrounding fields saw the car conductor. He probably unwas in a lather of sweat by one nie Cook, Mary McArthur and had they not thrown water on it. paper. Mrs. Will Jack were elected teach- One pig and one hen were burnt.

The people who jump out of Daily News, 1 year... ... 2.50 his back and let water drop on his tary-treasurer. School re-opens have their own thought about it drove him mad. It was a sort Mary McArthur; 3rd Vice, Miss the clucking hen. And the people who do these Treas., A. G. Blair The pastor ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION Organist, Miss Jennie Cook; Sec .things are generally pious. From purposes holding weekly meetings their lofty religious height they on Friday evening during the days, but it has the appearance Let us shuffle the prison and now of getting warmer. A heavy thunder-storm passed over this deal. I think there is one reason week, followed by a cold wave. for crime and murders that has Not much seeding don eyet, but lums. We will ask the inspector Friday's gale are getting them To Miss Edith Diegel:

PRICEVILLE.

nagged at, nagged at, nagged at, hand and summer is approaching. leave of us, have assembled, this nagged, nagged, nagged, The little birds are beginning to evening to express to you our nagged at-nagged at-nagged at sing their melodious songs of sincere regrets that in future you -till they went mad! -The Khan. praise, which is a sure indication will be absent from our midst. that May is not far away. The While we deeply regret your animal creation rejoices to be departure, still, feeling our loss set at liberty and we hear the may be your gain, we cannot cows bawling when their calves permit you to depart without sayare taken from them. The little ing that your constant and uni-On the 17th of March, David their winter shoes and tripping to been thoroughly appreciated by boys will soon be laying aside form attention to our wants has his death. Though not enjoying Wedding bells are ringing near place at Albion Ridge, on the 20th Rev. Mr. Matheson attended the of March, the services being con- ordination of Rev. Mr. McVicar at ducted by Rev. T. P. Perry, pres- Flesherton Presbyterian church on ident of Alberta Methodist Con- Thursday of last week, and ference and a very warm per- preache dthe opening sermon. sonal friend of the deceased. He Mr. Norman McIntyre, who was was assisted in the ceremony by unwell for some weeks, is getting A young girl was taking a trip time, to be taken care of by a moments in silence, then asked:

You May Publish My Letter About "Fruit-a-tives"

the great debt of gratitude he owes letter published in order that other sufferers may be induced to try these wonderful tablets made of fruit juices.

SARNIA, ONT., FEB. 5th. 1911

"I have been a sufferer for the past 25 years with Constipation, Indigestion and Catarrh of the Stomach. I tried many remedies and many doctors, but derived no benefit whatever. Finally, I read an advertisement for "Fruit-atives' I decided to give "Fruit-a-tives" a trial and they did exactly what was claimed for them. I have now taken them for some time and find they are the only remedy that does me good. I have recommended "Fruit-a-tives" to a great many of my friends, and I cannot praise these fruit tablets too highly"

PAUL J. JONES.

50c a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. At dealers or sent postpaid on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

Monday, April 21st. Mrs. McLean tween two walls of steel. was born in Priceville over fifty In Russia the seed is raised by years ago, at her old home at the the millions of pounds each year fine mare last week while foaling. that an excellent dye. All she asked of him was that he Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Currer, of He often refused $275 for her, and The Chinese are successful in ed were it the war path, to skin Charlie Smith is recovering in the forenoon, "Gu de urraid sa and dress the game were it the from his recent attack of piculisy, that am band Durham and there Mr. Mike Quillinan purchased a Gaelic," or "How many are there has hunting grounds. And it kept fancy top buggy from A. B. Mc- in the town of Durham that has

VARNEY.

But the white woman wants laid on and nailed to stay should pen owned by Miss McVean of Barrie, visited with the latter's The Chronicle and Weekly

After faithful service for five or six years, Miss Edith Diegel is severing her connection with the Hahn House, and will leave shortly. On Friday evening last, the boarders at the hotel, with whom she was very popular and most highly esteemed, decided to manifest their appreciation in some tangible manner, and presented her with a valuable dinner service, together with the following address:

The Hahn House, Durham. April 18, 1913.

number of people there who were nagged at nagged at nagged at nagged at nagged at nagged at has busy, as the spring term is at learned that you are about to take

Wishing to express in a tangood health of late years, the end by and before this gets into print cept of this dinner service, accompanied with our best wishes for your future happiness and prosperity. Signed on behalf of the Boarders.

The remains were followed to the Chas. McDonald came home from small steamer. The lake was quite "Are you feeling sick, Marion?"

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

es of the local option by-law which have come before the police court here and convictions obtained, advantage is not taken of the 1912 amendment to the Liquor License Act, Section 13, which provides that any person found guilty of the offence of being intoxicated in a public place in local option territory shall be compelled to state the name of the person and the place in which he obtains such liquor, and in case Mr. Jones is proud to acknowledge of refusal to do so he shall be imprisoned for a period not ex-'Fruit-a-tives'. He is glad to have his | ceeding three months, or until he discloses such information. Parliament has thus amended the Act to facilitate law enforcement in such communities as this, and yet conviction after conviction passes and the amendment is never applied. Why is this? Is any explanation forthcoming? -A Reader of The Chronicle.

> WHY HE WAS LATE. "What made you so late?"

"I met Smithson." "Well, that is no reason why you should be an hour late get-

"Did you tell him to take Chamberlain's Tablets?" "Sure, that is what he needs. Sold by all dealers.

quitoes are being developed and her husband, who predeceased her ent nations. In the United States stalks being pithy and when com-Th eremains of the late Mrs. Mc- a tremendous quantity of water. Lean, (Jessie McLean(are expect- These blocks are made to line the to arrive on the noon train this battleships' sides and placed bewill be buried in the graveyard in while the residue is turned into a for one thing, and besides, she the ground is cold enough to cry- Mr. Wm. McLeod, jr., lost a blossoms furnish honey and after

PERSONAL

Mr. D. B. McFarlane was in Detroit, and Flint, Mich., last week. Mrs. Ed. Kress was in London last week attending the annual meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of the Diocese of Huron.

Mrs. Creed and her daughter, of 69P460448888888888888888888 Cleveland, Ohio, spent a few days last week and this visiting her brother and sister, Mr. Walter Any one wanting a roof well On Friday morning last the pig- Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Douglas, of say, you can't nag a man to Rev. W. W. Prudham presiding them out, but were unsuccessful in father meant when he wrote that death. You can't eh? I have seen R. T. E. was elected superintend- their efforts. The house, how- line, "Be not like dumb, driven a splendid horse tortured until he ent and Misses Ena McNally, Jen- ever might have been consumed cattle," comments a Detroit news-

For rheumatism you will find Daily Mail and Empire, 1 yr. 4.75 nothing better than Chamberlain's The Chronicle and Toronto Liniment. Try it and see how Daily Globe, 1 year 4.75

Mr. Editor,-I would like to know why, in the cases of breach-ting home to supper." "I know, but I asked him how he was feeling, and he insisted on telling me about his stomach pressed in blocks the pith absorbs quickly it gives relief. For sale The Chronicle, and The Grain

Valley

ANNOUNCEMENT

In The TOWN HALL, DURHAM

FRIDAY, APRIL 25th, 1913

"THE PLAYERS"

of the Anglican Young People's Association of Durham, will appear in

A Comedy Drama, of New England Farm Life

from the pen of ARTHUR LEWIS TUBBS

A PLAY WITHOUT A PLOT

PURE BLOOD MAKES

TRUE HEALTH

At this season of the year the system should be given a thorough cleaning out and the blood, tissues and con stitution built up, freshened and purified. Rich, red, bounding blood can be enjoyed by anyone-you only have to take the famous

NA. DRU. CO. BLOOD PURIFIER

This remedy is a Natural, Pure, Rapid reconstructor curing all blood bowel, liver and kidney diseases where the ailment is due to impurities in the blood. Nothing so good for indigestion, rheumatisim, pimples, watery blood or jaundice.

GUN'S DRUG STORE DURHAM

G.T.R. Town Ticket Agent

"If You Get It at Gun's It's Good."

Hardware & Furniture

As there has been a change in the firm we invite every person who intends making a purchase to come and obtain an idea how cheap we are going to sell for the next 30

This Advertisement is Genu ine

As we are reducing our stock of Farniture to make room for a new

SHIPMENT OF FURNITURE

Lenahan and McKechnie

The Chronicle and Family Herald & Weekly Star 1 yr. 1,90 Witness, 1 year 1.90

Sun, 1 year..... 1.90 The Chronicle and Farmer's Advocate, 1 year... 2.40 The Chronicle and Canadian Daily Star, 1 year..... 2.50

The Chronicle and Toronto Daily World, 1 year..... 3.75 The Chronicle and Toronto

Growers' Guide, Winnipeg $1.60

Farm

Grippe Recovery

+++++++++++++++++++++

Nothing will build you up better and quicker than

WINE OF COD LIVER OIL

* HYPOPHOSPHITE'S

If you are feeling miserable weak and tired, lack energy, either of the above will soon restore you. Try a bottle on our guarantee, money cheerfully refunded if no benefit,

Macfarlane & Co.,

DRUGGISTS AND STATIONERS DURHAM

C. P. R. Town Ticket Office Buy Your Tickets Here *********

For Rent THAT COMFORTABLE COTTAGE

at No. 3 Albert street; two single bedrooms and one double bedroon, dining room, kitchen, and wood shed; hard and soft water; all the garden required: orchard: good cellar, cement floor, etc. Apply to proprietor, Wm. Johnston, Sr.

MARKET REPORT

DURHAM, APR. 16 1913 Fall Wheat $ 95 to $ 95 Spring Wheat 95 to

Replete with tender pathos—vivid character portraits and homely humor.	Feed Oats
Special Music = New Scenic Effects and a Well Balanced Cast Popular Prices, 15c 25c 35c	Potatoes, per bag
Plan at Macfarlane's Drug Store CURTAIN AT 8.15	Wool
	Ducks

which makes it easy to of The above features Shop next to

The top of Supply G

Gen. Agt , D

Manitob

March to October inc sipeg and Return onton and Return Other points in prop Limit two months. TOURIST SLEEPING all excursions. Comfortable

HOMESEEKE

ipped with bedding, can derate rates through local ag ome Seekers' Train April, Septembe 10.20 p.m. d Through Tr Pull particulars fro

Weh that v

save

from ton, a

McGO

Oat M ***** ****

SHE The nervot

ed the porte anxiously. "Oh, porte sleep?"
"What is berth, ma'ar She looke for a mome with it, but is third; the a sister bot