Worlds Greatest Separators

THE "STANDARD"

Do not buy a Cream Separator until you have examined the machine which only requires oiling once every four months.

THE "STANDARD'S" Gear runs in clean oil from the time you start the crank till you stop it.

The top of Supply Can is only 38 inches from the floor, no high lifting. The Crank is proper height for turning, and is short, which makes it easy to operate.

The above features are only a few which make the Standard a great favorite.

For "Quality" Printing Try The Chronicle

In an article in the... line, Walter Prichard Eaton writes: "The theater door man is an important person on first nights, because as he passes out return checks between acts he hears the comments of the audience. His ears are wide open on such occasions, and, mingling with the crowd in the lobby, are other overhearers of the theater, all seeking to overhear the comments, and all rushing to report to the manager. Not long ago the last act of a play in New York was entirely changed after the opening night solely because the women in the audience, as they left the house, were nearly all complaining of the tragic finish. When a piece hangs in the balance between success and failure, when "inking" can perhaps turn the scale, these frank comments overheard in the lobby are of great importance to author and manager. In other cases they are a barometer of success or failure, though the ultimate test, of course, is the subtle attitude of the audience in the auditorium, its spontaneous enthusiasm or its coldness and signs of boredom."

A Household Maneuver. "And what," asked the caller after he had been shown all over Mr. Bobbs' new house, "is that pretty little article hanging over the piano?"

"Don't you know?" answered Mr. Bobbs enthusiastically. "Why, that is a handy match receiver, made by Mrs. Bobbs. I scratch a match and use it. It must not be thrown on the floor. There is the receiver. Holding the burned match carefully in my fingers, I move the piano away from the wall to the center of the room. Then I go down in the basement and get the stepladder. I place the stepladder against the wall, mount it, deposit the match in the receiver, climb down again. I then return the stepladder to the basement, come back and move the piano into its former position. There's nothing like having these things about the house. It makes neatness and discourages smoking." - Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Recipes For Long Life.

The late John Bigelow, the patriarch of diplomats and authors, and the no less distinguished physician and author Dr. S. Weir Mitchell were together several years ago at West Point. Dr. Bigelow was then ninety-two and Dr. Mitchell eighty.

The conversation turned to the subject of age. "I attribute my many years," said Dr. Bigelow, "to the fact that I have been most abstemious. I have eaten sparingly and have not used tobacco and have taken little exercise. "It is just the reverse in my case," explained Dr. Mitchell. "I have eaten just as much as I wished. If I could get it, I have always used tobacco, immoderately at times, and I have always taken a great deal of exercise."

With that ninety-two years shook his head at eighty years and said, "Well, you will never live to be an old man." - Lippincott's.

A Free Hotel.

At Miramar, on the island of Mallorca, in the Mediterranean, is a free hotel, where accommodations may be had for three days upon application to the agents of the Archduke Luis Salvator of Austria. It is a beautiful spot, and the entire neighborhood is full of attractions to the traveler. Attendants in charge look after the welfare of guests, who must, however, provide for their own food. Beds, linen and table appointments they receive gratis, and bread and wine can be obtained very reasonably. It is said that this provision is due to the gratification the Austrian owners felt years ago when they first came to live at Miramar. Such peace and such loveliness, they felt, should be shared by all lovers of nature who passed that way. - Argonaut.

One of the Antiques.

"There," said the man who had purchased a pedigree that reached back to the "coming over" of William the Conqueror, "is a gold snuffbox that was used by one of my great-grand-fathers."

"Very interesting," replied the gentleman who was examining the thing. "Very interesting indeed. I had no idea that the 'made in Germany' mark had been in use as long as that." - Chicago Record Herald.

A Sad Mistake.

The wife cooked a dish of prunes, which appeared to find no favor with members of the family. The prunes "went begging" for a day or two until the husband, tired of seeing them, decided to get rid of them.

The next evening he found a big dish of prunes at his place. "You liked those other prunes so well," said his wife, "that I thought I would cook some more." - Indianapolis News.

He Took After Mother.

The star pupil arose at the school entertainment to declaim his piece. "Lend me your ears," he howled. "Huh," sneered the mother of the opposing but defeated pupil, "that's Sarah Jane Doran's boy. He wouldn't be his mother's son if he didn't want to borrow something." - Exchange.

Again.

Marie - I hear that you are going to be married again. Edith - Again? Why, I've never been married yet. Marie - No, but I can't recall the number of times you were "going to be"

Reserved.

Thomas - That Miss Wadleigh is rather reserved, isn't she? Jack - Very much so. I reserved her for life last night.

Love, a cough, smoke and money cannot long be hid. - French Proverb.

British programme, necessitated by the Senate's rejection of the Naval Bill.

Mr. Churchill declared that the three proposed Canadian ships were essential to British Empire security. He also declared that if Canada failed, the Admiralty must supply the deficiency. Hence Mr. Churchill is now being called upon, despite radical pacifists, to present the necessary supplementary estimates.

The Globe says: "We cannot afford to ignore the dangers of our Empire, which are developing in every part of the world, or delay our preparations to defend the Dominions as well as the Mother Country."

The Pall Mall Gazette says: "The three ships must be provided as a last resort. We must provide them ourselves. If Mr. Borden emerges victorious from the constitutional struggle, he may be able to take over the construction which would have been then well advanced, instead of having to start a year or eighteen months late, in relation to his policy."

FOURTH LINE A. & G.

Now for potato planting. The 24th passed on quietly in this burg. Some went fishing, but we've heard no big fish stories yet.

Miss Aggie Harro, of Owen Sound, spent the holidays at the parental home here.

Messrs. Chris. Brady and Reuben Walker visited the former's sister, Mrs. Irwin, a few days last week.

Mr. Wilfrid Wilson motored from Meaford one day last week, and was the guest of his aunt, Mrs. G. Patterson.

We are sorry to report Mr. A. McKinnon on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. Hutchinson, accompanied by M. Leslie, all of Vande-leur, were guests of Mrs. W. Fletcher a week ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Irwin spent a few days this week at the former's parental home, east back line.

Rev. Mr. Leese was a caller in this burg on Thursday last.

Miss Taylor, and pupils, gave an interesting program on Friday, which was enjoyed very much.

Miss Janet Fletcher, of Rocklyn, was a visitor at her home on Sunday.

To any of our readers we are prepared to give The Daily Mail and Empire, or The Daily Globe, up to January 1, 1914, for the small sum of $2.00. The Weekly Mail and Empire, or The Weekly Globe, will be sent to any address in Canada, except Toronto, to Jan. 1, 1914, for 35c. Orders sent to this office will receive prompt attention.

Reasonable Objection.

Conan Doyle was once asked why he didn't establish a detective agency and employ Sherlock Holmes' tactics in conducting the business. "For the very good reason," he replied, "that all the knots Sherlock Holmes untied were of my own tying. I should fail if I undertook to unravel other people's entanglements. I believe that on one occasion I could have done so, though. I was in a tailor shop when a rather unattractive man was selecting a pair of trousers. He flatly objected to striped goods, and I got the idea that he was an ex-convict. To satisfy myself I visited one or two prisons and, sure enough, found the man's picture in the rogues' gallery. He had had enough of striped clothes." - Detroit Free Press.

His Aerial Flights.

"Henry," said Mrs. Hornbeak anxiously, "I ain't one of those people who worries very much, but I don't like the idea of our son Arthur becoming one of those bird men."

"Who said he was going to be an aviator?" asked Mr. Hornbeak.

"Well, here's Cousin Bill writing that we'd better put a curb on Arthur; says he's flying awful high for a young fellow." - London Express.

Liked the Family.

"Dick proposed to me last night."

"What did you tell him?"

"I said he had better ask mamma. And what do you think the wretch said?"

"Goodness knows."

"He said he had asked her already and she wouldn't have him."

Preferred the Cash.

"Did you attain the high ideals you set for yourself when you were young?" asked the friend of his boyhood.

"No," replied the millionaire, "and I'm glad I didn't. I see now that there was no money in them." - Lippincott's Magazine.

Kept on Not Looking.

"When she wasn't looking I kissed her."

"What did she do?"

"Refused to look at me for the rest of the evening." - Wasp.

Work.

If you intend to go to work, there is no place better than where you are. If you do not intend to go to work, you cannot get along anywhere. - Abraham Lincoln.

The wise man should be prepared for everything that does not lie within his control. - Pythagoras.
