Don't forget

Pharaoh's third day birthday party of last lesson (xl, 20-23) suggests other third day incidents, and there are many, all pointing anointed eyes to the greatest of all third day events, His People's Mills W. D. Connor resurrection from the dead with all its benefits to believers to be fully enjoyed at our resurrection from the dead.

Now we have a third year story of sudden and marvelous exaltation from a dungeon to a throne, from a place of darkness and suffering to the most prominent place in the power of Pharaoh to grant, for we read, "It came to pass at the end of two full years" (xli, 1). Two years of forgetfulness on the part of the butler, two years of continued humiliation for Joseph, and then "it was enough." God's time of deliverance for His faithful servant had come.

Pharaoh's dreams, which all the wise men of Egypt could not interpret, led the butler to remember his faults and to speak to Pharaoh of the prisoner, the young Hebrew who was servant to the captain of the guard and who could and did correctly interpret dreams (xii, 9-13). Then was Joseph made to run out of the dungeon, having shaved himself and changed his raiment probably with more baste than he had ever done in his life before (verse 14 margin). If the messenger told Joseph why he was wanted we may imagine that possibly Joseph had visions of deliverance near at hand. As he stood before Pharaoh the king said that he had dreamed a dream which no one could interpret, but he had heard that Joseph could understand and interpret dreams.

In his reply Joseph acknowledged God, saying: "It is not in me. God No. 1 Manitoba wheat cannot be beat | the demand for the graduates is far in shall give Pharaoh an answer of excess of the supply. College open all peace" (verses 15, 16). Pharaoh then year. Enter now. Write for Catalogue told Joseph his two dreams and added, "I told this unto the magicians, but there was none that could declare it unto me" (verse 24). We may easily imagine Joseph lifting up his heart to God as he listened to the king's recital of his dreams. What a picture—a man who had been shut away from the world and all the wisdom of the world for years in the presence of a great king, but more consciously in the presence of the King of kings and in communion with Him and therefore knowing what all the wisdom of this world could not teach him! We see the same great lesson in the case of Daniel and his friends, for when all the wisdom of Babylon could neither tell the king his dream nor interpret the dream when he told it nor read even four words written by God Daniel by the Spirit of God could do all. The modern sholarship, so called, or the wisdom of this world is just as helpless today to understand the things terpret the dream to the king and saw as he told the king that God was showing Pharaoh what He was about to do. He also told Pharaoh that inasmuch as the dream was doubled it was because the thing was established by God and that He would shortly bring it to pass (verse 32). The king was so impressed by the supernatural power in Major Truman, in Century. this man that he at once promoted him to the highest place of power, saying, "Only in the throne will I be greater than thou" (verses 39, 40). WOMEN AS GAMBLERS.

Coolness and Luck.

The women gamblers at Monte Carlo are by no means the excitable, hysterical and unscrupulous players that have been described to us. Many are unscrupulous and dishonest, but they are usually caimer than the men. There nings under your very nose, asserts will sit beside a man and openly claim a part of his winnings, and if the man is wise be will surrender to the extortion rather than disturb the domestic bliss. But, as a rule, the women gamble with equanimity, and how extraordinarily lucky they are, to be sure!

Women have wonderful luck. While papers on the table. men work out elaborate "systems" and sit frowning over figures, the mysteries of which would take a very Napoleon he. 'Here is a resolution empowering of finance to elucidate, and then play -and lose, women simply plank money There is my resignation. I will leave on the number they are "sure is going | the room for five minutes so that you to win," and they do win!

New York Sun. ing and fuming and worrying what to do next, she calmly surveys the figures she has jotted down, gives him another "piece" at the psychological moment to put on, and her big velvet embroidered bag grows wider in circumference every hour. The five franc "piece" is even beavier and clumsier to carry than our "crown" piece. But she is so thoroughly used to it in quantities that she does not mind at all, but says, "The heavier the better!"

The games at the casino are perfectly fair, says the writer. When there is trouble, and trouble is very rare, it is due to the players and not to the game, "and I am sorry to say that when there is anything wrong it is generally a case of 'cherchez la femme.' "

ANDREW JOHNSON.

He Was Perfect In Figure and Scrupus lously Neat In Dress.

Andrew Johnson was one of the neat est men in his dress and person I have ever known. During his three years in Nashville, in particular, he dressed black broadcloth frock coat and waistcoat and black doeskin trousers and wore a silk hat. This had been his attire for thirty years, and for most of that time, whether as governor of Tennessee, member of congress or United States senator, he had made all of his own clothes. He was so scrupulous about his linen that he invariably changed all of it daily and sometimes

He was matchlessly perfect in figure, about five feet ten, had handsome broad shoulders, fine forehead, superb face, dark bushy hair and small hands and feet. The most marked feature about him was his eyes, which were small, and, although such eyes are not usually attractive, his were black, sparkling and absolutely beautiful.

He was not a gamester at anything and could play only indifferently at of God, for they can only be known by checkers. In 1862 he explained to me the Spirit of God (1 Cor. ii, 11). SHUN LOOSE SHOES.

They Give the Feet as Much Trouble as the Pinching Kind.

Seven persons out of ten suffer excruciating pain at one time or another with their feet. A single corn no larger than a grain of sand can take all the snap and vitality right out of you. Two thirds of modern foot troubles are due to the fact that almost every one-man, woman and child-wears shoes too loose. The shoe itself may be correct as to size and shape, but it not fastened tight at the only point of control-namely, the instep.

When you set your foot upon the floor or pavement in the act of walking the shoe adheres, and if it be loosely fastened over the instep the foot pushes down into the toe of the shoe. At certain spots on the foot this slipping causes friction. These spots are the soles of the feet, the tops, ends and inner sides of the toes, the great and little toe joints and occasionally even the back of the beel.

When the friction thus caused is continued hour after hour and day after day one or more of these spots are almost sure to become inflamed and sore. A slight thickening, called a "callous," is formed. As the friction and pressure go on the resulting callous may thicken up unevenly. Then it is called a corn.-Woman's Home Companion.

Beware of the Dog!

In Jersey they have an interesting device for keeping off tramps and burglars. A watchdog, too ferocious and too valuable to be allowed to run loose, is tied to a rope about four feet long, and this rope is tied to a ring that runs loosely over a long wire about four feet from the ground. The wire stretches from the back porch to a pole at the end of the yard, and as the ring slips easily over it the dog has the full run of the yard without being able to bite visitors or innocent passersby. The wire is practically invisible by night, and many a prowler has gone on his rather study and work or go to bed way a sadder but a wiser man after assuming from the looks of things in the front of the house that there wasn't any dog.-New York Mail.
